Red Cross Will Save Coal By Combining Its Workrooms This Winter

Districting the city for the purpose of conserving coal was announced as the policy of the Red Cross for the winter. Auxiliaries varying in membership from three to 300 meet weekly. Many of these meet in churches and other places that have to be specially heated for them. These auxiliaries will be combined and will meet in buildings already heated as far as possible as soon as definite arrangements can be made.

Mrs. F. W. Carmichael announced the appointment of Mrs. E. B. Ransom as her assistant chairman. Mrs. Lucien Stephens has been appointed publicity director for all Omaha Red Cross auxiliaries.

Hereafter the Red Cross auxiliaries will work from quotas entirely. Each month deliveries will be made to each of the material to be used for that month. Finished articles must be turned in directly after each meeting and an accounting made to headquarters at the end of the month. All material assigned must be made up, but no extra articles may be made, even though the members furnish their own material. September material has not yet been received, but in the refugee garment department Mrs. Mullen stated that her information was to the effect that the quotas would be large.

Mrs. T. M. Orr reported 1,800 train kits were made for Omaha soldiers in August at the request of the Commercial club. These were large enough to contain the mess kit and other articles; 1,200 kit bags were also made, containing 1,200 sewing kits and 14,400 safety pins, with a like proportion of other articles.

Mrs. H. B. Robinson reported 217 pairs of trousers and 11 coats had been mended in August. These garments were sent the Red Cross from the camps near Omaha and the work was completed in four days. The mending was badly needed, but easy to do, according to Mrs. Robinson, the rents and rope, pins and other safety devices known to lone mankind.

Recommended for Overseas Duty.
Miss Clara Hermansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Hermansen, is the first Omaha girl to be recommended for Red Cross hospital but work overseas. This new branch of the service provides recreation for the convalescent soldiers. Appointments will come from Washington.

Miss Edith Standeven, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Standeven, who has been recommended for clerical service, has three brothers now serving their country. Lt. Chase F. Standeven is now in France, where he is a surgeon in one of the Red Cross hospitals; Lawrence Standeven is at Fort Omaha and Walter Standeven has enlisted in the engineering corps and expects the commission of captain very soon.

Others recommended for clerical service include Lucile Scott, Cecilia Roscoe, Marie Mackin, Stella Carl, Harriet Ball and Mrs. Jessie Scott of Council Bluffs. Those named for hospital service were Misses Faith Hansen, Wakefield and Emma Robertson, Evergreen, Colo.

Central division recommends the following for clerical service: Misses Florence Lake, Margaret Butter, Florence French, Lucy Mereray of Council Bluffs; Janet Jacobsen, Lincoln, and Bess Richards, Crete.

For canteen work: Miss Mary Fudge, Lincoln, and Miss Merle Draper, Edison.

More Patriotic Clubs.
Two new girls' patriotic clubs were organized at the Y. W. C. A. club rooms Tuesday evening. The S. O. S. club will make surgical dressings and study French. The Foch club have planned a lawn party for the soldiers in the near future. They will do first aid work this winter.

The Victory club is planning a vaudeville performance and a rummage sale, both to raise funds for making life pleasant for the soldiers stationed here.

Miss Hannah Lagasa, formerly of Omaha, and Charles Logasa, passed several days in the city early in the week. Miss Logasa, who was on the public library staff, is now librarian in the University of Chicago. Her brother, who was with the engineering department, is located in Louisville, Ky.

Call Teachers Back to Duty.
The Bureau of Education, through its director, Dr. Philander P. Claxton, is seriously concerned with the stampe of school teachers to leave the classroom for more exciting and in many cases better paid war work. The board is calling upon the teachers' reserve, women who have had specialized training in teaching methods who have retired from active service to render valuable service again as a means of relief. Any woman possessing these qualifications will be giving patriotic service if she applies to her local school authorities at once.

The various war missions stationed in the United States have impressed upon government officials the necessity of keeping children in school rather than working in war industries. The plan of child labor was tried in European belligerent countries with poor results.

Loan Homes for War Camp Work.
Governor Francis of Missouri, who is now ambassador to Russia, has loaned his beautiful home to the war camp community service for the entertainment of the soldiers while he is absent. Governor Harrington of Maryland has also loaned his home in Annapolis and the Stanford White home in New York now in the possession of the Princeton club, has also been loaned for this purpose.

"We could use such a home in a central location in Omaha very nicely," said J. M. Parker, director of the war camp community service in this city.

Y. W. C. A. Gymnasium Keeps "Open House"

Miss Galena Stowell, new gymnasium instructor of the Y. W. C. A., has introduced the custom of "open house" on Monday and Thursday nights. This permits anyone to enter the gymnasium on these evenings to watch the work of the classes.

F. H. Cole. Her last service was in a munitions factory near Chicago, where she worked nights, supervising 1,000 women employes also on night duty. Before that, Miss Conyne taught in the Lake Forest and West Chicago High schools.

Dr. Stastny Writes Model Speech.
An Americanization speech for "three-minute men," composed by Dr. Olga Stastny for use of county chairmen in Nebraska, has been adopted by the National Council of Defense, which will circulate all county Americanization chairmen in every state in the union with this speech. Dr. Stastny heads this department for the Nebraska Council of Defense, woman's committee.

Dr. Stastny has applied for overseas duty and will probably receive an appointment in some division of service.

Red Cross

In order that the Red Cross Magazine might be more available for classroom reading in the schools throughout the land, the war council of the American Red Cross has voted a special rate of $1 per subscription for junior auxiliaries.

Garfield auxiliary will meet Wednesday morning of each week from 10 to 5 o'clock in the Young Men's Christian Association auditorium.

Mrs. W. E. Martin, chairman of the Red Cross motor corps reports 214 cars furnished for civilian relief work since the department was organized July 8. Sixteen calls for the salvage department, five for nurses' service, three for the army hospital, five for war camp community service and one for secret service, were also made.

Club Notes

The Central High School Student club, organized three years ago under the auspices of the girls' department, of which Miss Eitel Niermeyer is secretary, enters upon its annual setting up conference with a dinner at the Y. W. building Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

In attendance will be Miss Mildred Benson, president; Miss Camilla Edholm, vice president; Miss Ruth Paddock, secretary; Miss Elizabeth Taylor, treasurer; Miss Lois Thompson and Mrs. T. W. Blackburn, advisor of the social committee; Miss Louise Stegner of the membership committee; Miss Mary Fire and Miss Mary Parker, chairman and advisor of the program committee; Miss Helen Bolshaw of the service committee, and Miss Van Sant Jenkins, cabinet advisor.

Saturday noon the alumnae of the club, the 1917 and 1918 graduates take up the program. They give a luncheon at 1 o'clock, which has been arranged jointly as a farewell to members going away to school and for the formal launching of an alumnae society.

W. C. T. U. Election.
Mrs. H. G. Claggett was named president of the Douglas County Woman's Christian Temperance union at the annual meeting held Wednesday in Hanscom Park Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Claggett succeeds Mrs. J. N. Talaferro, who is forced by ill health to give up all club work. Mrs. N. H. Latham is the new vice president; Mrs. L. C. Banner, recording secretary; Mrs. E. P. Sweezy, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Anna Whitney, treasurer.

Drama League Meeting.
The Drama League will meet during the coming week to formulate plans for next season's activities. Work was suspended last year because of unsettled conditions. The National league recommends that the branches, which are situated close to forts, give entertainments for the soldiers as their part in war work. Miss Kate McHugh is president.

Jewish Women Kelp Tag Day.
The Jewish Ladies' Relief society, captained by Mrs. Reuben Kulakofsky, collected more than $1,000 for the Visiting Nurse association Tag day. Members of this organization manned stations at Kilpatrick's, City market, Union station and Cumming and North Twenty-fourth streets districts.

SOCIETY

Friends Meet in Paris.
A happy meeting took place in Paris a short time ago when Miss Louise Dinning greeted Miss Clara Schneider and Miss Marguerite Schneider in the French capital. All are in Red Cross service. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Dinning received a cable Saturday from Miss Dinning announcing her arrival in Paris.

As Mrs. Etta Turner, sister of the Misses Schneider, is now at Neully in the hospital where Miss Dinning was first assigned, it is very probable that a joyous reunion has taken place among the three sisters.

As Miss Dinning was granted a leave of absence during the winter months, it is thought that special leave was given for this little vacation. This patriotic nurse, of whom Omaha is so justly proud, has been transferred from the hospital at La Panne, Belgium, to another large institution of healing near Ypres. La Panne has become so terrific that the wounded men and their valiant nurses were exposed to terrible dangers.

Kearney-Bentley Wedding.
A pretty home wedding took place Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bentley of Morrill, Neb., when their daughter, Mable, became the bride of Lt. Orlando H. Kearney Rev. R. S. Stanforth read the marriage lines. Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony.

Lieutenant Kearney and his bride left Tuesday evening for Palo Alto, Cal., where Lieutenant Kearney is stationed.

Mrs. Kearney is a graduate of the state university and a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

Lieutenant Kearney, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kearney of Morrill, is also a graduate of the state university and is a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

Burgess-Meissner.
The marriage of Miss Mary Meissner of Blair, and Mr. William C. Burgess of Kennard, Neb., took place Wednesday afternoon at the Paxton hotel, Rev. H. P. Hunter, officiating. The young couple were attended by Miss Opie G. Burgess, sister of the bridegroom and Lt. R. C. Meissner, brother of the bride.

Comrade Dance Postponed.
Owing to the quarantine at Florence field the dancing party which was to have been given Saturday evening by the Comrade club has been postponed. The next dancing party will be given September 21 at Fort Omaha.

Omaha Interpreter in Rouen.
Corp. John Talaferro, son of Mrs. J. N. Talaferro, is now serving as interpreter in the statistical department of the British army in Rouen, France. He was chosen for his knowledge of the French language. In a letter to his mother, Corporal Talaferro writes that there are 12 hospitals of 2,000 beds each in Rouen, two of which are for American soldiers. Each hospital, he writes, is full to overflow, with wounded men.

At University Club.
A special luncheon will be given Friday at the University club, when the speaker will be Private F. C. McDonald of the First Canadian mounted rifles.

My Hat Diary

BY Carita Herzog

You know, I am just mad about good rag-time. Since the war so many clever pieces have been written and I'm quite wild about them. Last evening a crowd of us went over to Nell Bowen's. Her brother, Ralph is rather clever with the banjo, so between the two we had a regular "jazz" band. We danced until Nan Hipple came over and we danced to some funny songs for us. Well, really she puts Sophie Tucker and Emma Carus in the shade. She has such a charming manner and is rather attractive, too. Last evening she wore an adorable hat. It was red plaid gingham and red satin combined. The crown was of the plaid and the brim which was longer in the front than in the back, was red satin faced with gingham. A bow of the satin was on the left side and one of the tabs extended down almost to the shoulder. I could view the hat so well as Nancy sang her songs.

party will be given September 21 at Fort Omaha.

Grandma Talks About Babies
Has a large Circle of Listeners Who Profit by Her Wisdom and Experience.

In almost any community there is a grandma who knows Mother's Friend. Not only is she reminiscent of her own experience, but it was through her recommendation that so many expectant mothers derived the comfort and blessing of this famous remedy.

Mother's Friend is an external application prepared especially for expectant mothers after the formula of a noted family physician. It certainly has a wonderful effect in relieving tension brought about by expanding muscles, and is a most grateful encouragement to a woman awaiting motherhood. The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles free, pliant and responsive. When baby arrives they expand easily, and danger at the crisis is naturally less. Strain upon the nerves and ligaments is lessened and in place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread, it is a season of calm repose and happy anticipation. Mother's Friend enables the mother to preserve her health and natural grace and she remains a pretty mother by having avoided the pain and suffering which are often the result of other remedies such as an occasion where nature is unaided. Write the Bradford Regulator Co., Lumb. Bldg. Atlanta, Ga., for their "Motherhood Book," so valuable to expectant mothers, and in the meantime do not by any chance fail to purchase a bottle of Mother's Friend from the druggist and thus fortify yourself against pain and discomfort. Mother's Friend should be applied night and morning with the utmost regularity.

Chance Acquaintances.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Not very long ago I went to a public dance. A boy asked me to dance without any acquaintance. I went, and then he asked my name, and so on until we got acquainted. Now any time I see him downtown or any place he always speaks to me. Do you suppose he would want to go with me? Of course, I don't want to be called by a bad name. The thing I want to know is, would it be all right for me to invite him down to my house? I live in a small town and am going to work in two weeks. Or would it be all right to ask him to come down there? He is a very nice boy and I would like to make friends with him. ALMA.

It would have been an easy matter for the young man to have found someone in a small town who would have presented him to you properly. Since you allowed him to make your acquaintance so readily he may think lightly of you if you continue to encourage him. Why not wait until he asks you for further favors, at least? Girls never make any advance into the favor of their young men friends by "running after them." They may seem to do so for a while, but from the beginning of time the man has been the seeker and the woman the sought, and the men like to have it that way. I should certainly let the young man ask for an invitation to visit me before I gave it to him.

Embarrassed.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Quite recently I attended the assembly. Well, while there I met a young man one evening. He was a very refined and cultured young man, but quite bashful. We had several occasions during the evening to talk about the college we had both attended, and I'm sure he is a nice fellow, because we have known him and his folks for years and they are a very well-thought-of family. Now I'm very modest and sensible girl and have a college education.

Well, after the meeting that evening he stepped up to me and said just this: "I would like to get better acquainted with you and, if I may ask, what is your name?" It took me so by surprise I just didn't know what to say or suggest. After I had told him my name, because he rather seemed to be waiting for an answer of some kind, I just said: "Well, if you don't mind, probably we could just take a short walk." (You will remember we were outside the doors.) Now, I've just been worrying about it, feeling that probably it was out of place for me to suggest taking a walk, but I didn't know what to say, being taken so by surprise, and, anyhow, I think it a rather peculiar situation. I But please do tell me if you think it was terrible or unladylke or fast to say that. Thank you so very much. TROUBLED.

There was no reason for you to be embarrassed because your name had slipped from the young man's mind. Some people have great difficulty in remembering names. I do not see that any harm was done, however, by your suggesting a stroll when the man was standing there and evidently at a loss to continue the conversation. There is no danger of being unladylke if you try to make things pleasant for your friends and are thinking of their pleasure and ease instead of your own.

Self-Conscious Girl.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a girl 16 years old. I am very self-conscious. Could you please tell me how I can rid myself of this feeling, and how can I cultivate self-confidence? F. M.

Think of others and try to put them at their ease instead of keeping your mind on yourself. Talk about the things your friends are interested in. Try to maintain the attitude that you are the person at ease and the rest are self-conscious and it is your place to make them enjoy themselves.

Registration.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I was born on the 12th of September, 1872. Do I have to register? PUZZLED.

No, you are just over the line. You would have had to register had you been born a few hours later. Thirty-six per cent of the employees of the government of Great Britain, outside munition factories, at the beginning of this year, were women. It is estimated that in all lines of work 1,442,000 women have stepped in to fill depleted ranks of industry, and nearly three-quarters of this number work for the government.

Teacher Will Serve Overseas.
Miss Norma Conyne, former teacher in the Lathrop school, is one of a unit of 100 women selected for overseas duty. She sails in October. Miss Conyne made her home when in Omaha with her god-mother, Mrs.
