FEW SOLDIERS SEND BALLOTS

Privilege of Absent Voting Is Not Used by Many Men in the Military Service.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 22.—(Special.)—Out of 12,385 soldiers entitled to vote in the Nebraska primary and to whom ballots were sent, but 1,631 availed themselves of the privilege and returned the votes to the state election commission created for the purpose of canvassing the vote.

The canvass of the vote is being made at the office of Secretary of State Pool, who with C. M. Hubner of Nebraska City and J. B. Strode of Lincoln compose the board. Difficulty in getting help is keeping the result back somewhat, but volunteers are coming forward and it is hoped to get the result very soon.

Head of State Hospital For Insane Enters Army And Will Go to France

From a Staff Correspondent.

Lincoln, Aug. 22.—(Special.)—Dr. L. B. Pillsbury, superintendent of the state hospital for insane at Lincoln, has tendered his resignation and will accept work in the army medical corps and expects to go to France very soon.

Dr. J. D. Case, former head of the State Board of Health, has been appointed acting superintendent during the absence of Dr. Pillsbury, who expects to return to the work when his services are no longer needed by the government. Dr. Case is one of Lincoln's well known physicians and will make an efficient superintendent.

Between now and the time when Dr. Pillsbury will leave, Dr. Case will act as assistant superintendent of a place now vacant by the resignation of Dr. F. S. Marnell who goes to the state hospital for the insane at Stockton, Cal., at a higher salary. Speaking in the matter the Board of Control says: "The board will hold open positions whenever possible and give preference to employees going to war, upon their return."

Dodge County Bankers Plan Liberty Loan Drive

Fremont, Neb., Aug. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Plans for the Fourth Liberty loan drive to be staged in Dodge county the week of Oct. 7 to 12 were outlined at the annual meeting of the Dodge County Bankers' association at the Country club. Banks of the county closed at noon and bankers and their wives and clerks spent an afternoon at the club.

Officers were elected as follows: President, George C. Gage, Fremont; treasurer, Will Meyer, Hooper; vice-president, Roy Cusack, North Bend; secretary, J. Howard Herne, Fremont. It was decided to charge 7 per cent for loans for the purpose of buying liberty bonds.

Family Has Narrow Escape When Car Stalls on Track

Fremont, Aug. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lodi and their three children had a narrow escape when the engine of their automobile "died" as the car was on the Union Pacific crossing at North Bend and a freight engine struck it. The occupants of the car escaped by jumping. The car was wrecked. Mr. and Mrs. Lodi were on their way to Omaha to place one of their children in a hospital.

Government Wants Legally Trained Men Stenographers

Lincoln, Aug. 22.—(Special.)—The governor's office through Provost Marshal Anderson is making a call for volunteer stenographers with legal training. Only white men who have been physically examined and found qualified for limited service or special service only will be accepted. Such men should apply to their local boards at once. The time for volunteering will expire Aug. 31 and the call will probably be made very soon thereafter.

Laughlin Will Probably Carry Seward County by a Small Plurality

The race in the Fifth district for the republican nomination is practically settled in favor of Andrews, at least on the basis of nine of the representative counties of the district. These statistics gave Andrews 3,471 and Gilham, his only opponent, 1,258. Congressman Shallenberger, incumbent, had no opposition for renomination on the democratic ticket.

Congressman Charles F. Reavis had no opposition in his contest for the renomination in the First Congressional district. The race between Cresap and Peterson for the democratic nomination seems to make Peterson a sure winner. With only Cass county missing Peterson's lead was over 500.

Pool Against Kinkaid.

In the Sixth Congressional district Charles W. Pool appears to be the winner for the democratic nomination over Beal, his only opponent. With 13 of 23 counties reporting, Pool's lead was more than 500. Congressman "Mose" Kinkaid had no opposition for the republican nomination.

Neither Evans nor Congressman Stephens had opposition in the Third Congressional district for the republican and democratic nominations, respectively.

Five Candidates Had Filed for the Four Places on the Nonpartisan Ballot for Regents of the State University.

Two of these will be chosen in November. So the contest resolved itself into seeing which one of the five should be dropped. Carricker is the low man on the basis of complete returns from 19 of the 93 counties in the state.

Webster and Judson Lead.

John R. Webster of Omaha is leading the ticket with 16,474 votes in the 19 counties. Frank W. Judson of Omaha is second so far with 12,683 votes. Sams and Evans are third and fourth, respectively.

W. H. Clemmons and Sutherland will be the two candidates for state superintendent next fall, on the basis of 19 counties reporting so far. Stewart and Whitehorn are third and fourth. Clemmons, incumbent, has received 13,265 votes so far. Sutherland has 8,500.

'DEMO MACHINE' SOUNDLY SCORED BY R. L. METCALFE

Defeated Candidate Charges Morehead Followers Made False Personal Attack During Campaign.

Richard L. Metcalfe, defeated democratic candidate for United States senator, yesterday issued the following statement:

"Not content with its victory, the Omaha World-Herald seems willing to continue its primary fight by unfair references to other candidates. Referring to its candidate for senator, the World-Herald says that he 'conducted a fair, clean and dignified campaign,' that he 'held himself aloof from clap-trap and humbug' and that he did not 'attempt to build himself up by cheap and unworthy attacks upon opposing candidates.'

"I have no desire to 'thrash over old straw' but this is a good place to correct a few false impressions created by the Hitchcock-Mullen machine. These people and their candidate for senator sought, during the campaign, to make it appear that I had engaged in attacks upon that candidate. That was entirely false. I challenge any man to inquire of my friends and he will find that I stood uncompromisingly against attacks upon any of my opponents and that I went to extremes in preventing attacks upon Mr. Morehead. That is the simple truth and I would be unjust to myself if I permitted the World-Herald to give formal confirmation to the false impression which the machine created.

Attack Upon Sons.

"Nor is it true that Mr. Morehead refused to build himself up by cheap and unworthy attacks upon opposing candidates. He and his friends made all manner of attacks upon me. They made outrageous attacks upon two of my sons who wear the United States uniform. They attacked another son who, at the request of Governor Neville, remained temporarily out of the service, but who has always intended to go. And they attacked me upon every possible point, even to the 'cheap and unworthy attack' of dragging in my religion—or which, I admit, I have all too little. It was Mr. Morehead's gold which paid for an advertisement in the Lincoln Journal and the Lincoln Star and was signed 'The Onlooker.' This amounted to an infamous assault upon my honor, but it was camouflaged with a sentence which it was hoped would protect these papers from libel suit.

Scores Lincoln Papers.

"Mr. Morehead is welcome to his honors, though he has won by a mere plurality. The World-Herald and its machine are welcome to their joy. But I know of no law requiring me to submit to the World-Herald's false comparisons and I think this statement is due to the many men in Nebraska who gave me their support. I make it without feeling other than the poor opinion I naturally have for the two Lincoln newspapers which, for a price, admitted to their columns an infamous and anonymous attack. In order to keep up its pretense of 'neutrality' the World-Herald did not print that particular article. That attack was ingeniously prepared and was intended to stir the religious prejudices of Catholics, many of whom up to that time were supporting me. It was the cheapest and most unworthy piece of political literature ever foisted upon the people of Nebraska. With that foul stain upon the hands of the Hitchcock-Mullen machine I would be unworthy of the respect of any red-blooded man if I tamely submitted to the unfair inferences in yesterday's editorial."

Jefferson Nominees.

Fairbury, Neb., Aug. 22.—(Special.)—The following persons were nominated for offices in Jefferson county:

Republican: C. O. Marthis, county clerk; Bessie Goff, register of deeds; E. L. Jenkins, treasurer; Frank Rain, county attorney; J. G. Rawles, sheriff.

Democrat: Homer Yeakel, county clerk; Irene King, register of deeds; P. H. Shea, treasurer; W. J. Moss, county attorney; Ed Hughes, sheriff.

Nonpartisan ticket: L. J. Nutzman, probate judge; Henry Abrams, county superintendent.

British Shipping Losses.

London, Aug. 22.—Merchant tonnage losses in July due to enemy action and marine risk was 313,011, which makes the total for the quarter ending with July for allied and neutral countries, 959,392.
