Magnates Meet at Cleveland to Discuss Situation, Johnson Opposed to Any Games After September 1.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 2,-At special meetings here tomorrow of the Amer-Ball commission a decision will be reached regarding the closing of the major league base ball season and the question of playing a world's series. Several owners of the National league are expected to attend.

The National commission meeting scheduled for 11 a. m. Chairman August Herrmann and Ban Johnson. president of the American league, will probably be the only members to at-tend as President John K. Tener of the National league has expressed his intention of not attending.

Favor September World Series. New York, Aug. 2 .- The National league base ball season of 1918 will end not later than September 2. Immediately afterward, the winning club will participate in a world series with the American league flag winners, provided arrangements for such a contest can be made with the rival

These were the outstanding decisions reached at a special meeting of he National league club presidents held in this city late today. The con-ference, which had been originally set for tomorrow, was advanced 24 hours in order that the senior organization might be in a position to present its ins to the American league m nates, who are scheduled to meet in Cleveland Saturday.

Opposes Playing After September 1. Chicago, Aug. 2.—President Ban Johnson of the American league, on is departure for Cleveland tonight to attend a special meeting of the league tomorrow, said he would not be a party to a base ball game played after September 1, the date stipulated by Secretary Baker for the applicaaffects professional base ball.

President Johnson's statement

strongly indicated that he would not consent to staging the world's series after September 1 as contemplated by club owners of the National league. The American league executive left for Cleveland with the vote of six of the eight club owners in favor of his plan to close the championship season on or about August 20 and then play a world's series within the 11 days remaining before the first of James C. Dunn, owner of the Cleveland club, and Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago Americans, accompanied President John-Dunn is strongly in favor of ending the season in accordance with President Johnson's suggestion, Mr. Comiskey, while opposed to the early closing, said he would cast his vote with the majority.
