PRES. TAGG WIRES M'ADOO FARMERS NEED YEAR LOANS

Says Decrease in Live Stock Will Follow if Longer Loans to Breeders Are Not Made.

Officers of the National Live Stock exchange, of which W. B. Tagg of Omaha is president, held a special meeting in Chicago Saturday to discuss the situation which breeders and growers of cattle are in because of the present condition of the market. As a result, President Tagg has wired to Secretary McAdoo urging some relaxation of financial restrictions on banks and sufficient extension of credit to cattle growers to prevent excessive and premature liquidation. Representatives of the Omaha, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Sioux City yards were present at the meeting. The message drawn up emphasizes the importance of helping the farmer to raise breeding herds by advancing him the money. His inability to get loans for a longer period than six months discourages raising of stock cattle, it is said. It is stated that unless special attention is given to the matter there will be a big decrease in cattle production within the next two years. Copies of the message were sent to Secretary of Agriculture Houston, Food Administrator Hoover, and W. G. P. Harding, governor of the Federal Reserve board.

Board of Three in Charge

The plan of aiding the farmers has not been definitely worked out. A board of three with at least one experienced cattle man may be appointed to distribute government funds where they will do the most good. It is not thought that the money will be handled through any special government bank already organized such as the Federal Reserve bank. It will be loaned on good security for a year's time.

Notice to Stock Shippers

Commission men of the Omaha Live Stock exchange have issued the following notice to their patrons who ship live stock by auto trucks: Farmers who ship live stock to market by wagon or motor truck will receive their returns from same much more quickly and safely if they will either by letter or in person leave their names and addresses with their commission firms. Cattle, hogs and sheep are worth a lot of money these days and carelessness in notifying of ownership frequently results in delaying for several days the sending of returns for stock shipped and sold here.

Falconer Offers Sunday Ice Selling Ordinance

City Commissioner Falconer has offered an ordinance to prohibit the sale of ice from wagons on Sunday except in cases of emergency. He explained that an emergency may be inability of a driver to deliver on Saturday or delivery of ice to a hospital.

MABEL C. JOHNSON, Superintendent of Schools. The action of the last legislature of Nebraska making the office of County Superintendent of Public Instruction a Non-partisan office, was a long step in the right direction. Partisan politics should not play any part in the management of our public schools. In counties like Douglas, as high as 90 per cent of the city, their duties are almost entirely that of looking after the schools outside of the city limits of Omaha, whose schools are under separate management.

One of the candidates for the Non-partisan nomination for Superintendent in Douglas county at the coming primaries is Mabel C. Johnson of Waterloo, who is particularly adapted for this position. She was born and raised in this county, and is a real Douglas county product. She has been a teacher in the schools of this county for fourteen years, having taught both in town and rural schools. She is thoroughly conversant with every phase and requirement of the schools of the county. She is highly spoken of as an organizer and a woman of strong executive ability.

All down through the ages woman's influence has done much to mold the character of the child. Public opinion has come to consider that the office of Superintendent of Schools is largely in woman's sphere. As an evidence of this fact, it is only necessary to know that over seventy-five per cent of the County Superintendents in Nebraska are women. It will be well to bear this in mind and when you come to cast your ballot on Primary Day, no mistake will be made in placing your cross after the name of Mabel C. Johnson.

Row in Yards Caused By Shipping Order Issued Yesterday

Quite a row has been raised in the Omaha live stock yards as a result of an order issued yesterday, and to go in effect today, compelling commission men to leave their orders for cars at the office of the railroads before 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. This is two hours earlier than before the war and has been done, according to E. E. Grimes, joint agent at the yards for the railroads, to promote greater efficiency in shipping throughout the state. The order affects all live stock centers.

"It is not an arbitrary order," stated Mr. Grimes yesterday, "but will mean greater efficiency in transportation throughout the state. When the trains leaving Omaha are delayed an hour or two because of tardiness in loading live stock, it means that freight trains throughout the whole of Nebraska are delayed at least an hour. It is not a hardship, because 99 per cent of the men know by 10 o'clock in the morning how many cars they will need." Although commission men will, of course, have to accept the order it is regarded as arbitrary and it is said that it will cause some real hardship to dealers. After the roads were taken over by the government the original time was changed to one hour earlier. The order provides that the orders for cars must be absolutely complete, including the pen and block number, actual number of cars wanted, actual number of head to be loaded, the destination, name of the railroad and other necessary details. No change in orders will be accepted after 2:30 o'clock, and orders not complete by that time will have to wait over for morning.

Selective Men Are Guests of Chamber of Commerce

A party of 80 Omaha selective men took luncheon and were entertained at the Chamber of Commerce at noon Thursday. The party consisted of 64 men who will take special radio and signal work at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln and of 15 men who are going to Camps Dodge and Funston to replace men discharged from those cantonments.

J. A. C. Kennedy was the speaker at the luncheon. Music was furnished by a quartet. Comfort kits were given out to the men by women of the Red Cross Canteen service.

At 12:45 the men marched to the Burlington station in parade formation, led by a band and by members of the Soldiers' Welfare committee and the draft boards.

Salt Lake City Man Held Upon Complaint of Officer

John W. Covington, Salt Lake City, was arrested Wednesday by police on complaint of Serge. R. Davis of the army. It is alleged Covington is of enemy sympathies and he will be turned over to federal authorities for investigation.

MILITARY UNIT FOR CREIGHTON IS AUTHORIZED

Government Accepts Omaha Institution for Membership in Student Army Training Corps.

President McMenemy of Creighton university has just been notified that the government will organize a military unit at the Omaha institution on the reopening of the school, and will detail an officer of the United States army to take charge of the organization. The government is anxious to keep the schools filled with students, and has therefore worked out a plan providing for military training in conjunction with the regular school work. Students of the medical, dental, law, arts and sciences and pharmacy colleges, who are physically fit, will be permitted to enlist in what will be corps, and will be assigned to inactive service, in order that they may continue their studies until such time as the government thinks they can serve better on the active list. The students will be regarded as members of the army and will be issued complete uniform, including overcoat. They will have six hours drill each week, and during the summer vacation will be given six weeks intensive training at a camp, where they will be provided with rations by the government, and will draw a private's pay. Adjutant General McCain announced the selection of Creighton for this work in the following telegram: "Your institution having satisfied conditions prescribed in circular letter of June 29, upon basis of your figures, steps will be taken at once to establish a unit of students army training corps. If enrollment falls short of expectation, may be necessary to combine with neighboring institution. An officer of the United States army will be detailed and will upon arrival proceed with the organization of your unit. Rifles, uniforms, overcoats and other equipment will be shipped at an early date." Two Girls and Man Held by Police on Auto Charge Charles Oley, 2121 Grace street; Marguerite McNulty and Gladys McElane, both living in 4802 Charles street, were arrested Wednesday in Blair by Detective Danbaum and brought back to Omaha. It is alleged Oley stole an automobile belonging to Ed Sheehand of Plattsmouth from Omaha on August 7. He is charged with grand larceny. The two girls are alleged to have been inmates of the Hans Snyder house raided last Sunday, when several escaped. Offers to Send Victim of Cancer to Hospital for Cure Mrs. F. F. Cole, Nineteenth and Leavenworth streets, telephoned The Bee Wednesday night to offer to send W. Jeffries, the aged man who is being persecuted by neighbors, to a sanatorium where he could have his cancer cured. Unfortunately, owing to the age of the man and the long standing of the cancer, physicians have advised him that a cure is now impossible. Many people have expressed indignation at the treatment the man is receiving and a determination to take the matter up with the county authorities, as Mr. Jeffries lives outside the city limits.

Woman Loses Race in Auto to See Husband Enroute to the Front After making a breakneck race by automobile of the 30 miles from Glenwood, Ia., to Omaha in 40 minutes, Mrs. Louis Newton of Glenwood missed meeting her soldier husband by 10 minutes. Mr. Newton is a member of a coast artillery regiment which has been stationed for some months on the Pacific coast. His unit was ordered to the eastern seaboard and was to lie over two hours in Omaha between trains. Newton lost some time in reaching his wife by telephone. The race against the railroad administration was made without the loss of a minute on the way, but the train had left Omaha 10 minutes before she arrived.
