and drove the Germans out. Then a second time the enemy troops were called upon to counter-attack.

All sorts of troops have been hurled into the battle south of the Scarpe, as well as to the north. Many formations have been finished off almost as soon as they appeared.

There was also heavy fighting in the Croisilles region before and after that town was stormed and captured this forenoon.

Sanguinary losses have been inflicted on the Germans in all the fighting in this general region.

Vis-En-Artois, which was captured by the Canadians, was the scene of more hard fighting.

The enemy has been reported to blowing great craters in the roads south of the Somme in his effort to check the advance.

North of here a group of prisoners captured said they had arranged among themselves to yell "kamerad" as soon as the Canadians launched their attack.

Near Vis-En-Artois this morning when an attack was launched a host of Germans suddenly got up out of the ground and ran like so many rabbits, leaving only a few machine guns behind them.

It is impossible as yet to obtain any accurate figures regarding prisoners. One corps is reported to have taken 2,000 since yesterday.
