Ringer Puts Eberstein in Complete Control of Police Department

Superintendent Ringer has given Chief Eberstein full charge of the police department, according to the following order:

"Mr. Marshall Eberstein has this morning assumed the duties of chief of police of the city of Omaha. Every question having to do with the management of the police force must be taken up through him, and all orders to the police department will be given by him. He has full control of the department. "I ask for him the undivided support and allegiance of every member of the department, and feel sure that he will deal wisely and justly at all times."

U. S. Agents Take Booze Without Warrant; Lose

Even the minions of Uncle Sam have no right to enter a man's home, without a search warrant, and seize a quantity of liquor. This was the decision of Judge Madden in police court Wednesday morning.

According to evidence submitted, Andrew Hansen, federal agent of the Department of Justice, traced a trunk containing liquor to the home of Walter Rosicky, secretary of the Twelith street.

It was shown the federal agent had acted without process of warrant in the seizure and arrest, and Judge Madden held this was a violation of the constitution of the United States and of the state of Nebraska and dismissed the case. The liquors held in evidence were for further orders. This occurred September 1 and the defendant was charged with violating the Reed amendment. Without search warrant he seized the trunk and brought it to the po-Without search warrant he seized lice station, where it was found to contain 43 packages of Vermouth, TODAY Kimmel, Norway, Virgina Dare and SAT.
