Instead, most of the deletwo children, one 8 years old and the in cutting down the attendance, and other 6, looked on. After taking the the den was packed with the out-ofchildren to the home of a neighbor he returned to his home and shot himself. Jealousy is said to have been the cause of the murder and suicide. Kenent was 40 years of age and his wife a few years his junior. They had been married 10 years.

Kenent carefully laid out the body his wife before he took the children to the home of Anton Horak, a short distance away. When he started for his own home he announced that he intended to kill himself.

The children told Mr. Horak what had happened and Sheriff Bartunek Schuyler was notified. When the sheriff arrived he found the two lifeless bodies. It was so evident that was a case of murder and suicide that no inquest was held. The Kenents had quarreled frequently, it is said. The funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Kenent was held today.
