New York, August 17.—Trading in stocks for the greater part of the short week-end session was overshadowed by steady buying of Liberty 3%s, which sold at the highest quotation in history, closing at $100.50, against the previous maximum of $100.50. Dealings in this issue were relatively more extensive than in the 4s and 4%s, which were barely steady. After the market's close, 100.50 was bid for the 3%s, with 101 asked.
