

REPUBLICANS GET MORE VOTES THAN DEMOCRATS

All the Counties Report Except Scottsbluff, Showing the Official Returns.

From a Staff Correspondent. Lincoln, Sept. 7.—(Special).—The cry set up by the democrats that German democrats were going to go over in a body to the republican party and vote for the republican candidates, is not borne out by the vote as returned to the office of the secretary of state.

Taking the vote on United States senator, which probably brought out the entire vote, it indicates there were 65,948 republican votes east and 60,222 democratic votes. Railway Commissioner Is Invited Out of Auburn Auburn, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special).—During a recent visit here Railway Commissioner T. L. Hall of Lincoln came near being mobbed by an incensed community and so near was the danger that the mayor advised him to leave town at once and he beat a hasty retreat. The community was highly indignant at a ruling recently made by a commissioner. Hall over the heads of the Council of Defense that the German population had a right to speak German over the telephone and that as railway commissioner he would see that they were protected in that right.

Charles Barber, son of S. C. Barber, was killed in action in France, August 8. He was in Canada and a member of a Canadian regiment.

Pershing's birthday will be celebrated here with a patriotic demonstration and raising of the county service flag, in charge of the home guards.

Mrs. Mary Otteros died at her home in this city Friday, 80 years of age. She and her husband are pioneers of Nemaha county, having moved from Minnesota by ox team and taken up a homestead near Auburn. She is well known in southern Nebraska for her charity work. The St. Joseph parochial school of Auburn is supported by an endowment made by her several years ago.

Beatrice Oil Company Strikes Flow in Kansas

Beatrice, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special).—Beatrice men who invested in leases on oil lands in Linn county, Kan., are reported to have struck a good flow of oil in the second well they have put down. It is said that when the well was down 400 feet the oil flowed in so fast that it almost filled the well. They have three other farms in the same county under lease.

Beatrice will open the football season here on Friday, September 27, with Fairbury High school team. The following week the boys will play with Council Bluffs.

W. M. Brugh, a farmer living northwest of Beatrice, discovered some parties stealing corn from his field. He attempted to capture them, but they escaped, leaving their horse and one spring wagon in the field, which Mr. Brugh took in charge. The rig belonged to a young man named George Bullis, and Mr. Brugh turned it over to his mother yesterday. The case has been placed in the hands of the county attorney.

Two Fremont Boys Gassed In France Are Recovering

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special).—Two Fremont boys, Private Fred E. Lea, truck driver with the headquarters company, and Private Hilbert Dodge with a sharpshooters company, were gassed somewhere in France August 10, according to information that Fremont relatives received in a letter from Private Lea. Lea's injuries are not very severe but he writes that Private Dodge will have a hard time pulling through. Dodge was a member of the second draft contingent from Dodge county that left for Camp Funston a year ago. He went overseas in June. Lea was drafted last June.

North Bend Editor Will Do Y. M. C. A. Work

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special).—Joseph Newsom, editor of the North Bend Eagle for the last 21 years, has been accepted for Young Men's Christian association service overseas and will leave within the next few days for headquarters in New York. Mr. Newsom offered his services July 17. He leased his newspaper plant to E. O. Holub of Schuyler, who will publish the Eagle till Mr. Newsom's return.

Two Fremont Women Will Start Fruit Farm in South

Fremont, Sept. 7.—(Special).—Miss Pearl Holloway, bookkeeper at Hotel Pathfinder, and Mrs. Emma Kirsch, another employee of the hotel, left for Fayetteville, Ark., near which place they will operate a fruit farm they purchased recently. The young women plan to do most of the work themselves.

Lincoln, Sept. 7.—(Special).—Leo Kiernan, sent up from Douglas county for forgery and paroled at the expiration of the minimum of his sentence, because of ill health, was brought back to the penitentiary today, it having been discovered that he was again forging checks.

ATTEMPT OF TWO MEN TO KIDNAP GIRL BLOCKED

Strangers Try to Lure Young Woman by All Sorts of Bogus Messages; Is Now Safe.

Kearney, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special Telegram).—A young lady visitor in Kearney was victim of what is supposed to be a kidnaping plot, two strange men being implicated.

The young woman, who is but 15 years of age, is staying with a relative and it was through elder ladies' efforts that the affair was brought to a stop.

The men had endeavored in every way to fraudulently lure the young lady away from her home, sending messages that she must meet certain persons from her home town on a certain corner at night.

Police interfered with the little game and one man's identity was ascertained. The pair are now being sought by police and the young lady is being cared for at the home of friends, where there are male friends present to protect her.

West Point to Honor Jinx Day in Pershing's Honor

West Point, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special).—The proclamation of Mayor Howarth was issued Friday, calling upon the people of West Point to unite in the celebration of the birthday of General Pershing on Sept. 13. Committees have been appointed and arrangements made to hold the celebration at the Coney Island park on the western edge of the city. A varied program will be carried out and a prominent speaker has been secured to deliver the patriotic address.

The board of education has appointed A. W. Walla, cashier of the Nebraska State Bank, as a director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation and removal of former Mayor F. D. Sharrar, who has gone to Sioux City.

Marriage licenses have been issued during the week to the following: Fred H. Heilman and Miss Lottie Krause, both of this city, and to Dorsey B. Delmont and Miss Grada Galster. Mr. Delmont is a soldier at home on a furlough from Camp Fremont, Cal.

The death of Ferdinand Billerbeck, an aged pioneer of Cuming county, took place at his present residence near Snyder. Mr. Billerbeck was survived by his widow and three children. The deceased was 74 years of age at his death.

The marriage of Fred H. Heilman and Miss Lottie Krause of this city was solemnized by the Evangelical pastor, Rev. J. H. Oehlerking, at the home of the bride's brother, A. L. Krause. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Heilman and the bride the daughter of the late Florando Krause, and a member of one of the oldest pioneer families of West Point, her parents being identified with the earliest history of this city and county.

Miss Irene Dill of this city has been elected as a teacher in the grammar department in the Wisner schools.

Sister M. Loretta, formerly Miss Bella Hoy of this place, has just celebrated her silver jubilee in the Franciscan sisterhood at Alverno, Wis. She is the head of the teachers' training school at the convent.

Blair Young Woman Wins Two Political Nominations

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special).—Miss Grace Ballard of Blair was nominated for county judge on the nonpartisan ticket and for county attorney on the republican ticket. Miss Ballard's name was written in for county judge, enough to place her name on the ballot this fall, and for the nomination for county attorney she received five more votes than John Lothrop, her opponent. Miss Ballard will make the race for county attorney against Henry Mencke, the democratic candidate.

Pioneer Tecumseh Retail Merchant Quits Active Work

Tecumseh, Neb., Sept. 7.—(Special).—After being in general mercantile business in Tecumseh for 49 consecutive years Dick McLanahan has sold his store building and stock of general merchandise to C. H. Bivens of Osceola, Ia., and will retire. Mr. Bivens will move his family to Tecumseh and assume his new business in the near future.
