THE OMAHA SUNDAY BEE: JULY 28, 1918.

Conducted by Ella Fleishman COUNCIL Lets go shopping With Polly Chinese Girls Will Nurse Sammies BLUFFS For the Red Cross Over in France Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bell of McClel-land announce the marriage of their daughter, Carrie, to Sergeant Alfred M. Julius, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. M. Julius, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Julius. The ceremony was performed at 8:30 on Saturday evening, July 20, at the home of the bride's parents, Bellevue farm, by Rev. Wright of Malvean. After the ceremony the bride and groom went to Camp Dodge, where Sergeant Julius is sta-tioned, by automobile. To buy, or not to buy, that is the question. What dreams come true, when we have Whether 'tis more patriotic in th mind shuffled off old togs. tioned, by automobile. Must give us pause: there's that approval Mrs. A. T. Flickinger has returned To wear old c othes and look dowdyish. from California, where she has spent Or to wear smart, new things, we all long for--some months. Misses Elsie and Edith Andrus of And thus keep cheerful the hearts and That makes for happiness in life---- Hopkins, Neb., who are the guests of Miss Viola Nelson, were enterthoughts of everyone. For who can bear the scorn accorded to tained on Monday by Misses Em-meline and Charlotte Stevenson at the To buy, and thus to spend the few shekels a frump. lake. Other guests were Miss Hazel we have left. And though I know Bill Shakespeare Ayers of Omaha and Harry Steven After constant war demands, would be shocked. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Riekman have And avoid the unadmiring glances of The way I've mired his famed sollloguy. returned from an extended automobile trip, They visited Denver, Estes masculinity. To long for, to desire, and by coreful park, Colorado Springs and Maniton. Aye, there's the rub! Mrs. Earl Baird has arrived from spending own some stylish clothes; Washington to spend a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith. For in the donning of fresh, chic gar-'T's a consummation devoutly to be Miss Ida Hammond of Indianapolis wished.

G REETINGS: Did you miss P IN-ON-SERVICE! Know about EW women can resist the lure of A SALE of service and helpfulness G REETINGS: Did you miss P in ON-SERVICE: Know about H EW women can resist the lure of A SALE of service and helpfulness Sundays? Hope you did! For where, terested when I tell you, for the tell me where, is the person, who idea itself is one of the cleverest suits of beautiful taffeta or satin may Shop, second floor Securities building. he selected at such a moderate price There you'll find about 50 of the best bit? One little lady did, I know, for who loves pretty hats-and of course, as Thorne's Style Shop is offering looking wash dresses you ever saw, them just now. I poted a taupe satin offered at such a decided discount, suit, and one of Hunter's green taf- that it will really pay you to buy one feta-both of refined, distinctive fash- or more; for even if the summer is ion lines which had formerly sold for partly gone, they will be lovely for $45 Taffeta suits of navy, tan and gray, which sold at $35, are ticketed $17.75; while there is a handsome navy suit of a super quality of satin which had gingham. All spring and summer been $50 and is now $29.75. Visit garments are offered at this final this shop at 1812 Farnam, and take clearance sale. advantage of this timely sale.

sailor hats with plain black bands on chines.

HERE'S a suggestion to the girl who wishes to look her prettiest on the summer dance nights at the clubs. First, be sure your hair is carefully held in place with a cap net, for nothing adds greater to attractiveness than a neatly-arranged coiffure. At the Franco-American Toilet Requisite Shop, 772 Brandeis building, is sold an invisible net of real hair, which makes the hair stay up longer and look better than any I've ever seen. A package with two for 25c. For the evening complexion, I would surgest "Liquigiene," also sold at :: shop, as it is a truly perfected liquid powder. It is free from bismuth, and lead in all forms and cannot injure the most delicate of any other process. Priced 50c.

now marked as low as $24.75. another season. Such dainty flowerlike organdies for afternoon and club wear; voiles as perfectly adorable as one could wish, and smart frocks of

Some of the handsomest summer

HE desire to go a'journeying certainly does possess one's soul, after a visit to the luggage shop of Freling & Steinle, at 1803 Farnam street. Such a variety of wonderful bags and suit cases-each fairly seeming to whisper of mountains-of lakes --of going away! I was truly sur-prised and delighted at the number of different styles shown. Some of these are really editions de luxe of the leather craftsman's art. The leathers being of super quality, while the linings are of beautiful color tones in sflk and silk moire. All the needful articles for milady's toilet are fitted in these bags and suit cases, and are of the best quality of manufactured ivory that could be obtained. Bags and suit cases may be had in various leathersseal, walrus, imported goat skin and cowhide, while the linings are of silk, moire and poplin. Bags, priced $25 to $60. Suit cases, $25 to $70. For the short journey, or week-end visit, there are good-looking Pullman and

. . .

FIRING LINE.

Such a copy-cattish thing Pretty Georgette crepe has done; Took designs from Miss Foulard

And copied almost every one.

I'm wishing you adieu my friends,

I've nothing else to say my friends

Until next week, when I will seek friends.

To find you something new my

Sincerely

Silk fringe upon the sash

As anything in town.

Or on the tunic of a gown

Makes it quite as up-to-datish overnight bags.

visited their son, Bernard, who left all the way from Trinidad to study Monday for New York, and who expects to start for France almost im-The Women's Golf club met at the lake Wednesday for an all-day play, Americans in France. Anxious to do with a picnic lunch at noon. Many of their best for the allied cause, these the members are out of town, so the young women overcame the tradiattendance was light, but the enthutional Chinese opposition to women siasm of those present seemed imleaving home and came to America to pervious to heat. Miss Sara Besley become trained nurses. won the low score. The usual play "Every one, the British as well as the American doctors and merchants will take place next Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Roberts entertained Wednesday in honor of their son, Will, who left for Camp Pike the American trained nurse was the hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Henry Wescott.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolff entertained at dinner on Wednesday in Friday for Camp Pike.

is also spending a few days at the Announcement is made of the mar-

Announcement is made of the mar-riage of Miss Mary Kiely of this city and Lt. Donald Kynett, which took place Wednesday, July 17, at the Holy Family church at Deming, N. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Carnett. Mrs. Kynett will re-main in Deming until her hushand is main in Deming until her husband is ordered to France. The wedding had been planned for next month, but Lieutenant Kynett was unable to get a furlough, so his bride arranged to go south to meet him. She was

Mrs. Anthony B. Klein and daugh-

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Beno have returned from Chicago, where they ter, Miss Josephine, have returned accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J

P. Kiely, who has just returned.

from a month's visit in Chicago.

Smith home.

mediately.

and business men of all countries," said Dorothy Francis, "told me that were equaled in no other country."

Dorothy and Maude Francis, young | school for nurses in Brooklyn, When Chinese women of means who came told that she was apt to be refused admittance to the port she had set about establishing her right to enter, nursing in an American training and her perseverance resulted in her school, have offered Geir services to being admitted. She became so enthe American Red Cross to nurse thusiastic about the work and the opportunity for "doing one's best for humanity" that she wrote for her sister. At the end of the war the two sisters intend going to China to establish a nurses' training school in Pekin to encourage young Chinese girls to take up nursing.

TRAINED IN AMERICAN SCHOOLS THESE CHINESE NURSES WOULD

ENROLL WITH THE RED CROSS TO NURSE AMERICANS IN FRANCE.

They are the daughters of a prosperous proprietor of a cocoa estate in the West Indies who came there as a boy and was adopted by an English Friday. A large party assembleed to most efficient of her profession; that family. The father was married to a wish the young man success. T'e the hospitals, the training schools, girl of his own race and settled down the opportunities for experience for in Trinidad, where four daughters trained-nurses as found in America, were born to them, all of whom speak English fluently.

Miss Francis has just completed The coming enrollment of these called capes and some are elongated honor of their son, Jake, who left on the three years' course in nurses' two Chinese nurses is one of the di- into cunning waistcoats. training at Bellevue hospital. New rect effects of the nation wide cam-Mrs Alice Stork entertained on York, and after a trip to Trinidad to paign the American Red Cross is WPPOSING you had some Wednesday in honor of Ivan Booth. visit her mother will enroll with the conducting to enroll every graduate S UPPOSING you had some section, with all the persistency of a Millinery department who is respon-Diogenes looking for an honest man, sible for this, and his purpose is to help but failed to find any shopping notes. women who feel they would like to "Finally," she said. "I came to the save money by trimming their own conclusion that the page with Polly's bonnets, but who have'nt the latest news about the shops, must have and correct ideas. After selecting a shape you find is becoming, it is an But here I am once more, back expert who gives you suggestions and again from my summer vacation, and pins on the trimmings (you sew them glad indeed am I to greet the readers on yourself, after you get the 'bun-'nit" home), so you have the assur-

Sauntering through the shops this ance that you have a most up-to-datveek, I noted many changes. Inter- ish affair indeed! And the grand part est is now beginning to center upon of it all is, that you pay for just the arrival and display of fall gar- what you see with the naked eye-no ments. Stores are gradually assum- cost whatever for the trimming. Such a saving! and then think of the sur-But there are still bargains galore prise you can give your friends when for the belated summer shopper, and you tell them you trimmed your own

ments

one who saunters, discovers many dehat. I call this service efficiency lightful tidbits which may be picked plus! Investigate this really worthup from the odds and ends of the while idea for yourself.

> A dress of heavy, ovster white tussore silk has a skirt quilted in rose color.

the forelock" and buy things at old MACHINES were buzzing merrily, time prices and be prepared for any and the workers were as busy emergency, or will let this opporas bees the other day when I visited tunity slip and regret for months your the shop of the Ideal Button and Pleating company, third floor, Brown "Yes, we are busy." said Manblock. Collars are large enough to be ager Ver Mehren. "Despite the fact that this is supposed to be our dull season, the orders for hemstitching lights are lit" that is not achieved by and embroidering still continue to in." I know the secret of this doesn't like to be missed just a little things ever created, for the woman she told me that she had waded that means every woman! It is Mr. through and through the woman's Amsden, manager of the Brandeis'

French women are wearing white frocks are severely tailored crepe de

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Scott Covalt, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kehrer, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cook, Mrs. J. A. Booth, Miss Cecile Booth. Ivan Booth and Mrs. Alice Stork. Today the Heft and Hurd families will hold their annual reunion at the lake. The family will also do honor to their boys in service by displaying their service flage and decorations. There are about fifty members in the service and four of them, R. J. Heft. David Downs, Harry Hurds and Ed Kirkendan are now in France. Last year over eighty members were present and a large crowd is expected today. Miss Josephine Junkin and Miss Elsie Erickson of Red Oak and Miss Romie Lundeen of Tabor are the guests of Miss Leota Hatswell at the Boat club.

Mrs. Donald Macrae left on Thursday for Fort Sill to be with her daughter, whose husband, Clifford Wolfe, has been reported missing. Dr. Macrae cabled to that effect on Wednesday, and Mrs. Macrae left for Fort Sill as soon as possible. Lieu-tenant and Mrs. Donald Macrae, III, are also there, and Mrs. Wolfe had planned to spend som time with them.

Mrs. Eldred Schuyler Hart, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. E. E. Hart, returned home on Friday has been very dry and worms like evening. Mr. Hart, who has been managing a farm at Mexico, Mo., left on Friday for Camp Pike.

Mrs. B. A. Moore left on Thursday for Fort Sam Houston to join her before you find one. However, Ruth husband, Lieutenant Moore.

Maj. A. V. Hennessey, who has been spending some months in Honoof his furlough.

BENSON

Miss Queenie Handley has returned to St. Louis after a few weeks' visit in this place.

Mrs. John Lauritzen, who leaves next week to live on a farm near West Point, Neb., was surprised Wednesday by the Lutheran women and Foreign Missionary society. The women brought a lunch and presenting. ed the guest of honor with a set of sherbet cups.

Mrs. E. Myers left last Thursday tives in Indiana. for a few weeks' visit in Stromsburg, Neb.

The Loyal Daughters' club gave a Colorado. shower for Mrs. Tom Donnelly, nee Jessie Bellis, who is now at Camp home from Lincoln to spend the rest Pike since her marriage to Lientenan Donnelly. parents.

Mrs, Frank Ralston of Gothenburg has returned to her home after a week's vacation at her parents' home. week's visit at the McCreary home. Mrs. Gertrude Clelland of Benson its work Wednesday and will do knitand Mr. James McFarlane of Fair- ting and Belgium relief work for a bury, Neb., were married Saturday month. by Rev. Mr. Jansen in Florence. Mr. Dr. a and Mrs. McFarlane have gone to Thursday by auto for a 10-day's stay Fairbury to reside. at Lake Okoboji D. C. Sturtz and grandchildren have returned home from a week's cream social and program Thursday visit in Lincoln. A number of showers were given Numbers on the program were given during the last week in honor of Miss by Misses Florence Knudsen, Lucille Edith Calvert and Miss Helen Iorgensen.

The Queen Esther society held a by the Standard Bearers. picnic at Krug's park Tuesday evening. A basket lunch was served at societies of the Lutheran church will supper time. Union church services will be held wood park next month

Her nurse either for assignment to the Red Cross nursing service. younger sister has two years of train- Army and Navy Nurse corps or for ing still ahead of her, but says if the duty in public health nursing and as war lasts that long she, too, will en- home defense nurses. The army and ter upon Red Cross work. navy have called for enough addition-Miss Francis sailed for New York at nurses to bring their nurse corps three years ago without knowing any up to approximately 25,000 by the one-only the address of a training first of the year.

COCK ROBIN IS DEAD! WHO KILLED COCK ROBIN?

By Ruth Whitney. ARY had a little lamb," but Ruth had a little robin, which followed her wherever she would allow it to go. One day in May Ruth, 10-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David A. Medders, went out in the yard and found a baby robin that had fallen out of its nest. Ruth picked the little scrawny hird up tenderly and carried it into the house to her mother. "Can't we feed it, mother, and bring it up?" asked Ruth.

Her mother agreed and from that time on the whole family devoted themselves to digging worms for the baby robin. You have no idea how hard worms are to find this year. It wet, cool earth, so they burrow deep below the surface where the moisture s, and when you dig for them you have to dig up lots and lots of dirt and her mother and father and the neighbors, who all were glad to help, bald head.

He said it tickled.

The Red Cross auxiliary finished up

evening at the Methodist church

lulu, H. I., in charge of the depart-ment hospital, has returned home for feathers sprouted and developed until door there stood the postman with a ninety-day leave of absence. He it was a full-grown bird. Of course, the robin on his shoulder. He said has not as yet received orders as to a robin that was so well treated was the bird had flown there and wouldn't where he will be stationed at the end very tame, for it knew no one would get off and he didn't know what to of his furlough. bors and people who had heard about take the bird off his shoulder so he the tame robin came flocking in to could go away without taking their see it, and the robin enjoyed these pet with them. Every time Ruth or her parents receptions as well as its little mistress. It would fly about and alight went into the yard, the little bird on people's hands and shoulders. One would fly to them joyously and set-The door bell rang wildly one day feet. One of his wings was broken square at $4, or in double swings for could not swallow any food. The poor on the Baptist church lawn this even Mr. and Mrs. John Killian returned home Sunday from a visit with rela- her when she goes out the door. They never knew what happened to Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Seesko have motheir little pet, but do not think it tored for Denver and other points in could have been a cat that hurt it, as there were no tears or wounds except Miss Madelime Horton has arrived the broken wing. It is lonely in the Medders' yard of the summer at the home of her now, with no little feathered bit of brightness to greet you when you Miss Edna Killian is spending a open the door. realth.

The Pennsylvania railroad now has more than four times as many women in its employ as it had a year ago.

"We can get any war work done if only we take the public into our con-Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Thompson left fidence."-Mrs. Raymond Robins. The Standard Bearers gave an ice

Some of the most cherished pieces in her collection of jewels have been contributed by Queen Helena to the Italian war relief funds, Sunneland, Roma and Eunice Roth Mary Miles Minter, the 16-year-old and Violet Rose and a patriotic play film star, is said to receive an annual income of nearly $100,000 from her The Home and Foreign Missionary work.

hold a meeting and picnic at Elm-pour fectly exquisite Georgette hats to describe-how would you go about it? I could think of nothing more there, and moreover, when they prom- frocks of serge. than magic when I looked at those at the Nebraska Clothing Company's Millinery Shop this week: they were such witching affairs! And the prices dainty finishing touches to your of this favored midsummer millinery surely would meet your heart's desire. Why, there are several tables of hats formerly selling for $10 and $12, which have all been ticketed $5. Imagine it! There are white, sand, dark blues and various high shades, but particularly was I pleased with those of that indescribably lovely color-orchid. There are several hats of this wonderful color. Besides

Heavy crepe smocks are embroidered with heavy cottons in dull shades.

ville. Neb

Monmouth Park.

Mrs. Leroy Frazelle and son.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baarman.

clown away."

f this section.

ing a "fall time" air.

July clearance sales.

improvidence. Decide!

Summer is only beginning as far as the weather is concerned. Now comes the time when you must decide at once whether you will "take time by faction to visit F. W. Thorne's Up- very beautiful black satin skirts trimwho are not connoisseurs themselves which you'll want to see if you are in-in the selection of apparel find the terested in the skirt question. "Thorne" label is not merely a stamp of quality, but a safeguard in the matter of price. Readiness in the and costing only 25c, contains six desirables that make a woman's life neat wooden forks and knives. Take leasanter is another characteristic of one on your next picnic, this shop. A remarkable group of serge dresses has just been unpacked which you'll certainly be interested in viewing. Among these are some charming models from Madame sometimes occur. These are the Flander's ultra fashionable shop. Serge dresses are priced $14.75 to $40.

T HAT picture of your soldier for you to come and take one or sweetheart or husband, which more home with you. These holds the place of prominence on the have the best interests of your pocketmantel or dresser, should have a set- book at heart, for in each one may ting befitting the reverence accorded be stored away for winter use as it. At the Hospe Art Shop, 1513 many as 10 dozen eggs at a time. Douglas, I was shown a beautiful evening a very bald man came and the on their shoulders. One day Ruth array of standard swing frames in va- the lid 60c. These crockery jars the robin alighted right on top of his went out and the robin did not come rious different styles, both carved and which are made by the Fulper Potflying about her head. Instead he plain. Dignified frames carved out tery company, are also fine to put came fluttering and limping to her of solid mahogany, both oval or away jams, jellies and dried fruits. and his little throat was so sore he two pictures for $7.50. Lovely though-it's because only careful, conscientious work is turned out ise to fill your order in a stated time, they always keep their word. I certainly do advise you to have the gowns, or blouses done at this most accommodating of shops. . . .

Some of the prettiest veils are figured and are simply thrown over the hat.

. . .

WARTIME conditions have given the separate skirt an increased importance in every woman's wardthese, there is a beautiful array of robe. In fact, its wonderful day-in new velvet hats for early fall wear, and day-out usefulness makes it the Picturesque Gainsboroughs, clever most important item in a woman's tams, smart sailors and high turbans. wardrobe. Styled-to-the-minute are You'll simply go into ecstacies over "The Nebraska's" lovely hats. some new fall skirts I saw at F. W. Thorne's Up-Farnam Shop. Beauti-ful Farnam Shop. Beauti-Thorne's Up-Farnam Shop. Beautiful French worsteds and serges in plaids of soft, harmonious color combinations. Even the large decorative buttons take on the two-tone colors featured in the plaids. These un-F you are a judge of smart clothes, usually handsome and well tailored it will be a source of great satis- skirts are priced $9.75 to $24.75. Some Town Shop at 1812 Farnam. Those med with fringe have just arrived, with. There are wicker fly swatters

A small box labeled "Picnic Set."

. . .

FAMILY JARS! Oh, my no! Not that unpleasant kind which friendliest jars in the world, and they are ready and waiting at the Alla Shop, 207 South Eighteenth street.

iars Each container (or jar) is $2, and

. . .

A hat can change a tailored or a woodsy brown and gold toned frames semi-tailored suit, from a morning little bird tried pitifully hard to get for $3 to $5. Roman gold frames costume into an afternoon costume, well, but the next day he died, and from $4 to $10, while plain gold and again into a restaurant costume, now Ruth has no little bird to greet frames are priced at $2.50. It sounds like a magician's trick. It sounds like a magician's trick.

. . . Rows of fringed braid are seen on

. . .

O of the needle. They are now fabric-wool jersey. Since then every making handmade lingerie, which is designer of note has used this soft, quite as adorably lovely as any ever gracious material, so vastly becoming created by the French. In fact they to every type of figure. For street or are being tutored in this art by traveling dresses, wool jersey frocks French teachers. An importation of are extremely practical on account of envelope chemise and robes de nuit, their dust-shedding, non-crushable has just been received at the Oriental qualities.

ing company, 1318 Farpam street. Each piece is of such ineffable loveliness, that brides, who once get a neep at them will be tempted to buy several for their trousseaux. The dainty dots, open work and embroidered flowers are the finest examples of exquisite handwork. A feature of the "envelopes" is the hand scalloped made with tiny sleeves. or sleeveless, and priced $5 to $15. The envelopes are $4.75 to $10.

Swat the fly! But don't use one of those ugly old wire things to do it gavly decorated with colored tassels. which are ornamental as well as useful. Better buy one for the summer without tassel. . . .

come in for a big portion of popularity next winter.

If you want to know what's what in the shops, keep your eye on these columns. Remember I am always happy to help you out with ideas, or to return.

C. O. D. unless accompanied by bank draft or money order. Address

Gretna, Neb., to assist her granddaughter, cooking for threshers at the home of her son-in-law, Harry Truelson.

-Advertisement.

spending the past week with old friends at Plattsmouth, returned Mrs. Ida A. Miller returned Tues day evening from Linwood, Nebe where she spent eight days assisting Jepsen are spending the month of her step-daughter, Mrs. John Young, July with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Arm-brust on the Millard road. formerly Miss Lottie Aughe, of Omaha, cooking for threshers. Mr. Young Three more West Side young men is manager of the 4,000-acre ranch of wood. naval training camp and Frank Young and Chester Davis to Camp Among the women war workers in France is Helen Dixon Krumbhaar, a The Misses Josephine and Mamie great granddaughter of George M. Dallas, who was vice president of the United States during the administra-tion of President Polk. week-end guests of their aged grand-

The only surviving member of the Mrs. August Smith, who has been first American woman's rights conventhe guest of her sister, Mrs. George tion, held 70 years ago at Seneca Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Jensen had Berger. at Opportunity, Neb., re- N Y., is Miss Rhoda Palmer, who is living near Geneva. N. Y., aged in West Ambler land, Ore. F. C. Jensen and family and W. R. O. C. Wisler returned the end of the week from a two weeks' vacation at Denver with Mrs. Wisler, who is spending the summer there for her Messrs. Hans, Carl and Pete Niel-

The Ladies' Aid society held their and brother, James, left Tuesday for all-day meeting in the basement of have joined the country's colors. Fred W. Dawson, half a mile west of lina fishing trip of two weeks at Louis-

Miss Henrietta Jackson is spend-The fourth and last quarterly coning July with Mrs. A. C. Jennings in ference of Jennings church met Jues- Dodge at Des Moines. tay evening at the parsonage of Rev. R. Chenowith on business for the Thompson of Central Park have been

Harold, returned from St. Joseph closing of the year's work. Miss Helen McGrail, who has been mother, Mrs. John Bonewitz, at the Monday evening, having spent their spending her school vacation with home of their sister, Mrs Maggie two weeks' vacation with her parents. her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Stier, Miss Hildegarde Anderson of Ash-Monday for Lincoln for a few left weeks' visit with relatives. land is spending the summer with

An English town boasts of a milk woman who wears a moncole at work. Miss Maud McCoy, who have been Alexander and daughter, Miss Mary, Mrs. John Wrieth left Monday for year

O RIENTALS are perfect wizards splendid possibilities of that flattering

Shop of the W. H. Eldridge Import-SHOTS FROM FASHION'S A revival old-fashioned and sweet, Is the calico frock trim and neat; Cretonne too, they say In patterns most gay May even be worn on the street.

The nighties are When a-motoring you will go shoulder strap. Wear a coat of leather. Have it lined inside with tweed As protection 'gainst rough weather.

porch. Priced 25c with tassel, 15c

Blocked felt hats, it is thought, will In all popular fabrics ome in for a big portion of popu- "Tank Gray" is a shade Of which many "tailleurs" For fall will be made.

Beige and biscuit frocks are seen Worn with vivid hats of green." In fact these colors which are new Look best with hats of positive hue.

do your shopping for you. In writing, please state price, size and as many details as possible, and kindly enclose stamp for reply (not a stamped envelope). The service is absolutely free to the readers of The Bee. Articles sent from sales are not subject to

The stores will send purchases

POLLY THE SHOPPER. Omaha, Bee.

the guests of relatives here five weeks, from Grinnell, Ia. They left for left Monday for their home in Port- home on Monday. Miss Carrie Wisler, who has been Blackett and family spent the weekend at Clarks, Neb., making the trip in thir auto. The Misses Violet King and Gurda sen have returned from their week's Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hensman acfishing trip to Waterloo, Neb. companied by his sister, Miss Bertha, > the church Thursday to quilt and the Andusen goes to the Great Lakes Red Cross of Friday.

