Lost Sweater Adds Grief To Lot of Omaha Soldier

A soldier wrote to the soldiers' and sailors' welfare committee of the Chamber of Commerce asking for a sweater. He specifies a "medium brown one." "The reason I ask for one of this color," he writes, "is that a friend of mine knitted one for me and I lost it on the way to Kelly field. She told me I must be very careful of it until I come home again. Now I want to get one that looks just like it."
