

PLENTY OF SUGAR TO CAN FRUIT, IS WATTLE'S WORD

Administrator Says It Is Saving to Conserve in This Way and He Wants It Done.

Nebraska's allotment of sugar for October is 4,228,000 pounds, according to information received by Gordon W. Wattle, federal food administrator. The amount is a little more than the September allowance and will be absorbed in the demands of the various manufacturers. The allotment includes sugar for canning, manufacturing purposes and bakeries, but does not include sugar for canning in excess of household use. Additional sugar will be given Nebraska for canning purposes upon proper showing. The Nebraska allotment is made on the 2 pound per person basis and will be distributed on this basis through the retailers. "Any sugar needed for canning purposes will be in excess of this amount and will be granted upon application," says the Washington advices. "We do not want any loss of fruit because of the inability of householders to get sufficient sugar and rather than have such loss, advances will be made from the November and December quotas," says Wattle. "Every housewife should can sufficient stuff to carry through the winter. It will be the cheapest conservation imaginable and at the same time render a great service to our country."

Omaha Company Given Verdict Against Land Syndicate in the West

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 13.—A verdict of $35,000 was awarded the Lutheran Colonization company, Omaha, Neb., from the Sunset Syndicate, made up of California capitalists, in the United States district court here today, as the result of alleged frauds practised by the syndicate in a Tehama county colonization.

The Lutheran Colonization company was organized by Rev. J. E. Hummon, who some 12 years ago was pastor of Kountze Memorial Lutheran church. A large tract of land was obtained in California and sold out on easy terms to parties who would go there and live and improve the property. A considerable number of Omaha people took stock in the company, but as a financial proposition it was not successful.

Registration Adds More Than 14,000,000 To Man Power Rolls

Washington, Sept. 13.—First returns today to Provost Marshal General Crowder from the second great mobilization yesterday of the nation's man power for the war on Germany indicated that more than 14,000,000 men had been added to the army reserves. The estimated number of men between 18 and 21 and 32 and 45 years was 13,000,000.

Complete figures for all states are expected to be on hand by tomorrow night, at the latest, and some officials believe that they may show a total registration of nearly 15,000,000.

Lincoln, Sept. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Forty-six Nebraska counties, reporting to Governor Neville, indicate Nebraska's registration under the new draft will not be quite up to the government estimate of 157,000.

No figures will be given out by the governor until all are in but it is understood the total is running about the same as the registration of 1917 which was about 120,000.

The capital city also fell short of the government's estimate of 6,372 but 5,779 registering yesterday.

WAR FUND HEAD PESSIMISTIC OVER RESULTS

Dr. Hugh A. Knowles Not Satisfied With Contributions to Salvation Army Doughnut Fund.

"I will not say Omaha isn't going to go over the top in the Salvation Army war fund drive, but we are not satisfied with the cash fund as it stands this late in the week," was the comment Friday of Dr. Hugh A. Knowles, directing the drive.

"Many of our team captains have not reported. We understand they are still at work. But from reports coming to the headquarters the response given their efforts has not been satisfactory. They have worked hard, their cause is splendid and has popular favor, but the contributions, especially those in the hundreds of dollars, have not been satisfactory.

"There is still another day of the drive left. Many have not yet been solicited. Our headquarters at 220 South Fifteenth street is open day and night and they are urged to get in touch with us that we might get their contributions.

One Day Left.

"I am not discouraged, because I can not conceive of Omaha falling down. Our fund isn't large, but it isn't growing fast enough and there is only one day left."

Only $10,071.31 of Omaha's $60,000 goal has been collected for the Salvation Army war fund.

Only two of the 20 teams which canvassed the entire downtown district during the week have reported. One had $1,400, the other about $1,000.

Friday's big contributors were: Carpenter Paper Co., $100; Mrs. J. J. Brown, $100; Thomas Klipstrick Co., $100; Employees of Carpenter Paper Co., $65; Fry Shoe Co., $25; National Roofing Co., $25; Empire Theater, $25; Beselin & Son, $25.

The above subscriptions were made to members of Dr. E. Willard Powell's team.

Friday tin cans, bearing a cartoon and the advice, "Can the Kaiser," were placed in restaurants and cigar stores.

Mogy Bernstein's company of tiny dancers and singers collected from crowds that gathered to watch them perform on a truck platform on downtown corners.

Salvation Army lassies continued to distribute tags on the streets and to preside at booths in large stores and public buildings. The doughnut dugout on the court house lawn did a thriving business.

Gen. Pershing Praises Division in Which Nebraskans Serve

The Eighty-ninth division, overseas, which includes many Nebraska boys, is considered by General Pershing, "the finest body of men he has seen," according to a letter received by William Hughes, 612 South Thirty-eighth avenue, from Representative C. F. Reavis.

The Nebraska congressman wrote that General Pershing had made the statement to him, while he was in France recently.

Representative Reavis said he had seen Tom Hughes, son of Mr. Hughes, while overseas and that the young man was located near Chaumont at that time, and was well and enthusiastic in his work.

"The American boy has proved himself the most courageous soldier in Europe," is the statement of Mr. Reavis in this letter.

Morris Levy Offers to Increase Fund Ten Per Cent

Morris Levy has again come to the front with an offer to pay 10 per cent of all money subscribed and collected in Omaha for the relief of Jewish war sufferers during the year 1918.

In 1917 more than $10,000,000 was raised for this cause and in that campaign in different parts of the United States, leaders in the Jewish communities gave 10 per cent of the amounts raised in their respective communities. In some instances the percentage was given on moneys raised in the entire state and in two cases on money raised in much larger territories. Julius Rosenwald of Chicago gave 10 per cent of the entire $10,000,000 raised in the United States.

This year, so far as the local committee has been informed, Morris Levy is the first man to renew his 10 per cent offer for the 1918 campaign. The committee estimates that it will raise in Omaha in excess of $100,000, which means that Mr. Levy's contribution to war relief this year will approximate $10,000. In 1917 the committee raised by subscription in excess of $55,000.

The campaign is now being made and will close with the services on Yom Kippur day.

Home Guards Replace Striking Policemen On Cincinnati Streets

Cincinnati, Sept. 13.—Between 3 and 7 p. m. today this city was guarded by only 48 policemen, a strike of the guardians of the law here having been declared and carried out when the second shift which daily reported at 3 p. m. failed to put in an appearance.

At 7 p. m. 700 members of the home guard, under the personal command of Col. Charles F. Hake, took command and the dark drab of the guards greeted the eyes of the pedestrians where the blue of the policemen was accustomed to be seen.

The threat of a strike came like a bombshell at police headquarters. For several months the policemen have been complaining that they were under paid, considering the high cost of living, and numerous requests for increases had been made, but no intimation that a strike was impending was given until this morning, when a demand was presented.
