BIG AUDIENCES HEAR M'KELVIE ON WAR ISSUES

Grand Island and Shelton Deeply Impressed by Political Speech of Candidate for Governor.

Grand Island, Neb., Sept. 17.—(Special Telegram)—S. R. McKelvie, republican candidate for governor...

During his address he said: "The democrats seem determined to make the war a partisan issue and are attempting to place a stamp of disloyalty upon all those who do not vote the democratic ticket this year."

"Now they attempt to say that the democrats are the only ones that can prosecute the war vigorously in spite of the fact that two years ago they denominated the republican party as the 'war party'."

"This is neither a democrat nor a republican war. It is a war in which the people of our nation have enlisted their support for the causes of freedom and justice among the people and the nations of the world."

"Among those who are fighting our country's battles today are as many republicans as there are democrats, and it is a very questionable tribute that the democratic party in this fight has been actuated by partisan motives."

"In matters pertaining to the war, I consider the State Council of Defense the most important body in our state today. Indeed, I consider it of such great importance, that if I am elected it shall be my purpose to give freely of my time in the aid and direction of its activities."

"I know Mr. Gooch personally very well and esteem him as a gentleman and a friend, but as one of the bosses of the democrat party the Council of Defense should not be obliged to carry the burden of his partisan activities."
