

TROPHIES FROM FIELD OF BATTLE SENT TO PETERS

Nephew from Grand Island Sends Book of Deceased Aviator to Omaha Man.

A piece of aluminum, part of the body of a boche aeroplane, and the "pilot book" of the Hun aviator, Christian August Baule, who owned the book, and from whose body it was taken by his nephew, Sergeant Hugh C. Peters, Company D, 108th Engineers, of the 33d Division, A. E. F., commanded by General Wright, formerly stationed at Omaha, are the treasured relics received from the battlefield by Herman B. Peters, proprietor of the Merchants Hotel.

The souvenirs, with a copy of "The Aussie," the Australian soldiers' magazine, came in a letter sent by Hugo, whose home is at Grand Island, and who is one of the nephews of Mr. Peters who went into the service of their country.

At Front Two Months.

Sergeant Peters writes that he had been in the first line trenches for two months and just after he had started the letter to his uncle he had received word to be in readiness to go back with his company on a few minutes' notice.

The piece of aluminum forming part of the enemy airplane, was taken in No Man's Land by the Nebraska soldier. The dead aviator was lying by his machine. According to his pay book the Hun aviator was 25 years of age, had been born in Linden, Hanover, Prussia, and was a member of the Third company infantry regiment No. 202. He had been transferred several times. He had been vaccinated against smallpox, cholera and typhus, the latter three times. The book showed that at one time he was a member of the "Flying circus."

Trench Paper.

"The Aussie," the Australian soldiers' field magazine, is a peculiar type of battlefield publication, and some of the jokes contained therein have a British flavor. The contributors seem to have a penchant for verse and there are a number of really meritorious poems dealing of home scenes in the Antip des.

The most clever contribution is from a soldier who signs himself "Mud Moralizer." Among his moralizations are:

"A mi s is as good as a mite, provided you don't get shell shock."
"A wise head tells us to be a stake in the stream. What about a bit more steak in the stew?"
"Since the stoppage of the rum issue I feel like the queen of Sheba."

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat, which clogs Kidneys, then Back hurts and Bladder Bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep clean, thus avoiding kidney troubles.

Druggist says salts to folks coming kidney trouble.

First American Woman Soldier Comes to Omaha

Sergt. Ruth Farnam, the first American woman soldier in the war will visit Omaha in the interest of the Fourth Liberty loan. She will appear at the First Presbyterian church Sunday evening, October 13, and at the University club Monday noon, October 14.

Mrs. Farnam was in Serbia when war broke out and was active in caring for the wounded. She was decorated by the king of Serbia and made a sergeant of the first cavalry regiment of the Royal Serbian army—thus being the only American woman actually to be attached to the army as a soldier.

Sergeant Farnam was attached to the general's staff during the famous battle of Brod, and was decorated for valor shown while stationed with the staff in No Man's land.

Army Horse Endurance Contest is Declared Off

The army horse contest committee has declared off the endurance contest from Lincoln to Omaha on Saturday, October 5.

The committee first endeavored to promote a contest from Kansas City to Omaha, but could not get enough horses. An effort was then made to secure enough horses for a one-day contest, but they were not to be had.

The horse buyers of the United States and allied armies have combed the country for cavalry horses.

BUY BONDS AS THOUGH BUYING A PHONOGRAPH

Building and Loan Association Arranges So That Every One May Easily Purchase.

The Fourth Liberty loan drive in Omaha is on with full steam ahead. The city is so thoroughly organized that not a man, woman or child will be slighted. All will have an opportunity to get some of Uncle Sam's valuable securities, which are the safest on earth.

"Can't afford it" is no excuse. In fact, such liberal terms are offered that Liberty bonds can now be bought with no more effort than it takes to buy a talking machine or a plush photograph album. They are offered "on the installment plan."

The building and loan associations of the city have come forward with a proposition that means virtually that they will loan money without interest to people who haven't the ready money to buy a few bonds. They will help people buy bonds and give them the interest which accrues on the whole bond while they are buying it.

The proposition, as outlined by Paul W. Kuhns, president of the Conservative Building and Loan association, is this: The buyer pays the government's required 10 per cent. After that he pays $4 a month on each $50 bond. He gets the interest on the whole $50 bonds while paying for it. This offer applies to bonds only up to the value of $250.

All the banks are also offering liberal terms to buyers. The bond is not considered sold until 10 per cent has been paid on it.

Street Railway Completes Plans to Care for Crowds

The street railway company is prepared to handle the Ak-Sar-Ben crowds with great rapidity as soon as the parades pass over the streets this week. All of the old cars have been run through the local shops and have been put in good condition for service. With these the new cars that have gone into service since last fall and the regular equipment, officials feel that they are better prepared than ever before to move people off the streets.

In handling the crowds after the parades pass, practically the same methods will be pursued as in former years. As many cars as possible will be laid in on switches in the downtown section and these will be brought in from the switches farther out, and in this way it is figured that it will be possible to clear the streets inside of half an hour after any parade has passed.

The members of the executive committee are: T. P. Nielsen, supreme president, Seattle; S. Iversen, supreme vice president, New Haven, Conn.; J. Michaelson, supreme secretary, Omaha, and R. Rasmussen, supreme treasurer.

Failure to observe this regulation is punishable by arrest and internment for the period of the war.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.—Adv.

What Do You Mean "Afford"?

By GEORGE ADE

We come to another big task. This time we need not call for helpers. The volunteer workers stream in myriad hosts along the main highway leading to victory and vindication.

All patriots, by confession.

The grumblers are awed into silence. If the taint of disloyalty remains anywhere it is hidden as a shameful secret. The heads are wagging and we hear many old assurances:

"I'll do all I can."
"I'll go as far as the next fellow."
"I'll take all I can afford to take."

We are speaking, of course, of the Fourth Liberty Loan and the willingness of the war-backers to subscribe.

This time we do not explain a Liberty Loan and how it works, or why we battle with Germany, or that a war costs money. It will just about require a search-warrant to find a man who does not say that he will take all the bonds he can "afford" to take.

But, O, my countrymen, we need night schools and correspondence schools, private tutors and chautauquas and special information bureaus to enlighten Mr. A and Mr. B and Mr. C as to the real meaning of the word "afford."

Are you penciling around to find out how much money you can set aside without the slightest inconvenience to any of your pet private projects?

Are you trying to decide how many bonds you will have to take in order to escape the charge of being a slacker?

Are you getting ready to answer in hundreds a country that has endowed you with thousands?

As you squint your eyes and try to decide upon the sum which will fairly represent your individual quota, are you acting as attorney for the United States of America or have you gone in for technicalities in order to protect special interests?

In reasoning with your conscience, are you trying to be generous or trying to play safe?

It is up to you.

The buck cannot be passed.

It is for each man to decide whether he is going to be a thoroughbred or a squeezer of 50-cent pieces.

For the sake of your own self-respect, come through to the limit. If you live to be a thousand years old you will never have another chance to start your iron dollars upon such a noble mission.

Do you wish to deepen the wrinkles upon the brows in Potsdam?

Would you fortify the courage of every soldier in France?

Shall we set in such a stack that the kaiser can't see over the top of it?

All right! You are appointed a Special Agent.

Don't wait for a committee to hunt you up or run you down.

Hurry to the bank and break through the line and order so many Liberty Bonds that the man inside will be dazed and all of the neighbors surprised and all of your relatives proud.
