HOLIDAY GAMES CLOSE LEAGUES' BASEBALL SEASON

Cubs and Red Sox Will Meet at Chicago Wednesday in First Game of World's Championship Series.

New York, Sept. 1.—The major leagues' base ball seasons close with tomorrow's holiday games, with the Chicago Nationals and Boston Americans, winners of the championship of their respective leagues. The Cubs clinched the pennant last Sunday while the Red Sox did not make sure of the American title until Saturday. The teams will meet at Chicago Wednesday in the first game of the world series.

In the National league, Chicago, after breaking even last Sunday with Brooklyn, divided a six game series evenly with Cincinnati. Tyler and Vaughn allowed Pittsburgh four hits and no runs today.

In the American league Boston suffered two defeats in three games with Detroit, but took three out of four from Philadelphia. Mays successfully pitched both games against Philadelphia Friday. Bush lost a close game to Detroit Tuesday. Jones pitched a shutout against the Tigers Wednesday. Ruth held Philadelphia to three hits Saturday, but in the second game of the day Watson blanked the Red Sox with one hit.

Cleveland Club Disbands. Chicago, Sept. 1.—The Cleveland club, runner up in the American league race, disbanded here tonight. The team was scheduled to finish its season in St. Louis tomorrow, but according to James C. Dunn, president of the club, the players preferred running no chance of violating General Crowder's orders.

Feeder Lamb Crop is Not Moving Because of Rates

Cheyenne, Wyo., Sept. 1.—(Special.)—Facing the alternative of carrying over the season's big lamb crop until next year or shipping them to market this fall at mutton prices, Wyoming flockmasters are awaiting letters from a visit to Washington by a special committee of feeders who ordinarily are heavy buyers of their feeder lambs.

American Army Encouraged By Man-Power Legislation

With the American Army in France, Sept. 1.—The enactment of the new American man-power measure brought expressions of satisfaction from the American army.

The high command is interested in the moral effect the measure will have upon the enemy. His man-power is now concededly at its weakest and his replacement sources limited. Military authorities count upon a reaction in the morale in Germany as a strong factor in the winter situation.

LOCAL NAVY LADS BEAT KHAKI BOYS FROM CAMP DODGE

Smith, Former White Sox Pitcher, Proves Too Much for the Des Moines Crew.

The Omaha Naval Recruiting Station base ball team blocked the soldier team from Camp Dodge Sunday at Rourke park and only allowed one run to slip through their defense. Smith, former Chicago White Sox pitcher, was a tower of strength in the Bluejacket lineup holding the khaki club players to three hits and one run. The only run by the soldiers came in the ninth inning on a two base hit and a single.

The sailors amassed nine hits and scored three runs. Wahl formerly with Topeka led off in the sixth inning by connecting with one of the benders dished up by Slattery, formerly with the Three-I and coast leagues, for two bases. He was sacrificed to second and scored on a wild pitch.

Four hits in the seventh inning forced across two more runs for the Navy. Hannigan, Smith, Dygert and Wahl all connected safely.

The Great Lakes Naval Training Station band played a concert before the game and short selections during the contest. A fair sized crowd witnessed the game.

Monday the Navy team plays the Armours. The band will play a concert before the game. The Armours defeated the navy a few weeks ago and a rivalry between the two teams assures a fast game.

The line-up:

Dygert.....	4	1	2	1	0	1
Wahl.....	2	0	1	0	0	0
Nye.....	3	1	1	0	0	1
Lawler.....	3	0	3	0	0	0

Slattery.....	2	1	0	0	0	0
Total.....	31	9	12	1	0	2

Score by innings:

Navy.....	0	0	0	0	0	1	2
Army.....	0	0	0	0	0	0	1

Summary: Two-base hits, Wahl, Lyck, Slattery; Double play, Lawler to Williams; Hit by pitched ball, Wahl; Base on balls, off Smith, 3, off Slattery, 1; Struck out by Smith, 8, by Slattery, 5; Sacrifice hit, Nye; Stolen bases, Wahl, Wolf, Brunski. Time of game, 1:28.

FLASHES from FILMLAND

THE thousands of people who greeted Harold Bell Wright's "The Eyes of the World" at the Brandeis theater yesterday afternoon and night displayed every indication of keen satisfaction. Limited in seating capacity the Brandeis theater presented a scene which brought the people of Omaha back to the days of "The Birth of a Nation." Hundreds were literally turned away and theater officials assert that a new record for theater attendance is bound to be established.

There has been no more remarkable portrayal in the history of the motion picture than that of Conrad LeGrange, the cynical story writer. Down to the last minute detail it is a triumph in that branch of the actor's art that in these days is mastered by so few players.

It has been asserted that there is not a hackneyed character in "The Eyes of the World" and the story is both idyllic and melodramatic, but its melodrama is of the finest of type.

Particularly in the character of Sybil, the mountain girl; LeGrange, the novelist; Taine, the physical wreck of a mispent life, and Henry Marsten, the convict, has the author shown his unusual powers of characterization. The burned-out rone, Taine, contrasts strongly with the ingenious young artist, Aaron King, ambitious for fame, but who is on the point of debasing his talents for the easy way to success and becomes the shining mark for a designing woman. Then there is Conrad LeGrange, the cynical story-writer, who confesses that he "haunts the intellectual slaughter-pens" for material for his "successful" stories, but in whose heart still burns many of the kindly sentiments of his earlier days.

A quaint touch is added in the picturing of Yee Kee, the keen, devoted Chinese servant, who adds many a light and humorous touch to the pictures.

"The Eyes of the World" will be shown at the Brandeis for a limited engagement only, with three shows daily, 2:30, 7 and 9 p. m.

Mary Pickford is in town. She is on the screen at the Strand theater, appearing as "M'Liss" in the film version of Bret Harte's famous story of the same title. Is the picture worth while? Well, ask any of the many hundreds who attended the Strand Sunday. They will recommend it highly.

"The Great Love," taken in cooperation with the British government and based on the great love that places country above all else, is the film offering at the Rialto theater for the first half of the week. It is a picture that creates patriotic fervor in a most exhilarating manner. Robert Harron, Dorothy Gish and Henry Walthall have the leading parts.
