

LEVIES ON SUGAR, COFFEE AND TEA URGED IN HOUSE

Wealthy Persons Taxed to Utmost Limit by War Revenue Bill, Declares Representative Longworth.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Debate on the war revenue bill continued today in the house with members of the ways and means committee delivering prepared speeches in which they criticized some features of the measure, but promised to vote for it on final passage.

Leaders plan to end general discussion Thursday and take up the bill Friday for amendments. In the meantime, the ways and means committee will consider special amendments to facilitate the sale of Liberty bonds, which were suggested today by the Treasury department.

Representative Hull told the house the nation's tax budget after the war will be $4,000,000,000 annually and warned that little of this can be made up by tariff rate increases. He urged consumption levies on sugar, coffee, tea, silk and rubber.

Declaring that wealthy persons are taxed to "the absolute limit" by the bill, Representative Longworth said that for the future increased revenue taxes on necessary articles of daily consumption must be resorted to. He predicted that these taxes may have to be imposed sooner than congress had expected because of pending wartime prohibition legislation, which, he estimated, would reduce federal revenue by $1,500,000,000.

Mr. Longworth also said that the president's order stopping the manufacture of beer after December 1, would cause a loss of $500,000,000 in revenue between that date and the time the "dry" legislation becomes effective.

WILL CALL YOUTHS AND MEN 31 TO 36

(Continued From Page One) 1917 out of more than 3,000,000 registrants called, only 140,000 filed occupational claims, or 4.7 per cent; thus 95 per cent of all registrants raised no question of such deferment.

Will Welcome Advice. "The boards will do all that they possibly can, on their own initiative, to reach a just decision by a complete examination of the questionnaires even where no claim is expressly made. Nevertheless the boards will welcome and will need all the aid that can be furnished by the indication of a claim made for deferment."

"But, who is to make that claim? Ordinarily, the registrant himself will indicate the claim on his questionnaire. But, if through mistaken chivalry, he should fail to do so, another may make it for him. In industry, agriculture or other occupation this person will naturally be his employer or some other representative of his associated group."

"The employer in this situation represents the nation because in the statutory phrase, 'the maintenance of the military establishment or of the national interest during the emergency' requires that some well-advised third person should look after that national interest which the registrant himself may not have sufficiently considered."

Dry Day Draws Near As House Considers Bill

Washington, Sept. 10.—Wartime prohibition moved a step nearer today when the house agricultural committee decided to report favorably the food production bill, including the amendment added by the senate making prohibition effective July 1, 1919.

The committee inserted a provision permitting the importation of Italian wine until May 1, 1919, as requested yesterday by the Italian government through the State department. As passed by the senate the bill would stop importation immediately.

DEBS DECLARED OPPOSED TO WAR PROGRAM OF U. S.

Socialist Candidate's Speech at Canton, O., Basis of Charge of Disloyalty to the Government.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 10.—The government revealed its case against Eugene V. Debs, socialist leader, charged with violation of the espionage act, today in the United States district court. District Attorney Wertz said he would complete his evidence tomorrow.

According to witnesses Debs prefaced his remarks at the meeting at Canton, O., with the statement, "I must be careful what I say and more careful how I say it." His speech on this occasion is the basis of the government's case.

His alleged offense is that by insinuation in this speech it was his intent to affirm the "war program" adopted by the socialist party at St. Louis in June, 1917. This program was approved by a party referendum and is outspoken in opposing the war and pledges the party to oppose conscription. Although in his speech Mr. Debs evaded direct affirmation of the "war program," witnesses were introduced to show that this was really what he intended to convey.

U-Boat Destroyed By Gunfire From American Steamer

Washington, Sept. 10.—Destruction of an enemy submarine September 3, off the Atlantic coast by gunfire from the American steamer Frank H. Buck, was reported to the Navy department today by the master of the steamer. He said that two shots were observed to hit the submersible, which sank after a "terrific explosion."

The submarine, the captain said, opened fire on the steamer at a range of 1,400 yards, but when it found after an interchange of three-score shots that it was outgunned by the American's guns, it tried to draw off. It was then that the ship put in the two shots which the captain believes destroyed the enemy.

An Atlantic Port, Sept. 10.—Warning 1,000 miles east of New York may be using a large cargo ship as a decoy was brought here today by the officers of an incoming British passenger liner. There were no signs of life aboard the freighter and the British commander gave her a wide berth, speeding away on a zigzag course to avoid a possible torpedo attack.

Gift From Father in Mysterious Package Fools Police Officer

Sergeant S. L. Morris of the Omaha police force received a small and mysterious looking package Tuesday with a London postmark. Thoughts of bombs and infernal machines flashed through the dogmatic sergeant's mind. He even fancied that he heard a slow and faint ticking within the package.

At last he mustered up enough courage carefully to undo the wrappings and to open the parcel. Within he found the watch and chain which he remembered since boyhood as one of his father's most cherished possessions.

"My father bought it in 1852," said Sergeant Morris, "and carried it through the whole of the Crimean war. I always wanted it, and just before I left England for the United States 30 years ago, he promised it to me. Father is now 98 years old and I shall probably never receive another gift from him. I believe that he paid $8 for it, or $40 in American money." The watch is of an old English make, and both it and the chain are of silver.

FEDERAL FOOD MEN CONFER ON YEAR'S PROGRAM

Large Attendance Expected at Meeting to Outline Administration's Plans to Chairmen.

Various phases of food administration work in Nebraska will be discussed at the meeting of county food administrators today at Hotel Fontenelle by Gurdon W. Wattles, federal food administrator for Nebraska; A. C. Lutz, deputy administrator; E. M. Fairfield, director of enforcement; H. M. Bushnell, Jr., executive secretary, and E. V. Parrish, director of education.

Every county in the state and every state-wide committee will be represented at the meeting, according to the announcement of the federal food administration for Nebraska.

That the meeting is attracting unusual attention among the county food administrators is shown by the acceptance of invitations. Heretofore, the attendance has not been as general as desired, but today's meeting will more than make up for past deficiencies in this regard. Mr. Wattles will preside and will outline the work for the winter, after reviewing conditions as they are seen in Washington.

He will urge greater voluntary activity on the part of the Nebraska citizens and will tell the county heads that the program for the winter, while not requiring the strenuous conservation of the past, will have to accomplish even more than before. But it must be accomplished through awakened consciousness on the part of the people and not through drastic restrictions.
