San Francisco, Aug. 17.—A luncheon, arranged by the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce in honor of the French economic mission now visiting this city and at which Albert Metin, the mission's head, was to have been chief speaker, will be converted tomorrow into a service to the memory of M. Metin, who died at midnight last night of apoplexy. United States Senator James D. Phelan, as principal speaker, will pay tribute to the work and patriotism of M. Metin, who was twice minister of labor and minister of blockade in the French cabinet.

Flags in San Francisco were at half mast today, and the body of M. Metin reposed in state at the city hall, while hundreds of people passed through the lines of a military and civil guard of honor to pay a last tribute to a man whom they had seen yesterday in ardent strength and vigor as he rode through the principal business streets at the head of a parade in honor of the French mission.

General Paul Gerald Pau, of the French army, who accompanied the mission, said the future movements of the mission had not been determined, pending receipt of instructions from Paris in answer to a cablegram telling of M. Metin's death.
