

MURRAY TAKES ANOTHER GAME IN TENNIS TOURNAY

California Marvel and Tilden Have Narrow Escapes From Being Eliminated by Two Veterans.

Forest Hills, Aug. 29.—Thunderstorms seriously interfered with the progress of the thirty-seventh annual national singles tennis championship tournament here today, only three matches being finished during the afternoon.

Chief interest centered in the playing of R. Lindley Murray of California playing from Niagara Falls, N. Y., and W. T. Tilden, Jr., of Philadelphia and both had narrow escapes from being eliminated as the result of long drawn out contests with two veteran New Yorkers, Frederick R. Alexander and Walter Merrill Hall, respectively. Murray did succeed in defeating Alexander just as the rain terminated the day's play, but the downpour found Tilden and Hall still battling for the fifth and deciding sets.

Murray Has Off Day.

Murray appeared to have an off day after his excellent play of the preceding afternoon and it was only by calling on his super-speed and skill at critical moments in the struggle that he was able to win his way into the round before the semi-final.

Against Alexander's steady and accurate game the Californian swung from sparkling to very indifferent tennis, making errors in netting or outing the ball and then pulling out games by most remarkable service and driving. When he was playing at his best his superiority was shown by the two love sets which he won during the match which ended at 6-8; 6-0; 4-6; 6-0.

Tilden was not so fortunate for he could not stop Hall at critical moments despite his splendid command of strokes and the end of the play found Hall leading at 6-3; 1-6; 7-5; 3-2 deuce, and Tilden serving.

Previous to these matches S. Howard Voshell of Brooklyn had won his way into the semi-final round in the upper half of the draw by defeating Lt. Craig Biddle of Philadelphia by scores of 6-2; 6-3; 9-7. Voshell owed his victory to his faster foot work and ability to out-pace Biddle for the net or pass him along the side lines.

Niles Wins Easily.

Nat Niles the former Harvard star, playing from the Longwood club of Boston, was not seriously extended in winning from E. H. Binzen of New York, taking three sets at 7-5; 6-0; 6-2.

One of the two Japanese entrants was eliminated when Seiichiro Kashiho lost the fourth set of the match against Lyle E. Mahan of New York at 8-6. With the score standing at 8-6; 8-6; 6-8, six all in Mahan's favor on Wednesday, darkness put an end to the play.

Kashiho's more famous countryman, from a tennis standpoint, Ichiba Kumagae, drew Beal S. Wright, the former internationalist, as his opponent today and the pair were waging a merry battle, with the racquets when their play was halted by the rain. Wright led at 9-8, the one game advantage being the result of such active footing and careful returning of the ball, in which the veteran American used every artifice at his command to hold the Oriental expert in check.

Amateur Base Ball in Omaha Sunday Will Be Last Scheduled Games

The regular schedule of the Greater Omaha league will close with the games next Sunday although it will probably require additional games to decide the league standing. It is almost a certainty that several teams will be tied for the leading position.

Interest in the games is intense and last Sunday the largest crowd that ever watched a game at Holmes park attended the contest between the Armours and Longways.

A double header at Luxus park should prove a sure fire drawing feature next Sunday when the Armours will battle with the Beaslines and the Longways will have for their opponents the Holmes White Sox.

Council Bluffs will also be entertained with a fast double header when the Murphy and Metcalf teams mix. These two teams are tied for second place and within striking distance of first place for which the Armours and Longways are tied.

Holmes park will also be in the spotlight with the third game of the series for the championship of Classes B and C. All four teams have won and lost one game and the titles will be decided at the Sunday embroglio. The Daily News and J. B. Roots will settle their differences in the opening game and the National Cash Registers and Sample-Harts will finish the entertainment.

The first game will be called at 1:30 in all parks and the second game at 3:30.

Three Home Runs Win Game For Riggs Optical Company

Heavy hitting on the part of the Riggs Optical company team, assisted by the airtight pitching of Rigby, featured a seven-inning contest with the Ramblers at Riverview park Thursday night. Three circuit clouts were registered by the opticians, Campbell, Bernstein and Mahoney all got circuit blows. The final score was 5 to 2 with the optical boys on the winning end. Nine hits and one error were made by the winners, while the Ramblers connected safely but two times and made an equal number of errors.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Tris Speaker, outfielder for the Cleveland American league team has been indefinitely suspended by President B. B. Johnson. Speaker was called out by Umpire Connelly in sliding to the home plate in a game at Philadelphia Wednesday and assaulted the umpire.

Bob Eucliff Wins Miller Park Golf Championship

Bob Eucliff "upset the dope" in the Miller park championship golf tourney by defeating Phil Kendall, the favorite, in a grueling 37-hole contest. Eucliff staged an eleventh hour rally and took the last four holes in some of the best golf ever played on the Miller park course.

Kendall started in the morning play like a winner and finished the first half of the course 3 up. In the afternoon play Kendall started in the lead which was overcome by the new champ, who was leading at the 35th hole. Kendall tied the score on the 36th, but pulled his drive into the trees on the 37th and lost a couple of strokes and the match getting out.

The regular weekly contest, an 18-hole match play against bogey, was won by Charles Thiessen, who was 7 up at the finish.

Miss Klotz Plays Brilliant Golf, Yet Loses Her Game

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 29.—The most brilliant golf thus far exhibited in the women's western championship at Indian Hill club was played today by Miss Elizabeth Klotz of the home club, although she lost to Miss Frances Hadfield of Milwaukee, Wisconsin champion, the only non-resident player left in the contest, 1 down.

Miss Klotz, who has never before played in a championship meet, appeared somewhat nervous at the start and a few bad holes sent her score for the first nine to 50. Turning four down, Miss Klotz equalled or bettered women's par for 8 holes, cutting down Miss Hadfield's lead to 1 hole. With a 15-inch putt for a birdie 5 on the 320-yard 18th, Miss Klotz's inexperience again dominated, and she missed the hole by a hair. Her score for the second half was 40, a record for the course and 2 under par.

Miss Hadfield, who is an experienced match player, although only 15 years old, had to use all her resources to win, scoring 12 holes in par or better.

AT THE THEATERS

"POLLY WITH A PAST," David Belasco's latest comedy success opens at the Brandeis Theatre tonight. This comedy, by George Middleton and Guy Bolton will be played here by the same splendid cast that helped to make it the outstanding hit of the past New York theatrical season. In the leading feminine role of Polly Shannon, local theatregoers will get their first glimpse of Ina Claire, the newest and youngest actress to hold the Belasco limelight. Previous to her appearance in "Polly With A Past," Miss Claire won fame in "The Quaker Girl," and the Ziegfeld "Follies of 1915." As a result of her clever imitation of Jane Cowd, Billie Burke, Ethel Barrymore, and particularly Frances Starr, in the latter production, Mr. Belasco made arrangements for her to come under his management in "Polly With A Past," which he then had in the course of preparation.

Other players who maintain the rigid Belasco standard in this comedy are Cyril Scott, H. Reeves-Smith, Herbert Vost, George Stuart Christie, Thomas Reynolds, Louise Galloway, Adah Barton, Betty Linley, Frances Verdi and Lloyd Neal.

The Al H. Woods company that is to open the season at the Boyd on Sunday evening, will reach Omaha on Saturday morning, coming direct from New York. It is headed for the coast, and will play at Denver and Salt Lake City on the way to San Francisco.

Today witnesses the two closing performances of Jim Barton and his "Twentieth Century Maids." Starting tomorrow matinee, Ben Welch comes to the Gayety for a week's visit. Mr. Welch has been coming to Omaha for years and is looked upon as being practically one of us.

war, in the field and in industrial plants at home. It is a story for the American public and Uncle Sam proves himself a clever showman in that he has built his advertising of what he wants his people to know in such a manner that they are anxious to come and see it.

W. H. Clune, who has produced Harold Bell Wright's story, "The Eyes of the World," has had many inquiries as to just what has been accomplished in this production and has issued a booklet telling the story of the film. It is in nine sections and its presentation consumes an entire afternoon or evening. It was six months in the making and occupied the undivided attention of a motion picture company all that time. Mr. Wright himself was active in the direction of the story, which tells a love romance of Riverside and Southern California and the scenes were shot in this territory. This book itself has had a sale of over one million copies, having been probably one of the greatest money makers ever published in America.

Virginia Pearson in "The Liar" appears as a new bill at the Muse today and tomorrow in a melodrama of Latin America and this country. Miss Pearson plays a part wherein she is suspected of being part negro blood, giving her an excellent opportunity for dramatic acting.

The Sun theater is putting on a stunt for all Omaha the last three days, this week, D. D. Mach and his pavement submarine having been secured to cavort over the downtown section of the city. Mach can do unexpected things that amuse and interest a crowd and in his machine has a wonder that can do many things that a tank might envy.

"No Man's Land," a new Metro play, starring Bert Lytell, shown at the Empress theater for the last half of the week, is a screen version of the novel of that name by Louis Joseph Vance. Mr. Lytell rescues a man from drowning, fighting German sailors by the score, wrests a gun from a would-be suicide, blows up an enemy raider, and rescues the beautiful lady from the hands of desperate men.

Middle west exhibitors of motion pictures will hold a big convention in Chicago September 3 to 7. At that time there will be taken up the question of aiding Uncle Sam in war work besides the problems that the motion picture industry has to face to aid itself.

In the coming Young Men's Christian Association drive, it is announced that while motion pictures will be used freely to advertise the drive and the work that this organization is doing over here and over there, no collection of funds will be made either in or outside of motion picture houses. This attitude is being taken by national boards because it is felt that the pressure of fund raising at theaters has kept people away from motion picture houses and in this way has defeated the purpose in asking the movies to help in telling about the funds, rather than aided in the actual amounts collected.
