

WILL COMPLETE LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN PLAN

District Managers Will Meet in Omaha to Discuss Plans for Fourth Liberty Loan.

The Nebraska Liberty Loan committee is rapidly completing plans for the fourth Liberty Loan campaign which opens September 28.

T. C. Byrne, chairman of the Nebraska Liberty Loan committee, and O. T. Eastman, deputy executive manager of the Omaha Federal Reserve Bank, are in Kansas City attending a conference of all state chairmen in the tenth federal reserve district. On Friday, Aug. 16, there will be a conference in Omaha at the Federal Reserve bank of the fourteen district managers of Nebraska. They are: Mark Spangle, Bridgeport; F. L. Mooney, North Platte; J. C. Cordeau, McCook; F. A. Dean, Holdrege; J. W. Marvel, Hastings; Elmer Williams, Grand Island; Geo. N. Seymour, Elgin; C. E. Burnham, Norfolk; E. R. Gurney, Fremont; C. A. McCloud, York; E. L. Hevelone, Beatrice; Paul Hesse, Nebraska City; W. E. Rhoades, Omaha and C. E. Matson, Lincoln.

One County Organized.

Secretary E. F. Folda of the Omaha committee reports that one county of the state is so well organized that more than $70,000 worth of subscriptions for the Fourth Liberty Loan are already pledged and the chairman is leaving on a three weeks' vacation.

In this county every man has filed a report of his net worth and the committee has informed him that he is expected by the end of the fourth loan to own 4 per cent of that amount in government securities.

For instance, if he is worth $100,000 and has purchased $2,500 worth of government securities he is expected to subscribe $1,500 to the Fourth Liberty loan. By this plan the subscriptions of everyone in the county will be equalized.

Kraft E. Eicher Flies Into Rage Over a Cartoon of Kaiser Wilhelm

Kraft E. Eicher, boilermaker foreman at the Northwestern railway round house, is alleged to have been very much depressed by the news coming from the Picardy and Marne battle fronts, and was unable to join with his fellow workers in celebrating the allied victories. Tuesday morning when he came to work he found his locker wearing a vivid coat of yellow paint. It hurt his feelings to such an extent that he did not return to the shops during the day.

The railroad boys are intensely patriotic, and Monday afternoon one of them posted a big cartoon showing the kaiser and his huns getting theirs. Eicher flew into a rage and tore it down. It is alleged that something happened then of such personal nature to Mr. Eicher that he hurriedly left the yard. The incident created a tremendous wave of enthusiasm and war fervor about the yards, and the effort of the railroad officials to keep the matter quiet failed utterly.

It was said last evening that both the railroad officials and the federal officers are making an investigation. It is significant that every stripe of yellow paint put on the locker represented the protest of a fellow workman, more than 100 in number.

Eicher was born in Germany but came to this country when he was 5 years old. He has been very thrifty and has accumulated considerable property in addition to his comfortable home on Avenue D, Council Bluffs. He has valuable property in Waterloo, Ia., where he formerly lived. When he returned to the roundhouse Tuesday morning and saw his locker decorated with the yellow paint, he was not found at his home later in the day, but was said to have gone to Waterloo with the intention of remaining indefinitely.

Dusky Fortune Teller In Beaded Finery Robs South Side Man of $5.30

Arrayed in multi-colored finery and with many strings of beads hung around her neck, Mary Giech, gypsy, was brought to the South Side police station yesterday charged with robbing Frank Dragoon of $5.30. Two other women accompanied her to the jail where she calmly smoked her pipe. One of the other women produced a cigarette from among the intricate folds of her dress and began exhaling smoke in a manner which showed perfect familiarity with the coffin habit.

"Everybody smokes now," she remarked to a police officer. Dragoon alleges that he was having his fortune told when he was touched for the $5.30. The women live near Albright and are said to be preparing for a trip to Dakota.
