

FORCES OF OLD JOHN B. LOSE IN POLICE COURT

City Treasury Swells from Fines Levied by Judge on Offenders of Nebraska Bone Dry Law.

After making a desperate assault on the prohibitionists' trenches Thursday night, the forces of Old John Barleycorn were hurled back to their own lines with frightful losses in prisoners and material, according to the number of names appearing on the police blotter in connection with the illegal possession, sale and transportation of liquor, and the amount of the liquid confiscated.

The first "prisoner" to say "good morning, judge," in police court Friday was Harry Kane, negro, 1811 William street, who was charged with the illegal possession and sale of intoxicating liquor. Special Officers Cashman and Heisler of the Union Pacific railroad and Detective Knudson testified that they had gone into Kane's place and purchased a bottle of whiskey themselves for the purpose of trapping Kane. The evidence was produced in court and Kane was fined $100 and costs on each charge.

Nabbed at Depot.
William Clarkson, negro, giving his address as Chicago, was next to appear on a charge of illegal possession and sale of liquor. He was arrested at the Burlington station by detectives, who found 12 quarts of whiskey in his suit case. A. R. Tooser, 607 1/2 California street, testified that he had purchased four quarts of the whiskey from Clarkson, paying $16 for it. Clarkson was fined $100 and costs on each charge.

H. Biddix, negro, 2218 North Twenty-seventh street, was charged with illegal possession and transportation of liquor. He had several quarts of whiskey in a grip when arrested at the Union station by Detectives Muldoon and Schwager, testimony showed. He drew a fine of $100 and costs on each charge.

Sam Mehan, 1117 Pacific street, and Max Siref, harness maker, 1406 North Twenty-fourth street, both charged with illegal possession of liquor, had their cases continued.

Muny Guards to Play and Drill at Park Encampment

About 300 Omaha Municipal Guards are ready to encamp at Elmwood park for the annual outing. The camp, however, will not begin until next Monday morning.

After considering Nathan's Lake and Carter Lake, J. J. Isaacson, recreation director and commandant of the guards, finally selected Elmwood park for the drilling grounds. The boys will be tented at one end of the park and will drill in the central portion.

This year camp will last six days, from Monday morning 'till Saturday afternoon. Most of the boys will be uniformed in the official outfit.

The organization of the regiment is now perfect. All commissioned officers from commandant down have been filled. J. J. Isaacson, himself, will be commandant. There will also be a colonel, a lieutenant colonel, three majors and nine captains. The boys will be given rigid military drill and discipline.

Although the regular daily routine has not been drawn up, it is understood that about one-half of the camp time will be devoted to games, hikes and other sports.

The companies attending will be from Miller park, Florence, Kountze park, Benson, Gifford tract, Hancock park, Spring Lake park, Morton park and Clearview park. The first three companies comprise the first battalion with Major Hall in charge; the next three, the second battalion, under Major Boyer, and the South Side companies will be under Major Zimmerman.

The companies will form at their respective parks Monday at 7 o'clock in the morning. From there they will ride downtown and parade through the business district at about 8 o'clock.

Boys Deny Charge They Force Selves Upon Young Girls

Malcolm Linville, Gerald Hittle, Harold Butler and Harry Scoggins, arrested Saturday night in East Omaha by deputy sheriffs, were released after six days in the county jail Friday, no complaint having been filed against them.

The four young men were taken into custody, in company with four young women, while riding in an automobile on an East Omaha road. The deputies alleged that the boys were forcing their attentions upon the girls. This is emphatically denied by the boys, who say they were merely showing courtesies to the girls by taking them home from Krug park. The girls have refused to complain against the boys. The boys insist they made no efforts to force their attentions on the girls and that the deputies were "romancing" when they recited their story.

Salvation Army Will Give Subscribers Pin and Card

Subscribers to the $60,000 Salvation Army war fund which will be collected in Omaha during the week of September 9, will be given pins to wear and cards to put in their windows, showing they have subscribed. The pins and cards will be decorated with the red circle of the Salvation Army, with the words, "I have subscribed."
