Corn 6 Cents Lower to 4 Cents Higher; Oats and Wheat About Unchanged; Barley is Lower. Omaha, September 7, 1918.
Receipts of grain today showed continued lighter arrivals of corn and a moderate run of oats and wheat.

Corn prices ranged from 6c lower to 4c sigher. White grades showed the advance, while yellow and mixed underwent a decline. No. 6 yellow sold off the most, the drop being around 4c to 6c. No. 3 mixed was being attuine about 2c lower.

Oats were about unchanged and wheat prices were generally firm, with some grades perhaps a shade off. No rye was spid up to a late hour and barley figures were several cents lower. OMAHA GRAIN MOVEMENT.

Covering by shorts rallied pork from a severe decline to 25c advance.

An opinion became widespread that barley, when no longer taken by brewers would be chiefly consumed as feed, and would thus to a considerable extent, reduce the feeding demand for corn.

Week end news was mainly encouraging, the mercantile agencies once more laying special emphasis on the war's imperative demands in all branches of industry. Dealings in exchange were nominal, but changes were significant, in that they once nore moved against neutral centers, particularly Spain and Switzerland.

and Switzerland.

The bank statement was noteworthy for the large expansion—almost $120,000,000 in actual loans, with the resultant increase of almost $83,000,000 in net demand deposits. Investment bonds were steady on limited dealings, the speculative issues evincing irregularity. Sales (par value) aggregated $2,825,000.

Advances Generally Between Cambrai and Peronne Approach Close to Hindenburg Line.

By Associated Press.

With the British Army in France, Sept. 7 .- The German retirement continues throughout the whole area to the west of Cambrai and St. Quentin and the British advance guards in the zone generally between Cambrai and Peronne are close to the Hindenburg Numerous fires still are burning as the Germans retreat and there have been many more explosions.

The British in the southern area have made rapid strides forward and this morning were more than nine miles to the east of the Somme, being some distance to the east of Hancourt.
