SCHOOL CLINIC SHOWS HEALTH IMPROVEMENTS

Educational Officers Are Given Special Medical Training at the Train School.

Willie broke out laughing during a special demonstration of public school medical inspection work, held at Train school Wednesday for the benefit of school officers.

Harry had been called upon to show how a school boy prepares his toilet in the morning, preparatory for school, according to the methods urged by the school nurses...

Forty-seven boys and girls who had previously been examined during the school year by the nurses were at the school for this special clinic.

Boys Wash Face. "Breathing through the mouth, due to nasal affections, causes retardation of mental growth," Health Commissioner Manning stated in a brief talk at the clinic.

Supervisor Townsend of the school medical inspection asked the children what they expected to be when they grew to be men and women.

"Well, children, if you expect to realize your hopes, you must have health, and remember that the road to health is cleanliness, and also remember that health is wealth, but that wealth is not always health," Miss Townsend told the children.

"My ma does not have to tell me to wash my face any more in the morning," chirped one of the boys.

Superintendent Beverage and Assistant Superintendent Ryan attended the clinic.

Pershing Speaks to People of America By Columbia Record

The expression, "a voice across the seas" is no longer figurative language. Modern science, as represented in the phonograph has brought to America the literal voice of the leader of the armies of this land, upon a record created by the Columbia Graphophone company.

A part of the history of the war was made by General Pershing, at the height of the battle in Picardy, when at American headquarters he spoke a brief but stirring message to the people of this land, urging their loyal support of the armies in the field.

The idea which led to the making of the record came to Guy Goltzman of St. Louis, during a visit to Washington. Mr. Goltzman said that when he looked upon the facsimiles of Washington's farewell address, the Lincoln Gettysburg address and other prized mementos of the history of the United States, he could not but think how fine it would have been if the actual voices of these men could have been preserved as they gave these messages to the world, and he thereupon suggested the plan to the Columbia company.

The massive copper master record, brought back through the perilous sea lanes in an ordinary mail sack, is to be preserved where it may be seen, while the reproductions are heard through the coming years on every occasion when such a message might be needed to stir the people.

This record is to be played at noon at the Omaha Commercial club for several days and is on sale by Schmoller & Mueller, the local representatives of the Columbia Graphophone company.

The Columbia company has removed all its profits from this record and the money received for it is to be used by the National Forum in propaganda work in arousing the people of America to a full sense of their duty in the present war crisis.

It is approved by the war activities committee.

J. F. Peacock, United States soldier, son of Tom Peacock, Union Pacific fireman, is held at the city jail on the charge of reckless driving.

In Divorce Court. A divorce petition has been filed by Mrs. Elizabeth E. Harland against her husband, Charles F. Harland, on the grounds of cruelty and non-support.

Alfred R. Crossop asks a divorce from Maud D. Crossop on the ground that when he came to Omaha in 1916 from Kansas City she refused to come with him. They were married in 1897.

In her original suit for divorce, Judge Sears found Horn's allegations of cruelty were true and granted him the divorce instead of his wife.

Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Advertisement.
