"A STEER A LOAD" NEW SLOGAN FOR RED CROSS GIFTS

Cattle Shippers to Be Asked to Present War Charity With One Animal From Each Shipment.

"Give a steer a load to the Red Cross, is a motto which will probably be adopted by cattlemen at the Omaha Live Stock exchange. Shippers of cattle will be asked to instruct the commission men they deal with to select an average steer from each consignment of cattle and have a check for the amount that it brings sent to the Red Cross chapter in the county in which the shipper lives.

Since the average steer brings about $140 at present, the Red Cross chapters throughout the state will be given a considerable amount if the plan is put into effect. Already some shippers have been doing this. Hog dealers have been donating animals so generously to the Red Cross that during the past six months more than $300,000 has been given to the cause of humanity.

Cattlemen in the state have heretofore been appointing men from various counties to get an animal from their neighbors, and, after gathering a sufficient number to ship them to be sold for the "greatest moneys on earth." This method has been found inconvenient, since it necessitated much riding around the ranges and the cattle from strange herds showed a disposition to fight.

The new plan was suggested yesterday by Rufus Haney of Hyannis, Neb. Haney is a well known rancher in the Sand Hills, and was on the market with a load of cattle yesterday.

Stockmen Contribute to the Irish War Fund Liberally

A small crowd of stockmen surrounded the exhibits of the countess of Kingston, shown in the lobby of the Live Stock Exchange building Wednesday, and generously contributed to the fund to help disabled Irish soldiers and sailors. Great interest was shown in the relics from the battlefields of France and an enthusiastic welcome was given to Miss Joy Higgins when she spoke at noon previous to a luncheon, given in her honor. A canvass of the exchange for funds was made by the women in the party in the afternoon. Illness prevented the countess from attending.

About $150 was added to the Shamrock fund from the sale of shamrock pins in the exchange lobby during the noon hour. Misses Mary and Joy Higgins, Miss Janet Sullivan, Miss Beatrice Neill and Miss Mary Dougherty sold the emblems.

Oregon lambs brought by H. Walters of Oregon, brought the highest price paid for feeder lambs this season, when they were sold yesterday for $17.50 per hundred pounds. The lambs averaged 59 pounds each.

Two Local Grocers Fined

For Excess Sugar Prices Two Omaha grocers fell under the ban of the federal food administration for Nebraska yesterday afternoon for taking excessive profits on sales of sugar, and as a result they were put out of business by Oscar Allen, Douglas county administrator, as far as their dealings in sugar are concerned.

Joseph Hertzberg, operating the Farnam Grocery, 2553 Farnam street, signed a statement that he has been selling sugar at 10 cents per pound, one-half cent more than permitted. He was ordered to quit dealing in sugar until August 20.

H. J. Knudsen, 4619 Cuming street, drew a like penalty for a like offense. He, too, signed a statement that he had been taking an excessive profit and had been charging 10 cents for sugar.

Reese Sets Price of $3,000

On Good Name in Lawsuit Rudolph E. Reese has set a price of $3,000 on his good name and reputation.

In a petition filed by Reese in district court Wednesday, in which he asks $3,000 damages from Claus W. Glantz, he alleges that up to June 30 he was employed in Glantz's pool hall in Bennington, Neb.; that Glantz on that day made deprecating remarks about him, which were virtual accusations of thievery, before several of his friends and ended his wicked conversation by shouting at Reese: "If I had kept you a little longer, you would have owned the whole pool hall."

Reese figures that the alleged remarks have damaged his name and reputation to the extent of $3,000, which he asks the court to award him.

Says Wife Won't Stay Home.

John A. Gardner has filed an answer and cross-petition in district court to the divorce petition of his wife, Irene, in which she denies her allegations of cruelty on his part and counters with the allegations that Irene is of such an ungovernable temper as to threaten his good health and that she leaves his home for weeks at a time without informing him as to her whereabouts. He asks that her petition be denied and that he be granted the decree.

Omaha Man Is Promoted to Captain of Cavalry

Clinton C. Norris of this city has been promoted to the rank of captain of cavalry in the United States army and is now stationed at Camp Clark, ready to go across the big pond.

Norris had a lucrative position with the Prudential Life Insurance company, where he was assistant superintendent, and resigned to enter the officers' training camp at Fort Snelling, where he received a commission as first lieutenant. He was stationed at Camp Dodge, and later sent to Camp Clark and transferred to the cavalry, where he has now been promoted to be a captain.

Partners Trade Places.

Paul LeMarquand returned yesterday from a two months' fishing trip in northern Minnesota, where he really caught some fish. At least he says so, and his appearance indicates he has been doing well. Mr. LeDoux, who has been looking after the Empress all alone, starts today for his turn at the finny tribe, bent on learning whether the tales told by LeMarquand of the way they are biting have any foundation. The biting refers to the fish, and not to the mosquitoes.

New Treasurer at the Empress.

E. J. Seroy has signed papers for the season with "Old Man" Johnson, and will be secretary-treasurer of the Gayety during the coming season. He will divide some of the managerial responsibility, for Mr. Johnson is looking ahead to another strenuous winter of railroad travel in the interest of Gayety bills, and doesn't feel like doing all the work. Mr. Seroy knows the game, and will be an addition to the Gayety staff.

Promises of the Press Agents.

Empress—The management of the Empress theater has as a special attraction for the last half of this week, Paul Hayes, Russian handout king, who will show his ability to release himself from any of the handcuffs and shackles placed upon him. His final escape from a strait jacket will be accomplished in full view of the audience in exactly two minutes. During his three-night stay in this city, he will present several extra features, which will be announced. Another special attraction on the same bill will be the De Pace Opera, instrumentalists and vocal artists, featuring the famous De Pace Brothers, world's greatest exponents of the mandolin.

Gayety—There are big ones, and plenty of them on the burlesque wheel, but the one that is frequently called the greatest of them all is "The Golden Crook," featuring Billy Arlington, which comes to the Gayety for a week, starting Saturday matinee. Jacobs & Jerome have spent a fortune in scenery and costumes. John Jerome, the producer, knows burlesque backwards, and what the people want. The seat sale opens this morning at 10 o'clock.

St. Cecilia's Parish Carnival to Continue Tonight and Friday

The leading feature of the St. Cecilia Catholic carnival at Fortieth and Webster streets tonight, will be raising a 150-star service flag in commemoration of, and consecrated to, the heroes of that parish who are making the supreme sacrifice in the war.

Mayor E. P. Smith and Frank Matthews will be the speakers. The carnival was somewhat interfered with last night by rain. Although a large crowd of pleasure seekers was in attendance, many of the best features of the night's program had to be eliminated. The street was brilliantly illuminated by electricity and in a small way the carnival was a real representation of the old time entertainment with added new features.

The money derived will be divided between the church and school, and a certain per cent will be donated to the Red Cross. The carnival will be held tonight and tomorrow night. Exercises by the Bohemian Catholic Sokol girls in a drill to band music without verbal commands, formed a pretty feature last night. Ladies of the parish served not coffee and lunch, and across the street one could find various forms of amusement—all of which went to help out the carnival financially.
