Corn Market Slumps Under Renewal of Liquidation and Short Selling. Chicago, Oct. 16 .- Corn prices underwent a severe collapse today under re-newal of liquidation and short selling in a market almost bare of support. / The extreme weakness shown was ascribed largely to efforts at discounting develop-that the market was bombarded through-out the session by a flood of hearish rumors, which, although unconfirmed brought buying much of the time to a nearly complete halt. In addition to the unrestrained gossip concerning the German answer and connected events, the Montana Power 400 72% downward course of prices was plainly more or less affected by a statement that the government was not buying corn futures, and that the food administration contracts were confined to cash grain.
