

DINNER DANCE WINDS UP FIELD CLUB SEASON

Two Hundred Dollars Raised For Belgian Baby Relief Fund; Many Soldiers Attend Function.

The Omaha Field club closed a most successful season last night with a dinner-dance, which was attended by more than 400 members.

The dancing commenced about 8:30 in the large open dance pavilion, which was cleverly hung with the flags of American and the allied nations.

An usual sprinkling of men in uniform was evident throughout the dining room and on the dance floor.

A greater interest in all club activities seemed evident this year than in former years, according to A. V. Shotwell, president of the club.

Among the large party reservations for the evening were: E. P. Royer, 16 guests; O. W. Dunn, 10; W. S. Stryker, 11; R. M. Jones, 11; C. D. Sturdevant, 10; E. F. Riley, 10; and W. H. Yohe, 12.

At the stockholder's banquet held earlier in the evening, the directors of the club reported a surplus of more than $6,000 in the treasury.

BOY NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH PLAYING "WAR"

Button and Fountain Pen Save Life of Boy Struck by Bullet From Playmate's Rifle.

"Playing war" and valiantly guarding a "trench" with its "dug-out" adjunct landed Eddie Emig in police court in Council Bluffs yesterday morning after he had narrowly missed killing Glen Catlin, young son of Rev. Mr. Catlin, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Eddie is 14 years old and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Emig, 814 Perrin avenue. Glen Catlin, aged 12, was an "enemy" approaching the dugout position when he was fired upon by Emig.

The weapon used was a Winchester Target rifle. The bullet, fired from a distance of more than a block, struck the pastor's son on the left side. It wasted some of its energy in splitting a stout button on the boy's coat, more of it breaking a metal buckle on his belt and was finally stopped by striking a metal pencil. It never touched his skin at any point.

The war "tragedy" occurred Friday afternoon. The Emig boy and many others have excavated a cave in one of the hills of Morningside, where they have played miniature warfare after school. Glen Catlin was a little late in reaching the rendezvous and he naturally became "the enemy" when he approached.

He was more than a block away when Eddie gave the warning signal of "enemy coming over." It was peculiarly "white," which Glen imitated exactly. This startled him as a "spy," and Eddie fired at once. He thought the gun was loaded with a .22 cartridge but it was a .22 shell. The gun was not aimed but fired in the general direction of the boy.

In juvenile court Eddie was placed in charge of the court and sent to the reformatory each week. His own and all of the stock of ammunition was confiscated.

War Savings Workers Are Urged to Assist Fourth Liberty Loan

Governor J. Z. Miller of the Kansas City Federal Reserve bank has requested Nebraska war savers workers to assist in making the fourth liberty loan as successful as the third bond drive in which Nebraska assumed such a prominent position in the country.

C. E. Wray, executive secretary of war savings for Nebraska, a few days ago sent a general appeal to county chairmen of war savings and county directors of war savings societies in Nebraska's 93 counties, urging them to be ready to promote the sale of Liberty bonds in every way possible.

The War Loan board of the Treasury department at Washington will direct the sale of both war savings and Liberty bonds through the Federal Reserve banks in each district, Nebraska and seven other states in this district will report to the Kansas City Federal Reserve bank. The National War Savings committee of which Frank A. Vandell was formerly chairman, will be known as the War Savings Section of the War Loan organization.

Mr. Ward Burgess, appointed state director of war savings for Nebraska at the beginning of the campaign, is now a member of the war loan board of the Treasury department and will remain in Washington.

No Rationing Needed in 1919 If People Conserve Says Hoover

Washington, Sept. 21.—Food Administrator Hoover, in outlining in a statement issued tonight the food conservation program recommended for the American people during the coming year, said the United States was prepared to ship 5,730,000 more tons of foodstuffs to its armies and allies than last year and still have a margin over the amount necessary to maintain health and strength at home.

The great undertaking cannot be accomplished, however, Mr. Hoover emphasized, without due regard to the importance of saving by every person.

With no prospect, as he saw it, of a proper ending of the year before the summer campaign of 1919, the food problem, the food administrator declared, is no small part of the issue. The allied civilians and armies, the American armies, the Belgian relief and certain neutrals who are dependent upon the United States will require 17,550,000 tons of foodstuffs for the year beginning July 1.

This, in round numbers, will include meats and fats 2,600,000 tons; breadstuffs 10,400,000; sugar 1,850,000, and feed grains, mostly army oats, 2,700,000.

There will be no food rationing in this country so long as the people continue to conserve as in the past, Mr. Hoover said.

"Of our imports," Mr. Hoover said, "we shall apparently have sufficient to maintain the present consumption and take care of the extra drain of the allies from our markets, instead of compelling them to send their ships to the far east."

The average consumption of our people of breadstuffs amounts to about six pounds per week and of meats and fats four pounds per week for each person. A reduction in consumption of less than one-half pound per week per person in each of these two great groups of foods would accomplish our purpose. We wish to emphasize, however, that we do not want curtailment in the use of milk for children.

"Some of our homes by reason of limited income cannot now provide more food than they should have to maintain health in the family. They cannot rightfully be asked to consume the suggested reduction in consumption. But the great majority of our homes can do more than suggested."

"We need even greater simplicity of living than last year. "We estimate that nearly 9,000,000 people eat at our public eating places—hotels, restaurants, boarding houses, clubs, dining cars and so forth. The food consumption in these places is larger than in the average homes. We are asking the proprietors and employees of these institutions to undertake, in many particulars, a more strict program than last year, and we are confident that they will willingly do this."

"We have so arranged the international food program, that except for a moderate substitution of other cereals in bread, it will not, we hope be necessary to substitute one foodstuff for another, nor to resort to wheatless and meatless days. "It is necessary that every family in the United States study its food budget and food ways to see if it cannot buy less, serve less, return nothing to the kitchen and practice the gospel of the clean plate."

Chiropractic Health Talks. Health is the most valuable asset anyone can possess. The whole civilized world needs healthy men and women today more than anything else.

Dr. Alfred Walton, M. D., of Harvard University, says: "As it may appear the medical profession is woefully deficient in a knowledge of the spine and its importance in the treatment of disease."

Disease is caused by nerve pressure, by interference with those channels which transmit mental impulses from the brain to every tissue cell in the body.

Chiropractic removes the cause of the interference and health is the result. Chiropractic is being endorsed by authorities everywhere from the scientific standpoint, because it is right and its marvelous record of accomplishment recommends it to all who are sick and suffering with some acute or chronic ailment.

Committees Get Busy and Bring in Many New Names as Result of Drive.

Memberships in the Omaha Athletic club were increased by over 100 last week under the spur given by the announcement that the new club house was nearing completion.

The club now has more than 1,200 members on its roll and the committee anticipates little trouble in raising this list to the limit which has been set by the directors. Many applications have already been made for the rooms which will be rented to members who desire to live at the club. One entire floor will be kept for the use of visitors who might desire to stop there at the invitation of some of the members.

Work is progressing rapidly on the interior and the date of the opening is not far off.

Require Police Aid to Release Imprisoned Boy. Mrs. J. Deekin, 541 Mill street, had to call for police aid in rescuing her young son from queer inquisitors from which neither herself nor her neighbors could release him. The youngster thrust his foot into a sewer vent pipe at the curbing, and when he tried to pull it out the heel of his shoe caught on the side of the pipe. The harder he struggled the tighter the foot became wedged and the further it slipped down the pipe. Officer Crum had to get a spade and dig deeply around the pipe and then break it before the prisoner foot could be released. A similar accident occurred in the same block a year ago and the same emergency remedy was used.
