Sun—Bessie Barriscale, in the role of "Arlie," the little orphan, appearing in "Maid of the Storm," here for three days. This star has a human appeal love story of Scotland and England, written especially for her. She plays the part of a girll saved from a shipwreck and who is being brought up by an old Scotch fisherman. A young aviator falls from the clouds one day, sustaining a broken leg and while nursing young aviator falls from the clouds one day, sustaining a broken leg and while nursing him Ariel falls in love with him. She later goes to London to endeavor to educate herself up to the level of the "bird man." Her adventures with an old musician and a theatrical manager while there form the basis for a really remarkable and Muse—In "The Whirlpool," in which she appears as Belia Cavello, the decoy, in a fashionable gambling house in New York, Alice Brady has a sincere and highly dramatic part to perform. The story portrays her disliking the place and the ways of those with whom she is thrown in contact and in the end a young man who has showered attentions on her is arrested for burglary.

Rialto—Bill Hart is the meanest looking man in the world in his new feature, "Shark Monroe," appearing here today. As a sea captain with the worst reputation for bloodthirsty and terrible deeds on the entire coast, "Shark" meets and has as a passenger on his boat a pretty lovable woman and her worthless brother. The story of how the result of a different treatment works wonders in the character of this wolf of the seas is a thrilling love theme with dramatic action in it that keeps the audience on edge all through the story. In addition to the feature there are also being shown a series of the United States government war films, showing our boys on land and sea.

Empress — A clever comedy playlet,
"Miss Thanksgiving," by Don Mulially, which is meeting with the approval of the Empress audiences, is presented in a most pleasing manner by a good cast, including
Don Mulially, G. Swayne Gordon and Lois
Howell. A whirling novelty is presented by the four Earles, brothers and sisters. June Caprice usurps the screen at the Empress theater in her latest, "Miss Innocence."
The play presents Miss Caprice as a convent girl with lighter leanings and pictures her temptations and final conquest of self.
The story is said to be one of unusual interest. The picture will continue until Thursday.

Lothrop—"Rough and Ready," a drama of the western cowboy, with William Farnum in the lead, will be the feature here today. Farnum has a play that is prediscourteous for a member of this eminently full of action and life and with council to invoke the referendum on Apollo—Alice Brady appearing in a strong play of marriage, in "Woman and Wife," will be here for the last times today. The story is an intensely dramatic theme, portraying the heart of a woman and telling New York, July 22.—New York and St. Louis played a 15-inning 4 to 4 tie man who is far from easy to "get along the reday the man who is far from easy to "get along with a state of the problems of love and marriage with a man who is far from easy to "get along with "

Rohlff—Annette Kellerman in the super-feature, A Daughter of the Gods," will be here today and tomorrow. The play is an intensely interesting and dramatic story of the sea and with Miss Kellerman and her band of water nymphs to develop the action in the water some beautiful effects have been obtained on a large scale. The theme of the drama develops a pretty love story with the action built around scenes that call upon some marvelous feats of swimming feats by Miss Kellerman. On Thursday and Friday Theda Bara will ap-pear in "A Fool There Was."

Grand—In "Rose of Blood," appearing here for the last times today, Theda Bara takes the part of a Russian girl of high parentage who has been brought up in all the beliefs of caste and scorn for the lower the beliefs of caste and soorn for the lower classes. When, however, size sees her brother and those she loves betrayed into death by traitors in her country and the German hordes devastating her country she turns from the life she knows and, joining the revolutionary party of Russis, works night and day for the success of the revolution On Wednesday will be shown the 'House of Hate, No. 8, a Keystone comedy, and the Pathe Weekly.

Alhambra—"Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp," a true fairy tale with the Fox Kiddies" in the lead will be shown today. Kiddies" in the lead will be shown today. The play is a charming story and has been produced with a wealth of detail and a lavishness of stage properties that make the wonders of the lamp true marvels. It is a refreshing bit of unbelievableness in these days of tense dramatic piots, and one which pleases from the opening moment until Aladdin has attained the real happiness for which he has been in search and finds that it is something that could have been obtained by his own efforts and without the aid of the genii of any sort.
