Record for July Shows $224,-728,177, as Compared with $131,357,130 for One Year Ago.

Omaha bank clearnings for July, 1918, were $224,722,177, compared with only $131,357,130 in July, 1917. This great increase, indicative of the prosperity of the city and surrounding country is greater than it has been in any previous month this year, though each month has registered a large increase over the same month of last year. .

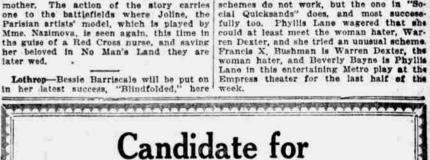

In the Silent Drama

Sum-Suppose you were a woman, accus-tomed to every luxury, possessed of un-limited wealth, and brought up in an atlimited wealth, and brought up in an at-mosphere of extravagance. Then you sud-denly learned that the man you loved and had married faced imprisonment for a crime he never committed and you also knew that possession of certain documents in another man's safe would save him. You have your chance and the combination is known to you-would you steal to save your loved one? This is the problem played up by Edna Goodrich in her new play. "Her Husband's Honor," at the Sun today and temporrow, and Miss Goodrich starting out as a young and frivolous wife gives a clever portrayal of character work in the change to a woman with a purpose in life.

Bialto—Jack Pickford and Louise Huff, the juvenile team of stars, are playing here for the remainder of the week in "Sandy." a charming love story involving the emi-gration of a Scotch lad to this country. He sees a Kentucky judge's daughter on shipboard and later when the occasion ar-rives he meets her and proves that he has developed into a man of resource and cour-age. The charming ways of the southern people, exciting horse races and similar things are involved in the plot, but in the end Sandy wins the girl of his dreams. Rohwer Had Been Going Down Hill for a Long Time-Tanlac Restores Health.

In speaking of the marvelous way Tanlac has relieved him of a longstanding case of stomach trouble and sas today sold the pacer, Verlie other ailments, George A. Rohwer, Patchen, 2:021/2, to Fred Cline of In- a successful farmer, living on R. F. dianapolis. S. F. Palin will drive her D. No. 1, Station B, who was in town the other day, said:

"I cannot praise Tanlac too much for the good it has done me, and I came in today especially to get me another bottle of this wonderful medicine.

Mr. Rohwer is living and working on the same place, five miles west of Omaha, where he was born thirtyfive years ago, and his standing in that community is too well known to require further comment.

"For a long time now." he continued, "I was in a mighty badly rundown condition, brought on by stomach trouble. I lost my appetite completely and the little I managed to force down would sour on my stomach and fill me up with gas till I was miserable for hours afterwards. My liver was out of order and inactive and I was badly constipated all the time. I suffered from such terrible pains in my back that they seemed to go all through my body, and my neck and shoulders would ache so at times that I could hardly stand it. When I would go to bed at night I just couldn't lie on my back or on either side, and was so racked with pain at times that I could hardly sleep at all. I lost weight right along and felt so tired and wornout after getting up in the mornings that it was all I could do to keep going.

"Although I tried everything I could get hold of nothing did me a bit of good till I began taking Tan-lac. The relief I have obtained through taking a few bottles of this medicine is little short of miraculous. My appetite picked up right from the first and I was soon eating hearty meals again and enjoying them like I hadn't been able to do in the last three years. I never have a bit of trouble now with gas or indigestion. and all those aches and pains I used to suffer from so much are entirely gone. I can go to the fields and work hard all day, eat a good supper and go to sleep as soon as my head hits the pillow and sleep like a log all night. When I get up in the morning I am full of energy and ready to take hold again and put through another day's work at whatever is necessary. Those Tanlac Tablets I have been taking are doing their work, too, and my strength is getting regular again.

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by Sherman & McConnell Drug Co., corner 16th and Dodge streets; 16th and Harney streets; Owl Drug Co., 16th and Farnam streets; Harvard Pharmacy, 24th and Farnam streets : northeast corner 19th and Farnam streets; West End Pharmacy, 49th and Dodge streets, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative, and in South Omaha by Forrest & Meany Drug Co .- Adv.

The Aurora Republican, edited by Clark Perkins, last week contained the following editorial:

The Editor of the Republican favors Congressman Sloan for the following reasons, which to us seem good and sufficient:

Mr. Sloan has been the Fourth district's representative in congress for eight years, and he has always stood for constructive republican legislation.

His record shows that he has been for "America first." not only in time of war, but in time of peace. His record on preparedness is the best of any candidate seeking the senatorial nomination. Since war was declared he has met in every way the loyalty test of the League of National Unity, which has been approved by the leaders of both great political parties.

Mr. Sloan has supported every measure asked of congress as a war measure, and has committed himself to peace only when America and her allies can absolutely dictate the terms of peace. He has two sons in military service.

He stands in a place of leadership in the republican party, both in the state and nation. He is the only republican congressman from Nebraska in its 51 years of history to attain membership on the ways and means committee, the most important committee of the house of representatives.

With large legislative experience, he has had his part in all war legislation up to this time. He stands well with his colleagues. who recognize his ability, his fairness, his staunch Americanism and republicanism. He would at once attain a place in the senate and on its committees that would be impossible for a man who has had no such experience.

He is more closely identified with agriculture than any cardidate for the senate, being actually engaged in conducting a farm. On account of the work he has performed in congress for the agricultural interests of the state and nation, he is recognized in Washington as one of the best posted men on all farm subjects.

He has always been loyal to the nation, to Nebraska and Nebraskans, and to the republican party, whose nomination he now seeks.

He was first in the field, having announced his candidacy last January, and he has done much of the pioneer work in crystalizing sentiment for staunch American representation in the senate from Nebraska.

His record has been such that his majority has increased at each election, until in 1916 he ran 10,000 shead of his ticket. His record in all former campaigns indicates that he can be elected if nominated. He is a "result-getter" in congress and a "vote-getter" at home.

Republicans of Nebraska who believe in "America first," in winning the war and winning it now, who feel that the republican party has a place of service and duty in the prosecution of this war, who believe that the republican party should control during the reconstruction period following the war, and who will want to elect their nominee at the November election, can well unite in support of Congressman Sloan.
