NATIONAL LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP IS WON BY CHICAGO

Cubs Clinch Pennant Beyond Possibility of Loss by Defeating Brooklyn in One Of Two Games.

Chicago, Aug. 25.-The Cubs today clinched the National league pennant by breaking even with Brooklyn while New York, the runner up, remained idie. If Chicago loses all its remaining games while New York wins all its games left on the schedule, the Giants cannot evertake the locals, who are eleven and one-half games in front. Chicago won the first game, 5 to 3, with the aid of erratic playing by Brooklyn, but lost the second game, 1 to 2, when Brooklyn bunched hits in the fourth inning. Score:

New Destroyers Given Names of War Heroes

Washington, Aug. 25.—The de-stroyer donated to the United States navy by the Philippine government, and now being constructed on the Pacific coast will be named the Jose Rizal in honor of the noted Filipino patriot, author and sculptor, who was shot by the Spanish military authorities in 1896.

Other names selected for new destroyers announced by Secretary Daniels today follow:

The Hogan, for Daniel Hogan, a seaman, who won distinction on the Constitution in its engagement with the British frigate Guerriere; the Stansbury, in memory of Lt. John Stansbury, a hero of the war of 1812; the Howard, for acting Ensign Charles W. Howard, promoted for bravery in the civil war; the O'Ban-non, for First Lt. Bresler H. O'Bannon, marine corps, who distinguished hands of the confederates.

Army Obstacle Course Makes Hurdle Race Tame

An obstacle course which makes have been arranged with a view to acquainting the soldiers with the conditions they will encounter in actual warfare. Among them are brush hurdles, a shallow trench seven feet wide. wire entanglements, a fence three and a half feet high, plank bridges over 16-foot trenches and a seven-foot wall which must be scaled within one minute after reaching it without assistance except when the rifle is used in the drill. Then the men may aid one another.

According to John R. Case, athletic director at Camp Kearney, the obstacle course serves to take the fear out of the men and makes them tackle unusual barriers with more dash and resolution. Herrmann Explains Stand of National Commission

August Herrmann has sent out a formal statement explaining why the national commission will arrange dates for the world's series after Labor day. Herrmann declares that players in deferred draft classes will be exempt from the "work or fight" order until September 1, when, in accordance with the selective draft law, they will begin to hear from their boards. Herrmann adds that the players will have the usual time to file answers and that the world's series will be ended before their cases can be definitely settled.
