AMERICANS 'MIX' WITH HUNS USING MANY GRENADES

Hand-to-Hand Fighting on St. Quentin Sector; Yankees Holding Captured Positions. By Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 30.—American troops have maintained and consolidated their newly captured positions from the Meuse to the Aisne in the face of counter-attacks and heavy artillery bombardment.

Charged With Stealing Bonds. Frank Enoch of Oklahoma City, Okl., was arrested in a local hotel Monday night by Detective Turner and a sheriff from Oklahoma City, where he is wanted for the alleged theft of $4,000 worth of Liberty bonds from a grocery store.

The weather today has been bad for all operations; the troops fought in rain with a cold wind blowing. The British are on the western edge of Le Troquoy tunnel, a few miles north of St. Quentin and are approaching La Fosse. Other troops have made good progress south of the canal. The lines in this locality run well east of Nauroy and Bellicourt and just west of Bony.

Why not buy that Liberty Bond today? An excellent investment and a patriotic duty.

Out to-day New Victor Records for October

Brilliant new duet by Caruso and De Luca. A highly dramatic number from Forza del Destino. These two great voices blend with wonderful effect and result in a record of extreme beauty.

Gluck and Zimbalist present "The Lost Chord". Sir Arthur Sullivan's beloved old song touched to fire by the glory of Gluck's voice and the pathos of Zimbalist's violin.

"The Dance of the Goblins" by Jascha Heifetz. A violin solo that fairly dazzles by its brilliancy—that displays the amazing technique of Heifetz.

Victor Herbert's Orchestra plays two delightful numbers. Two appealing wartime songs by Reinald Werrenrath. "Good-bye, Alexander" cleverly sung by Marion Harris.

Four Good Dance Numbers. Two Spirited Band Marches. Seven Stirring Soldier Songs. Four Breezy Popular Song Hits.

Important Notice. Victor Records and Victor Machines are scientifically coordinated and synchronized in the processes of manufacture, and their use, one with the other, is absolutely essential to a perfect reproduction.

British Flyers Down 35 German Planes In Sunday Air Fight

London, Sept. 30.—Thirty-five German airplanes were put out of action and 15 balloons destroyed in the air fighting of Sunday, according to Field Marshal Haig's report on aerial activities tonight. Nine teen British planes failed to return to their bases. The statement reads: "On Sunday 15 hostile balloons were destroyed. Twenty-six planes were brought down and nine other driven down out of control. Nine teen of ours are missing. Thirty-five tons of bombs were dropped on railway stations and junctions. The air force, in co-operation with the navy, bombed enemy destroyers and raided Zeebrugge, Ostend and Bruges and airdromes in the vicinity of Ghent. Twelve hostile machines were destroyed and fourteen driven down out of control. Ten of ours are missing."

Yankee Soldiers Cannot Stop to Vote, War Decision. New York, Sept. 30.—Because constant movement of our military forces in Europe would make it impracticable at present to attempt to secure in any manner the votes of our soldiers abroad, the War department has declined to permit the state of New York to send a commission abroad to take the votes of the 200,000 New York men now serving with the American expeditionary forces.

THOMPSON, BELDEN & CO. The Fashion Center for Women. The Greatest Privilege. Is the opportunity to subscribe your full share in Bonds of the Fourth Liberty Loan. To offer your money to the government of the United States to aid in prosecuting this war to a victorious conclusion.

Do You Select Apparel Because Its Price Appeals. Or do you choose apparel of distinctive style and reputable quality? To follow the appeal of price is shortsightedness because the value of your purchase depends entirely upon the length of the service and the satisfaction and pleasure it gives.

Quality Always Pays For Itself. And in relation to apparel, the best is always the most economical and decidedly the most satisfying.

Thompson-Belden's reputation for fine wearables is being upheld in the face of unusual circumstances. Suits, Coats, Dresses, Blouses, Furs. Of the finest characters are now being shown. Priced in moderation.

NEW BANDED VELOURS. The latest fashion in beautiful hats for street wear is the velour and it's singularly attractive. In seasonable shades of brown, plum, taupe, terra cotta, khaki, navy blue, black. Some of the shapes are very mannish, others are soft side rolls and pretty droops.

A Fine Display Tuesday. $7.50, $10, $12.50 and $15.
