

MOREHEAD WILL FOLLOW WILSON LEAD IF ELECTED

Democratic Candidate for United States Senator Favors Administration Action in War.

Lincoln, Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Ex-Governor Morehead on his way home has given out a formal signed statement addressed to the democrats of Nebraska "thanking them for nominating him for United States senator with assurance that he will, if elected, try to make as creditable a record as in other offices he has held. On the war he says: "I am thoroughly in accord with the administration of President Wilson. If elected, I will support the government in every effort to prosecute the war vigorously and bring it to a successful conclusion. On the question of peace terms, I will support and follow the lead of President Wilson.

Agrees With Lodge.
"I agree with the recent statement of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts that we must not have a negotiated peace, but one dictated by the allies. By fraud and force the imperial German government is seeking to dominate the world. It recognizes no laws of God, no laws of nations, no humanity, and seeks only to desecrate and destroy. Like a vampire it seeks to suck the life blood of humanity and civilization. Therefore this war must continue until the German empire as a monstrous imperialistic machine is wholly destroyed. Any peace terms which do not end the curse and dread of militarism, which do not provide for the security of the small and weak nation against the stronger and larger state, which do not end barbarity, rapine and plunder and the dream of empire, would be a reproach to civilization and a hollow mockery of our best blood which is making the supreme sacrifice. As a nation we are willing to make the sacrifice, but it must not be in vain.

Wants Profiteer Suppressed.
"I stand with President Wilson's administration in seeking to suppress the profiteer and to place the principal financial burden of the war upon the large incomes accruing in large part from war profits.

"In adjustments to be made after the war, due regard must be had for every legitimate enterprise. The interests of the farmers and laborers must receive just and serious consideration. Adjustments should be made in such a way as to be just and fair to all concerned and not disturb or interfere with legitimate business. Provision also must be made to protect the interests and rights of those who have left their regular vocations to fight our country's battles. "If I am elected United States senator from Nebraska, I shall faithfully carry out the wishes of the people of the state on all public questions, and my highest ambition will be to serve the people in such a way that they will have no regret in giving me their support."

Archbishop Harty Takes Breakfast With Boy Scouts After Three Day Retreat

A three-day "retreat" was concluded Saturday morning at the St. Berchman's academy by the Catholic boy scouts, at an 8 o'clock mass. Archbishop Harty presided. In his talk to the boys he emphasized the fact that the Lord was the great master, that the country came next and the parent third; and that it was necessary to be true to all to be true to one. The Rev. L. P. McKeown, who has had charge of the boys, also spoke, dwelling on the requirements of the true soldier. At the end the boys pledged themselves to be soldierly and brave in the practice of their religion, loyal to their country, obedient and respectful to their parents, and honorable and courteous at all times. Great Lakes Naval Band Gives Concert At Omaha Court House

Omaha was given a rare musical treat last night when a 50-piece unit of Lt. John Philip Sousa's famous 250-piece band of the Great Lakes naval station gave a concert at the court house.

The bluejack's band is in Omaha on its way to the Nebraska state fair at Lincoln. It arrived yesterday and last night gave its first concert.

A number of selections were played with the march tunes for which Sousa is internationally famous, comprising the largest part of the program. Following the band concert, Dr. Hugh Knowles, director of the Salvation Army war fund campaign, which soon is to start in Omaha, spoke of the work done by the Red Cross in the war.

The speakers were introduced by A. W. Jefferis, republican candidate for congress.

Today the bluejack's band will play at the army-navy base ball game at Rourke park and again this evening at the Field club for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Monday, the sailor musicians will lead the big Labor day parade here after which they journey to Lincoln for the big fair.

Boy Scout Executive Goes to Pittsburgh to Accept Better Job

C. H. English, executive of the Boy Scouts of Omaha, states that the termination of his services with this organization has nothing to do with any dissatisfaction there may be with the administration of affairs locally.

"When I resigned I was urged to reconsider my action, but I felt that I had such a better proposition in Pittsburgh that I could not afford to remain in Omaha, much as I have enjoyed the work here," Mr. English stated.

Mr. English will have charge of the public playground system of Pittsburgh and in that connection there is a federal position which adds to the responsibilities of the work. He will receive more salary than he received here.

Before taking up Boy Scout work here he was superintendent of the public playground system.

"The Good Die Young"
People already past middle age must find solace in their "second childhood."
If I were as good as some people profess to be, I should like to die for fear I could not keep it up. It is said to be hard to "live DOWN a reputation," but I fear it would be harder to live UP TO the reputations some people give themselves.
No one would notice the bully standing in the saloon door, but if the Minister was seen there, everyone would be shocked because he was not "living UP to his reputation."
I have always managed to take care of myself and my enemies, but some of my well-meaning friends, who sit up nights worrying over me and stand up by day to give me good advice, are putting in too much time trying to "live UP to their reputations."
I am not a philanthropist, nor an evangelist, but an ordinary citizen with a determination to be more than an ordinary Dentist.
I have never knowingly done any man a wrong. I am answerable only to the law of my country and my own conscience for my acts.
I have been accused of "Caesar's crime," namely, "being ambitious"—and many who would be "Brutus" stand ready to help me "die young" to curb this dangerous ambition.
Yes, I am ambitious—ambitious to raise the standard of dentistry—ambitious to rob dentistry of pain and terror—ambitious to make it impossible to practice dentistry and extortion in the same profession—and ambitious to carry out this ambition in a "Painless Withers Dental Office" in every city in America where people believe in me and my "ambitions."
That is my offense—that is WHY some people paint me in anything but glowing colors—that is why I am not going to "die young," and why I am glad that I can be human, act humanly, and live humanly, without danger of injuring my "reputation."
I am looking forward to relief in "second childhood."
