

GERMANS UNABLE TO ORGANIZE FOR COUNTER STROKE

Allied Pressure So Heavy as to Give Enemy No Time to Form Defensive Lines.

By Associated Press. London, Aug. 10.—The advance of the allied armies on the Picardy front continued today, according to the latest dispatches reaching London this afternoon. Nowhere, it appears, have the Germans yet been able to organize for any severe counter stroke.

No further count of prisoners had come in at this hour, but the total is probably mounting rapidly, because of the disorganization of the Germans.

The allied casualties, including all the killed, wounded and missing are less than 6,000, or not more than one-fourth of the number of prisoners counted. On the other hand, the German casualties have been tremendously heavy.

The guns captured by the allies are now nearly 400 in number.

Eleven German divisions have been not only defeated in the fighting of the last three days, but so utterly crushed that the German higher command has been unable to make any counter stroke anywhere.

The German communications have been so disorganized that thus far only two divisions of reserves have been identified and these new troops have not been able to make any impression on the advancing allies.

POILUS WIN TOWN OF MONTDIDIER BY FINE DASH

Caught in Vise.

With the American Army in France, Aug. 10.—The Germans at Montdidier are caught between the jaws of a vise which is closing in this morning. Converging attacks from the north yesterday and from the south this morning had succeeded in virtually encircling the town.

They had also rendered useless to the Germans the Montdidier-Charleux railway which was the only line feeding the front at the bottom of the Montdidier pocket. The forces assembled there were in danger of not getting out without heavy losses.

The supplies taken during the past two days has been so large that it has not been possible to make an inventory of it as yet. It includes an enormous number of shells of all calibers and arms of all description. The attack extended to the eastward this morning, giving an unexpected development in the French participation in the battle. The wounded men coming back from the front are radiant with enthusiasm shouting to their comrades "The Boche is on the run!"

The French have captured 21 cannon since last night including six eight-inch guns at La Neuville-sur-Rossos. The Germans had moved the most of their heavy guns to the rear and defended their positions at Montdidier principally with machine gun fire.

Berlin Admits Defeat.

Berlin, via London, Aug. 10.—"In the center of the battle front the enemy has gained ground beyond Rosteres and Hanges," says the official communication from general headquarters tonight.

Six-Cent Street Car Fare Leads to Rioting in Detroit

Detroit, Aug. 10.—Rioting occurred in every section of the city today as a result of the efforts of the Detroit United Railways company to collect a six-cent fare.

Motormen were forcibly removed from their cars. Crowds, angered at the tieup resulting from the refusal of hundreds of passengers to pay the increased fare, attacked car crews.

At a munitions factory several hundred workmen overturned a car. In the downtown district policemen with drawn revolvers were called out to prevent threatened violence.

Salt Lake City, Aug. 10.—Permission to charge a carfare of 6 cents was granted the Utah Light and Traction company, which operates the street car system here, today.

Editor Skeffington's Widow Depoited From Ireland

London, Aug. 10.—Mrs. F. Sheehy Skeffington was deoported from Kings-town, Ireland, Friday night. She was in charge of two prison wardresses. Mrs. Skeffington visited the United States and was permitted to return to England on condition that she would not go to Ireland. She arrived in Dublin, however, August 3, having eluded the authorities, and was arrested there Thursday. Her husband, an editor, was killed during the Dublin revolt in 1916.

Original "Buster Brown" Hurt in Airplane Accident

New York, Aug. 10.—Richard F. Outcault, jr., the original "Buster Brown," a son of the cartoonist, was injured in an airplane accident in France a few weeks ago, according to letters received by friends of the family here today.

Russ Embassy Under Guard

London, Aug. 10.—In reprisal for the arrest at Moscow of Robert H. B. Lockhart, British consular agent at Moscow, and other British officials by the bolsheviks, M. Litvinoff, the bolshevik emissary in London, has been placed under police supervision, the Daily Mail states.

Germans Use Glass Shrapnel Now Against Americans on Vesle

With the American Army on the Vesle, Aug. 10.—The Americans discovered Saturday that the Germans in counter attacking Friday night and Saturday morning used "glass ball" shrapnel containing stones of a marble shape, some of them a half inch in diameter and others three-fifths of an inch. American officers said that this was their first acquaintance with shrapnel of this nature.

House Committee Billion Short of Its Eight Billion Goal

Washington, Aug. 10.—The house ways and means committee tonight is an even billion dollars short of its $8,000,000,000 goal in the framing of the tentative draft of the revenue bill.

Chairman Kitchin of the committee expects to confer with Secretary McAdoo next week before the bill is given its final approval, and differences between the treasury and the committee regarding the excess profits tax are expected to be straightened out.

In considering how best to raise the remaining billion dollars there was renewed talk among committee members today of the feasibility of a gross sales tax.

There was also talk of an excise tax on tea, coffee and sugar. A tax of 3 cents a pound on sugar and coffee and 10 or 15 cents a pound on tea, it was stated, would produce between $400,000,000 and $500,000,000.

Some members urged a resort to the tariff, saying an increase in customs duties to produce $400,000,000 should be adopted, but the committee has been trying to avoid reaching into the tariff.

U. P. EMPLOYEES IN FIRST PICNIC FOR TWENTY YEARS

first hours of this Sunday morning. The festive occasion opened with a concert by the Union Pacific band, rendering a program of popular airs and wartime selections. From 4 o'clock until 6 the time was taken up with running off the card of sport and athletic events, men, women and children participating and competing for the prizes offered.

On the card there were numerous races for the boys and girls and for the men and the women and there were scores of entrants. There were the pie eating, the nail driving, the melon eating contests and many others that required skill and endurance.

Later in the evening a dance was staged in the pavilion, where the young people and many of the older ones danced the latest dances and those that were in vogue 20 years or so ago.

There was no oratory at the picnic. It was just a family gathering and the profits from gate receipts and concessions, several hundred dollars, will go into the treasury of the war service club to aid the families of the company employees who have gone to war.

Winners In Contests.

Winners in the several events with the prizes offered were: Girls' race, roller skates, Anna Bricardy. Boys' race, glove, Morris Gibson. Sack race, tennis slippers, Robert Nelson. The DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice, free, may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Bldg., 409 E. 10th streets, Dayton, Ohio, enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious names will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well-stocked drug store. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

Celia asks: "My hair is too oily and my scalp itches with dandruff, and of late it is coming out too much. What is a good treatment?"

Answer: Obtain plain yellow methyl from your druggist in 4-oz. jars and apply as per directions. This cleans, purifies, cools and invigorates the hair and scalp, thus stopping the death of the hair. Dandruff and itching are at once relieved. Men and women all over the country now use it regularly.

"Worried" writes: "Have been doctoring for my trouble and now want your advice. Frequent desire is followed by burning pain and am very tender and sore over region of bladder. Also backache affects me dreadfully. Can hardly move. Very truly yours, in the morning. Weakness, too, is a symptom."

Answer: I think if you will take balm-work tablets regularly for a few weeks your kidneys and bladder will become normal and such symptoms vanish. This is unequalled for such complaints in my estimation.

NOTE: For many years Dr. Baker has been given free advice and prescriptions to millions of people through the press columns, and doubtless has helped in relieving illness and distress more than any single individual in the world's history. Thousands have written him expressions of gratitude and confidence similar to the following: "Dr. Lewis Baker, Dear Sir:—We have used three of the medicines you advise, and double four, the medicines you advise, and the rheumatism prescriptions, and I want to say the best I ever worked like a charm. They are not best house-remedies without them. I am very grateful and pleased to recommend any of these medicines. Sincerely yours, Mrs. P. L. WHITE, No. 8 Coleman St., Port Jervis, N. Y."

TAKE PRISONERS IN 16 MINUTES AFTER STARTING

Canadians Go Into Battle With Unbeatable Spirit After Long March and Quickly Gain Objective.

With the Canadian Forces on the Battle Front, Aug. 10.—The Canadians went over the top at 20 minutes past 4 on August 8 and 16 minutes afterward the first prisoners began to come in. By 8 o'clock a large part of the initial objective had been captured. For the first time the Canadian cavalry found itself on the same battlefield with the infantry. Also, it was the first time that Canadians had fought side by side with their brethren from Australia.

The victory, however, is notable chiefly for the wonderful staff work that alone made it possible. There was no artillery preparation in the usual sense of the word. The men went in immediately behind the barrage and kept up with it as it lifted. The boche was taken completely by surprise and prisoners were astounded to find they were surrendering to the Canadians.

The Canadian soldiers never went into action with more irrepresible eagerness and determination not to be refused than they did Thursday. Behind the rampart of valor they had built at Vimy and Arras they have laid all this spring and summer chafing that they were denied their opportunity of taking part alongside their cavalry and machine gun brigade in stemming the tide of Hun invasion.

Tired, Yet Unbeatable.

On Thursday, though tired from a march that permitted little rest before the battle, they went over the top with the unbeatable spirit of the men who fought and died at Ypres, on the Somme, and in a dozen glorious fields. It was a clear, starry night, with the faint light of dawn touching the eastern sky. Of a sudden, with one dealening pulse, the rear guns broke out.

Far to the right was the flicker of the French 75s and the American field guns and heavies. Immediately on the Canadian flank the Australians put up a great show in a sector where they had fought for several days past. Beyond them the imperial troops were in action.

Unfortunately, as the dawn increased the visibility became poor. A dense fog swept down the valleys. While this was protection against machine gunners, it greatly increased the difficulties of the troops finding their way over unknown ground.

In the first day's fighting the Canadian losses were not unduly heavy. One unit had rather heavy casualties in its first attack, but succeeded in taking its objectives after the tanks had come to its reinforcement.

German Crown Prince Blamed by Hun Troops For Marne Disaster

London, Aug. 10.—Reuter's, Ltd., correspondent with the British army in France sends the following dispatch concerning the German crown prince: "According to the statements of prisoners, the German crown prince appears to be the most unpopular leader in the German army. He is accused by them of being directly responsible for the Marne disaster. They say that the opinion is widely expressed by German soldiers that the crown prince's amateurish interference with the plans of their experienced generals was the starting point for the present crushing misfortunes of the German armies."

Uncle Sam Needs $2.30 Of Every $5 Earned To Pay His War Bill

Cleveland, O., Aug. 10.—Lewis B. Franklin, national director of the government war loan organization, spoke to 250 Fourth federal reserve district Liberty loan chairmen today. "Of every $5 earned in this country this year, $2.30 will be needed by the United States government to pay its war bill, and the government has got to get it," Mr. Franklin said.

Germans Attribute Defeat to Surprise Attacks Under Fog

Amsterdam, Aug. 10.—The Anglo-French successes are attributed to their surprise attacks and the presence of a thick fog over the battle field, according to a Berlin telegram received here quoting a semi-official German news agency.

"Notwithstanding the exceedingly favorable ground for the movement of great masses of troops and the operation of tanks, the initial success of the Anglo-French armies under Field Marshal Haig has not surpassed the limits which usually result from a first day's offensive," the agency declares. "A certain loss in guns and prisoners in such circumstances is unavoidable, but the enemy has not reached any of his strategic goals."

Another semi-official utterance telegraphed from Berlin says Field Marshal Haig undertook the attack to restore the badly tarnished military prestige of Great Britain, and asserts that "as usual" the brunt of the battle was not borne by the English, but by Canadians and Australians."

Lieut. Schwieger, Who Sunk the Lusitania, Died Last September

London, Aug. 10.—Lt. Commander Schwieger, who commanded the submarine which sank the Lusitania, is dead. His death occurred in September, but has only lately been admitted by the German admiralty, according to reports received here.

Last September Schwieger, in command of the U-88, was in the bight of Helgoland with another submarine. The other commander felt a chain sweeping along the side of his boat. A terrific explosion followed. The second boat rose rapidly and signaled for the other. There was no reply. A vain watch was kept for the U-88. There is little doubt, the reports say, that it sank.

Rainbow Division Proves Its Mettle In Numerous Battles

Answering a question as to the Forty-second division's record, General March today said: "The Rainbow division had its combat training in the Lorraine sector north of Luneville. It left that position to arrive east of Rheims where on July 15 it helped break the main German attack. When the French-American counter-offensive was launched on the Marne salient the division appeared there shortly in relief of other units. Our reports indicate the following: "In eight days of battle the Forty-second division has forced the passage of the Ourcq, taken prisoners from six enemy divisions, met, routed, decimated a crack division of the Prussian guards, a Bavarian division and one other division and driven back the enemy's lines for 16 kilometers."

William B. Rose

Judge of Supreme Court Candidate for re-election

TO THE VOTERS OF NEBRASKA:

Permit us to call your attention to the name of Judge William B. Rose, one of the present judges of the supreme court, who is a candidate for nomination at the primaries August 30 and for re-election November 5.

Judges are not nominated or elected on a party ballot, but are voted for on a separate judicial ballot. There are three judges of the supreme court to be elected and each voter may vote for three.

The judges of the supreme court decide cases involving life, liberty and property and all good citizens should take an active part in selecting them.

Judge Rose is now a member of the supreme court and we cannot afford to lose him from the bench. We appeal to you to support him for the following reasons:

In his judicial work, Judge Rose is vigorous, prompt, impartial, honest, fearless, capable. He is qualified by temperament, learning and experience for the duties of a judge. He has been faithful to his trust. His opinions declaring the law and pronouncing judgment are, according to competent critics, worthy of the highest court. The lawyers who are familiar with his work on the bench have endorsed his candidacy and are generally supporting him for another term. His private life and personal business relations are above criticism.

Candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court

I take this way of calling your attention to my candidacy for judge of the supreme court. Three judges are to be elected this fall. A separate judicial ballot will carry the names of candidates without party designations.

I feel that my work as former attorney general of the state and my connection with the supreme court commission have, in a sense, been a preparation for the duties of the high position to which I aspire. But even a candidate for supreme judge should not rely solely on the possession of qualifications for the office. He should stand for something more.

My heart is in every present effort of the courts designed to overcome the evils of our system of legal procedure and the delays incident thereto. The courts are the bulwark of our free institutions. Their efficacy is largely dependent upon their ready accessibility to all the people for the determination of their political and constitutional rights, and the promptness with which their judgments are pronounced.

Justice delayed is often equivalent to justice denied. It should, therefore, be the constant aim of judges to expediate judicial business and thus afford litigants a speedy review and determination of their controversies, consistent with a painstaking consideration of each case. Litigants are entitled to this as well as the public who are heavily taxed to pay court expenses. If elected I will do my best to aid in accomplishing these things. Many prominent citizens have voluntarily assured me of their earnest, active assistance in the coming judicial campaign.
