CORN CROP LOSS WILL BE GREAT; WHEAT BUMPER

Department of Agriculture Report for September Gives Varying Forecasts: Oats Show Big Increase.

Washington, Sept. 9 .- Heavy loss in the prospective corn crop, but a considerable increase in the forecast of spring wheat production, featured the September crop report issued today by the Department of Agriculture.

Lack of rain in the principal producing sections of the corn belt caused a reduction of 317,000,000 bushels in the crop forecast, bringe ing the loss in prospective production since July 1 to 487,000,000 bushels, representing more than 685. $30,000.

A corn crop of 2,672,000,000 bushels this year was forecast today from September 1 conditions. That would e almost 500,000 bushels less than last year's crop and slightly smaller than' the average crop of the five years from 1912 to 1916.

The spring wheat report showed improvement and there was an increase of 21,000,000 bushels in the forecast of production, bringing the prespective crop to 343,000,000 bushels.

Wheat Increase Big.

With the winter wheat crop of 556,000,000 bushels previously announced, this year's total wheat crop will be 899,000,000 bushels. That is break through at either point by the almost 250,000,000 bushels more than allies would spell disaster to the enwas harvested last year and 90,000,000 emy. In Flanders the German strat-bushels more than the 1912-16 aver- egy seems to be the obliteration of Estimates of production of other crops compared with those made a month ago showed various changes. Oats had a 49,000,000-pushel increase; tobac., a 20,000,000-pound loss; hay, a 13,000,000 ton, and white potatoes, 6.000.000-bushel loss.

Other changes were: Barley, 4,000,-000 bushels increase; sweet potatoes. 3,500,000 bushels decrease: flax, 1,100,-000 bushels increase, and rice, 700,-000 bushels decrease, Heaviest reduction in the corn profuction forecast came from Kansas, with a loss of 62.000.000 bushels; Nebraska with 60,000,000 bushels; Mis-souri with 57,000,000 bushels; Illinois with 37,000,000 bushels and Iowa with 32,000,000 bushels.

Leathernecks Revenge Death of Comrades After

Teutons Shout "Kamerad" With the American Army in France, Sept. 9.-Grim-faced, be-grimed and stained after several days of desperate, continuous battle, a platoon of marines was firing rapidly but calmly and accurately at the Hun ranks.

The foe's numbers were in the majority but the seasoldiers' fire was proving speedily evening. ' Suddenly the Huns dropped their rifles and cried "Kamerad."

The marines waited for the surrendering enemy to appoach. When the foe came within 200 yards their first lines dropped. They had been dragging machine guns by ropes attached to their belts.

About 30 marines fell before their comrades, with a yell of rage and revenge, surged forward. The bayonet let not a Hun survive.

Crafty Little Fellows.

All the Chinese restaurants, laundries and other places of business were given the once over. When the inmates were questioned by the po-lice whether they had their registration certificates they professed not to understand and would repeat over and over "Me no gottee." When taken before the exemption officials, who had employed an interpretator to quiz them, practically each one was able to show the proper credentials and was released.

Checking Up On Them.

The object of the raid, Mr. English, said, was to check up on the Chinese. A number of them were native-born citizens who had registered but paid no further attention to the matter. A number of them had left the city without notifying the board, one fellow going back o China to fight for, of Chinese made false entries in their own country.

"There's nothing really serious about the matter," Mr. English con-tinued, "we are just trying to get a line on every Chinese and get our books straightened up." Find Onium Outfe Find Opium Outfit. In one of the places raided, 117 questionnaires, but they were given every opportunity to correct the answers and all took advantage of it. All appeared to be of the "work or fight" stuff. One fellow, Mock Ah Yong, 1409 Douglas street, had passport showing that he was the son of a citizen. In his questionnaire he claimed exemption on the ground that he is an alien. He was given until noon today to get the matter adjudicated.
