

SOLDIER VOTES BEGIN TO COME FOR M'KELVIE

Soldier "Beats His Dad" to It and Says That the Candidate Already Has His Vote.

From a Staff Correspondent. Lincoln, Oct. 14.—(Special.)—One vote has already been recorded by a soldier for S. R. McKelvie, republican candidate for governor, according to information received at Lincoln. This is a soldier vote and was made by the soldier himself.

The story is that one day last week while Mr. McKelvie was speaking out in the state the train pulled in and a young man in soldier uniform lighted from the train and started up town.

When he arrived on the outskirts of the crowd which was listening to Mr. McKelvie a man rushed from the crowd and seized him in his arms. It was the boy's father who had supposed that he was in France. There had been some delay in starting and the boy had been given a short turlough to come and say goodbye to his home folks.

"When are you going home, dad?" asked the young man of his father.

"Just as soon as I hear the rest of this speech," answered the father.

On inquiry by the young man as to who was speaking, the older man replied it was Mr. McKelvie, republican candidate for governor, and "I'm going to vote for him too," added the old man.

"Oh, thunder, dad," answered the soldier boy, "I beat you to it, I voted for him before I left camp."

The soldiers in the camps have been voting for some time and their return envelopes containing their votes have been coming back to the office of the secretary for more than a week; but this is the first time that the vote of any one has been given out.
