Amount Subscribed in Exchange Building Already Approximates Nearly $200,000.

"The result of the Tuesday can-vass of the business firms and their employes in the Omaha Live Stock Exchange building on the fourth Liberty loan drive was most satisfactory," said W. B. Tagg, who is in charge of the drive in that territory, the amount raised up to noon be-

This makes the total for Monday's and Tuesday's canvass $194,060. Mr. Tagg expects to complete the work by Thursday.

Veteran Stock Yards Man

Raymond Bernard, 4401 South Twentieth street, died at his home pneumonia at the age of 33 years. Mr. Bernard began work with the Union Stock Yards company when a lad and was in its employ for many years. The last four years he has been working as yard man for the Mutual Live Stock Commission company. A week ago Monday he complained of feeling badly and was taken home in his car and death followed a week later.

He is survived by his widow and two children, Harold and Helen. Funrela services will be held at the residnence Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Robert L. Wheeler will officiate. Interment will be in Graceland Park cemetery.

Mrs. Jackson Forced to Quit Work on Account of Bad Health: Tanlac Restores Her.

"Just a few weeks ago I was so badly run down that I had to stop working, but Tanlac has built me up so fine that I have just gone to work in a new position," said Mrs. Jessie B. Jackson, bookkeeper for the Cudahy Packing Co. in South Omaha, who lives at 79 Drake Court, corner Twenty-second and Jones street, the other day.

"A few months ago," she continued, "when I returned from San Antonio, Texas, where I had been living for a while, I took a position in close confinement undermined my health and I began to go down very fast. I lost my appetite, and suffered from frequent attacks of indigestion, when my food would sour on my stomach and formed so much gas that it pressed on my heart till I felt like I was going to smother. My head ached constantly and I would get so dizzy at times that I could hardly stand on my feet. I was so nervous and felt so miserable from a pain in my chest that I could hardly sleep. I fell off in weight, was as pale as a sheet and felt tired and languid all the time.

I knew I needed a complete rest and something to build me up, so I gave up my position and stayed at home for a while.

"Then I recalled that while I was down in San Antonio I heard a great deal about Tanlac and the good it was doing, so I decided to try it and got me a bottle. It wasn't long after I started on it when my appetite returned, and as my digestion improved a fresh, healthy color came into my face, which showed that my food was doing me good. I can eat anything I want now and never have the least bit of trouble with gas or smothering spells. Those awful headaches have left me, I never feel dizzy and my nerves are so quiet that I sleep all night like a child. I have gained five pounds in weight and feel so well and strong that I am back at work once more, just as if nothing was ever the matter with me at all."

that the Turkish cabinet had resigned. The new selling movement which accompanied the report seemed to be associated with guesses that Turkey might suddenly imitate Bulgaria and made an uncondi-tional surrender. Swift breaks which ensued in prices contrasted greatly with the earlier upward course of the market and with a widespread assumption that the reply to Germany would be virtually confined to shorts. New speculative selling as well as unloading by holders characterized the late colleges. New Speculative selling where buriap substitutes have supplied a very considerable business.
