1. Types of disability vary and therefore all cases must be handled individually.

2. There is no appropriation for buildings.

3. So far as possible existing schools, plants and institutions, both state and private, will be utilized.

4. Every man coming under the war insurance act is entitled to training.

5. Training will be continuous through hospital convalescence and until the man enters his trade.

6. Re-educated men will be placed in positions.

Inquiry throughout the north central state, shows a shortage in some lines everywhere. An effort is being made to secure transfer among the states, inasmuch as the deficiency is not the same in all sections. It is believed that by this means it will be possible to relieve much of the difficulty that has existed.
