

ARMY OF ALL THE PEOPLE IS PLEA OF ROOSEVELT

Former President Calls for Speeding Up of the War and Permanent Defense Against Aggression.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 26.—Speed up the war, prepare to defend ourselves afterward and make ready to solve the industrial and social problems which will come with peace...

Colonel Roosevelt spoke at the Centennial celebration of the admission of Illinois to statehood.

"The two great needs of the moment," he said, "are to insist upon thorough-going and absolute Americanism throughout this land, and to speed up the war; and secondarily to these needs come the needs of beginning even now to make ready, to prepare for the tasks that are to come after the war, the task of preparing so that never again shall war find us helpless.

"We are not internationalists. We are American nationalists. We intend to do justice to all other nations. But in the last four years the professed internationalists like the professed pacifists have played the game of brutal German autocracy, the game of the militaristic and capitalist tyranny which now absolutely rules the Prussianized Germany of the Hohenzollerns. American pacifism has been the tool and ally of German militarism, and has represented, and always will represent, deep disloyalty to our beloved country.

Beware After War.

"For the moment the pacifists, and internationalists and pro-Germans dare not be noisy. But let our people beware of them as soon as the peace negotiations begin and from that time onward. They have worked together in the past and they will work together in the future, the professed internationalists and the professed pacifists and the internationalists prance in the foreground and furnish the rhetoric.

"Let our people remember that for the two and a half years before we entered the war the pacifists clamorously insisted that if we kept unprepared we would avoid war. Well, we tried the experiment. We kept completely unprepared. Even after we broke off diplomatic relations with Germany we refused to make the slightest preparations. And nevertheless we drifted into the war. Pacifism and unpreparedness never keep a nation out of war. They invite war; and they insure that if war comes it shall be costly and long drawn out and bloody.

"Let us remember this when the peace comes. Don't trust the pacifists; they are the enemies of righteousness. Don't trust the internationalists; they are the enemies of nationalism and Americanism.

"This is for the future. Our immediate duty is to win the war. We must speed up the war to the earliest possible moment, but be resolved to finish it, no matter how long it takes. We must insist on the peace of complete and overwhelming victory. We must remember that a huge army put in the field at one time will accomplish what the same number of men put into the field in dribbles can never accomplish.

"Drastic action should be taken," said Colonel Roosevelt, "to stop the purchase of agricultural land for speculative purposes. System of marketing must be developed so as to do away with the hold-up methods that, in so many places, still obtain. There must be co-operation on a large scale among the farmers in marketing their products."

HEAVY FIGHTING AS BRITISH ADVANCE

(Continued From Page One.) perate resistance of the Germans, and Roye, like Bapaume in the north, apparently is in danger of being pinched out of the line in an enveloping movement. More than 600 prisoners were taken by the French in the operation.

Germany Strike Back. The Germans have thrown further heavy counter attacks against the French in the region north of Soissons, where the French continue their pressure northward in maneuvers which seriously threaten to outflank the Chemin-Des-Dames and Laon sectors and to put the entire German line from Ypres to Rheims in jeopardy. All the attacks have been sustained by General Mangin's forces and the French even have pushed back the Germans beyond the points from which they started. The famous Prussian guard has been thrown into the battle to check the French, but, as in their efforts against the French and Americans in the Vesle sector, they met with defeat.

Near Hindenburg Line. The operations of the British on the northern part of the front from the east of Arras to the region of Bullecourt have brought them upon, or very near the old Hindenburg line. There is still considerable activity on the eastern part of the battle front in the Vosges mountain region, where the forces of Americans recently have been fighting. The operations, however, continue of the nature of raids and small surprise attacks. Several of the latter maneuvers have been put down by the French.

There has been an increase in the activity in the Albanian theater. Here the Austrians twice attacked the Franco-Italian troops, but were repulsed. Later the French slightly withdrew their line in order to maintain liaison with the Italians.

TWO OMAHA MEN KILLED AS AUTO TURNS TURTLE

Local Business Men Meet Death Shortly After Starting on a Fishing Trip.

Two Omaha business men were almost instantly killed, and a third severely injured, when the large Moon car belonging to Pete Abariotes turned turtle near Milford, Ia.

George Abariotes, proprietor of the A. B. Sweet shop, Sixteenth and Jackson streets, and Pete Sciotos, proprietor of the Palace pool hall, 1318 Douglas street, were both killed. Abariotes was killed almost instantly, Sciotos died shortly in a Milford hospital, where he was taken following the accident.

Louis Rogers, proprietor of the Rogers confectionery store, Twenty-fourth and Farnam streets, was severely hurt and it is feared he may have suffered internal injuries. Louis Cochiverty, proprietor of a Des Moines candy store, was slightly injured.

The four men left Omaha early Sunday morning en route to Minnesota, where they expected to spend a few weeks fishing and hunting.

The trip was being made in Abariotes' car. No details were learned outside of the fact that the car turned over on a country road. The message telling of the accident was received by Steve Abariotes, proprietor of the Olympia Candy Kitchen, 1518 Harney street, brother of the dead man.

Abariotes was 34 years old and unmarried. He is survived by two brothers, Pete and Gus, both of whom live in Omaha. Sciotos was 36 years of age, unmarried, and has no relatives in Omaha. Rogers is married and lives at the Helen apartments.

Ak-Sar-Ben Hosts to Have Day at the State Fair on September 5

A mixture of pep and patriotism was served out at the Ak-Sar-Ben den Monday night to a delegation from Lincoln, and about 200 soldiers from Fort Omaha.

A contingent of 300 was expected from Fort Crook, but owing to special orders it was unable to be present. The principal speaker was Dr. Knowles, leader of the Salvation Army drive, beginning here September 9. Dr. Knowles stated that he had picked Omaha out of a number of large cities, and believed he had made a wise choice.

According to Chairman Black there will be no ball this year. Mr. Black announces that Thursday, September 5, will be Ak-Sar-Ben day at the state fair, an affair of motoring to Lincoln, call at the Ak-Sar-Ben office to get Omaha pennants. He also issued a call for 60 horsemen to ride in the electric parade.

ALLIED WARFARE OVER HUN LINES CAUSES BIG LOSS

German planes appeared as the Americans completed their mission and followed the Americans back to their lines, but failed to engage them in battle.

British Activities. London, Aug. 26.—Chemical factories at Mannheim and the railway station at Frankfurt were successfully attacked Sunday night by the British independent air force, according to an official communication issued tonight.

All the British machines returned safely to their base.

The British independent air force, operating on the west front lost seven airplanes in the bombing of Mannheim last Thursday. The rank of this loss has caught the public imagination here.

Heroic Fighting. The outstanding feature of the exploit was the heroic determination of the British squadrons. They were heavily attacked as they flew to their objective; they knew that equally stern fighting would await them on their way back, but nothing daunted them. "It takes more than the risk of danger to halt British airmen when they have made up their minds to reach an objective," says one newspaper.

It is pointed out that the Germans were in largely superior numbers and had only to think of fighting, whereas the British had both fighting and bombing to attend to. The odds were all on the German side, but the British aviators reached Mannheim and did their job.

Well Worth Risk. Newspaper editorials point out that the bombing was well worth the risk, for Mannheim is the center of the great chemical industry and the raid is believed to have done damage which will compel the German armistice for a time at least to do without supplies of war chemicals from that quarter.

The British aviators did not suffer without hitting back, the newspapers also point out, for three German fighting planes were beaten down.

Officially it is noted that the Germans are now making most determined efforts to protect their towns by concentrating large numbers of fighting machines and anti-aircraft guns. Commenting on the raid, a British air officer said today:

"We suffered losses, but we won a splendid victory. We set out to bomb Mannheim and no German efforts could frustrate our intention."

AT THE THEATERS

WILL CRESSY and Blanche Payne have arrived "over there," where they are under orders with the "Over There" theater brigade. They will assist in entertaining American soldiers all along the line.

Last evening at the Orpheum the fashionable audience was deeply impressed by the elaborate musical, "Futuristic Revue," presented by Countess de Leonardi, with an organization of operatic stars. The Red Cross is presenting the impressive series of motion pictures showing how Paris celebrated the Fourth of July.

"Twin Beds," with a great New York cast and production, will be offered at the Brandeis theater for the last time tonight. Laughter holding its sides but illy expresses the condition of an audience witnessing "Twin Beds."

No such degree of enthusiasm has been aroused at the Gayety as is the case this week when the patriotic role of the first act of "Twentieth Century Maids" is presented. It is called "Great Men—Past and Present," and of course has to do with the unpleasantness over the sea.

The third of the Potash and Perlmutter comedies, "Business Before Pleasure," will be presented at the Boyd next Sunday for one week. The new comedy is by Montague Glass and Jules Eckert Goodman. The comedy had a year's run at the Elting theater, New York. Matinees will be given Labor day, Wednesday and Saturday.

The George Middleton and Guy Bolton comedy hit, "Polly With a Past," coming to the Brandeis shortly, promises another delicate fabric of comedy. The cast includes Ina Claire, who stepped from the ranks of the Ziegfeld "Follies" into the leading feminine role of this comedy; Cyril Scott, H. Reves-Smith, Herbert Yost, George Stuart, E. J. Thomas, Reynolds, Louise Galloway, Adah Barton, Betty Linley, Francis Verdi and Lloyd Neal.

The latest steps in dancing are introduced by Chong & Moey, a clever Chinese couple, who are appearing at the Empress theater. Wahlung Nelson Trio thrill the audience with their novelty acrobatic act. Browning and Dawson, black face comedians, keep the audience laughing.

Sloan Is Recipient Of Regrets Over Election Failure

Washington, Aug. 26.—(Special Telegram.)—Representative Charles Sloan returned to the capital today and at once plunged into the work of familiarizing himself with the new revenue bill and such features of the measure as adopted by the ways and means committee while he was campaigning in Nebraska. Mr. Sloan evidences no disappointment over the outcome of the senatorial primaries in his state. He accepts the result philosophically but there were many sincere expressions of regret, on both sides of the chamber, today, when he entered the house, that he had failed to land the senatorial nomination on the republican ticket. His wise counsel will be missed.

Floyd M. Skinner, president of the Skinner Packing company of Omaha, is in Washington for the purpose of a conference with the capital issues committee of the Treasury department.

Capt. and Mrs. George F. Woodley, jr., of Omaha, are located at Camp Meade, Md. The captain, who entered West Point several years ago as an appointee of Congressman Lobeck, is now connected with the 17th infantry, located at Meade, preparatory to overseas duty.

Kenneth McRea of Omaha is in Washington preparatory to entering the army.

JARVIS OFFUTT, OMAHA FLYER, IS KILLED IN FRANCE

Omaha Youth Pays Supreme Sacrifice After but Two Weeks' Service at the Front.

Fears expressed last Christmas by Casper Yost, president of the Nebraska Telephone company, that he would never again see his grandson, Lt. Jarvis Offutt, as the latter left Omaha over seas, were fulfilled Sunday evening when a cable message was received that young Offutt had been killed in France. He was a member of the American aviation service and had been on the front but two weeks.

Letters from Offutt to his mother, Mrs. Charles Offutt, 140 North Thirty-ninth street, written before his death, are on their way to Omaha. On August 10 he cabled to his mother that he had finished his training in England and was in France and would write soon.

"He made the supreme sacrifice. Letter will follow," is how the news came to Mrs. Offutt Sunday evening in a cable message from a classmate at Yale of Lieutenant Offutt, who was in the air service with him. No details have been received.

Miss Virginia Offutt, sister of the dead aviator, left Omaha Sunday only a few hours before the news came of her brother's death. She is now on her way to Estes Park, Colo., accompanied by Miss Esther Wilhelm. Efforts are being made to each her.

Lieutenant Offutt was graduated from the first officers' training camp at Fort Snelling, but did not receive a commission. Undaunted, he enlisted in the Canadian Flying corps, but in order to fly under the American flag, later transferred to the American air service and was sent to Fort Worth, Tex., for training. Here in November, 1917, he received a commission as first lieutenant and was sent to England to complete his training. He remained in England until early in August and was one of the first American aviators to be trained in England. For the three months before crossing the channel he had the rank of "fairy" pilot.

Lieutenant Offutt was a graduate of Omaha High school in the class of 1913 and of Yale university in the class of 1917. At Yale he made his "Y" in track athletics and was a member of the Yale Glee club. He was a member of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and attained the highest scholastic honor of a college undergraduate, membership in the Phi Beta Kappa scholarship fraternity. He has a brother, Casper, secretary in the diplomatic service at Santiago, Chili, South America. He is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Casper Yost, and was only 23 years old.

Washington, Aug. 26.—Airplane ambulances to carry injured aviators quickly from the scene of an accident to a field hospital are to be provided at all flying fields. Omaha Machine Gun Officer Reported Wounded in Action

E. C. Wilbur, 2341 South Thirty-fourth street, received a cablegram Monday from his son, First Lieut. R. F. Wilbur, stating that he had been slightly wounded in action and was now confined in a London hospital. "I will be back to the front in another week," said the lieutenant. He is a member of the 123d machine gun company.

Alkali Makes Soap Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulford coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.—Adv.
