Hogs-Receipts today were estimated at 4,800 head. Shippers had a few more orders than of late and were out on the market buying hogs largely from $17.60 to $17.75. Packers also showed a slight advance, the general market being stronger to 5@10c higher, with the bulk of all sales at $17.50 to $17.70, with a top of $17.80.

Sheep—Receipts were marked up on the board as 9,000 head, but were late in being yarded and very little trading reported on early rounds. The market has been active all week and has gradually worked a little higher. Yesterday's top on feeders selling at $14.35 and fat lambs at $15.70. The market on feeders is around 50c higher for the week.

Bradstreet's Trade Review. New York, Oct. 11 .- Bradstreet's tomor row will say:

Cumulatively favorable war news ha stimulated the bond market, raised the levels of peace stocks and begotten fulse peace sentiment, against which the prestdent has issued a caution. Peace talk, too, has had some effect on trade, which reflects some hesitation, and the pace of industry has slackened, but some re-sponsibility for this is credited to the country wide epidemic of influence which has hampered industry, resulted in the promulgation of health regulations, the closing of some theaters and schools, and finally in restricted buying by the ultimate consumer. The Liberty loan campaign also has diverted attentions fro trading and pleas for peace emanating from the central European belligerents have brought on a more cautious attitud

Nov. |21 30 |21 62 4 |21 30 |21 50 |21 15 CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS. Corn and Oats Markets Strengthened or Buying By Shorts.

Chicago, Oct. 11 .- General evening up f trades so as to be prepared for any urprise during the double holiday ahead ended to bring about advances today in the corn market. Prices closed firm 1c to 1%c net higher with November, $1.13% to $1.14%, and December, $1.12% to $1.12. Oats finished %c off to %c up, and pro-visions varying from 17c decline to a rise

Word that the German answer to Presifent Wilson's note would be deferred un-il after a conference of the sovereigns of he German federated states was an imortant factor in curtailing the selling ressure which had been forcing down the alue of corn. Buying, however, appeared to be restricted largely to shorts who wished to collect profits and to avoid the risks that would be involved if covering were delayed until Monday. It was stated too that recent selling had been heavy or the part of holders and many feared to take the bear side further at present. Alhough offerings increased on bulges, the lown turns which ensued were not of a radical sort.

Onts averaged higher for the same rea Oats averaged higher for the same reasons as corn.

Lard and ribs advanced sharply notwithstanding that buying was scattered.
Pork continued minus of support.
