

WOMAN'S SECTION OF THE BEE

Conducted by Ella Fleishman

SOCIETY

Fairbanks-Boyce Nuptials.

In the beautiful chapel of the First Presbyterian church the marriage of Mrs. Miriam Patterson Boyce and Mr. Livingston Fairbanks was solemnized late this afternoon. Rev. E. H. Jenks read the marriage lines.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Ross Towle, who was most attractive in a tailored gown of blue combined with satin and a small blue hat to match. A corsage of rosebuds and swansonia completed her costume.

The bride also wore a smart model in blue gaberdine with trimmings of satin. A picture hat of the same shade was worn and the purple hues of a corsage of orchids gave a lovely touch of color to the bridal costume.

Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony. The bride's only sister, Miss Eugenie Patterson, will have to cable her congratulations as she is now in Vladivostok, and her brother, Lt. D. C. Patterson, is also in Russia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks left immediately following the ceremony, for the east, as they will spend several weeks at Mr. Fairbanks' country home at Lake Geneva. Later in the fall they will occupy their apartment at 1210 Astor street in Chicago.

Golden Wedding.

Surrounded by their children and grandchildren, all of whom are in Omaha to attend the wedding of a grandson, Mr. Ben Taxman of El Dorado, Kan., and Miss Anna Milder, Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Taxman, sr., of Rock Island, Ill., celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Milder Sunday. The children, J. J. and Michael Taxman, jr., of Rock Island, and Mrs. Charles Walters of Nashville, Tenn., presented Mrs. Taxman with a diamond and platinum bar pin, and their father with a gift of gold.

Grandchildren present were Phil H., Milo, Eugene, Ben and Ruth Taxman and Mrs. I. Scrinopskie of El Dorado and Sherman Walters of Nashville. Mrs. J. M. Sigel of El Dorado is another out-of-town guest.

The Taxman-Milder wedding will take place at the Blackstone Tuesday evening, Rabbi Morris Taxon officiating. Only members of the two families will be present.

Bridal Luncheon.

A delightful bridal luncheon was given at the Fontenelle today by Mrs. Ross Towle in honor of Mrs. Miriam Patterson Boyce and Mr. Livingston Fairbanks of Chicago. The affair was very informal, just eight guests in all, with a low mound of bride's roses on the luncheon table for decoration.

For Miss Hayward.

With the recovery of Miss Pauline Hayward, the charming guest of Miss Marion Weller, the younger girls are planning to fill the week with affairs in her honor. Miss Weller will entertain two days this week, probably Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. The plans are not yet all made, but the parties may be afternoons of bridge, or perhaps just a knitting party, with numerous guests dropping in for a chat and a cup of tea with the young lady from Chicago. Miss Corinne Elliott was forced to postpone her party planned for Saturday, but will entertain this Saturday. This, too, will be very informal, as are all affairs these war days.

Military Reception.

Echoes of the military reception given in honor of Colonel and Mrs. Jacob Wuest at the quarters of Major and Mrs. R. C. Crockett at Fort Crook, Sunday, tell us that it was one of the prettiest affairs ever given at the post. The younger officers are especially enthusiastic over these afternoon teas, as they give one many opportunities for cozy chats with pretty girls. Aside from Colonel and Mrs. Wuest the guests from Fort Omaha included Major and Mrs. R. G. Crawford and Major and Mrs. W. J. O'Brien.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

H. D. Neely, John A. O'Keefe and O. H. Wirth are spending 10 days in the sand hill country on a hunting expedition.

CHILD'S TONGUE

BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

My Hat Diary

BY—Carita Herzog

Little lady across the aisle, How we all do admire your style; You, so pretty and so fair, Why! What a clever hat you wear. I know 'll people would love your hat.

I believe I'll describe it in my "Dairy Chat."

It's amusing. At the Rialto one evening this little girl sat right across from us and her hat was dear. It was large and floppy, the material being green felt (the crown and top of the brim checked and the under-part just plain green). A little of the plain formed a ring around the top and a satin button was in the center of that. I think it would be very becoming to almost any school girl, though.

Advice to the Love-Lorn

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

Jelly-Making.
Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Please tell me what I should do to thicken my grape jelly? I have both apple and grape mixed. My sugar supply is exhausted. I put up all my other fruits first and I am gather short for my jellies. Will you please put this in print as soon as possible, for I am waiting? Is gelatine good? ANXIOUS.

If your sugar is gone, you can get some more by going to the food administration's office in the Union Pacific building and securing a permit; or, you may use half fruit juice and half white corn syrup. There is no reason why the jelly should not jell if you cook it from 15 to 20 minutes before putting the sugar in and then boil it about five minutes after the sugar is dissolved. Don't use gelatine for jellies that are to be kept; it makes them tough.

Mother Knows.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a young girl of 16 and have many boy friends. Whenever I am at a dance they all want to take me home and I refuse all of them, for I think I'm quite young yet. Now, Miss Fairfax, do you think I did right or wrong by refusing the young men, and also, is it proper to go and dance with a stranger?

I also want to ask you these questions: Is it proper for me to go out riding at night? A few of the young men called me up asking me to go and I refused them because my mother thinks me too young to go out at night. Now, Miss Fairfax, what shall I do not to get the boys angry, for some of them are already? And also, is it proper for a young girl of my age to kiss a fellow goodby, or let the young man take you around the neck? I would not allow it and have made several of the young men feel sore. Miss Fairfax, do you think I did right? BLUE-EYED L.

Your mother is certainly right. As a general rule a girl can depend pretty much on her mother's judgment, as mother has been a girl herself and understands the ways of girls and boys from past experience. Ask her what you should do. Dance with no strangers, unless they are properly introduced and vouched for by some responsible older person. If the boys are angry at your refusal to disobey your mother they are not worth caring about. You are better off without friends than with those whose influence is bad. Do not allow the familiarities you mention from anyone. The boy who feels "sore" is not the kind whose company is of value to you. So many little girls like you seem to like an unhealthy atmosphere of false sentiment.

Too Young for Sentiment.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: I am a girl of 15 and I like a boy who is of my age very much. He is very nice and polite, and is it all right for me to have this boy take me home from our different high school parties, etc.? Is it all right for him to kiss me goodnight? There is another girl who also likes this boy. I think he likes her a little better than me. What can I do to make him like me the best? M. L.

If the boy wants to take you home it is perfectly proper for you to allow him to do so. It is not right nor proper for him to kiss you good-night. You are merely children as yet. Why not remember the fact and act like children? Forget whether the boy likes you or your little friend better and all go together. No doubt the boy likes her better because she is frank and girlish and does not try to act grown-up and sentimental. Dear little girl, don't lose the best part of your girlhood by trying to grow up before your time.

Canteen Work.

Dear Miss Fairfax, Omaha Bee: Is there any age limit attached to canteen work? Does the government pay your traveling expenses? To whom can I write for information? ANXIOUS.

For overseas canteen work the age limits are 25 to 35 years. For especially well qualified girls the Red Cross will pay expenses, or part of them. You can write to Mrs. W. T. Kountze, Nebraska State Red Cross, Omaha, and she will give you all the information in regard to Red Cross canteen work.

Women's Work in War Time

Mrs. Mallory Resigns.

Mrs. C. A. Mallory, hostess under auspices of the war camp community service at Fort Omaha, has resigned, and Mrs. Charles E. Johannes has been appointed in her place. Mrs. Johannes was formerly hostess of the Y. W. C. A. hut at Camp Pike and has been one of Mrs. Mallory's assistants at Fort Omaha for several weeks.

The resignation of Mrs. Mallory was accepted by the war camp community service with deep regret and is a most unwelcome bit of news to the soldiers stationed there. The hospitality of the Mallory home will still be open to the young men in khaki as heretofore, but Mrs. Mallory feels that her strength will not permit the regular journeys to the fort and the long hours spent there. A book which she is writing requires much of her time and strength.

Act in Patriotic League Show.

At an out-of-door meeting of directors of the Young Women's Hebrew association held in Elmwood park Sunday, it was decided to put on an act at the vaudeville show to be given by the War Camp Community Service soon, which is to be given as soon as the flu quarantine will permit. The act will be put in preparation at once and be ready for the tryouts among the first. The girls in this association are all affiliated with the Patriotic League.

This was not strictly a business meeting, as members took their lunches with them and made a picnic affair out of it. "The girls saw the notice of the vaudeville show in The Bee," said Miss Frances Range, director of the Patriotic clubs, "and invited me to be present. We had a fine time and I know the girls will have a good act. I hope others will volunteer at once."

Belgian Officials Thank Omaha.

Letters of appreciation for its efforts in promoting Belgian Baby day in Omaha have been received by Miss May Mahoney from Baron de Cartier, Belgian minister in Washington, and Major Leon Osterrieth, chief of the Belgian military mission.

The whole proceeds, a certified check for $15,323.09 on the Nebraska National bank, went out from Omaha recently.

"I can not adequately express my gratitude to you for your generous work, which has produced such a magnificent result. I shall transmit the check directly to her majesty, the queen of Belgium, who will know greatly appreciate your splendid work. Please convey my thanks to all those in Omaha who helped so splendidly. I hope to return some day to Omaha to see and thank you in person," wrote Major Osterrieth.

Prince Saves Drowning Man.

Seattle, Oct. 13.—Prince Axel of Denmark went fishing today in Lake Cowlitz, near here. Besides setting a basket of fish, the prince jumped into the water and pulled out Raymond Frazier, a Seattle banker, a member of the party, who had slipped off a floating log.
