

Feeding Operations; Pure Bred Stock in Big Demand.

production work for the governwith previous years. "In the small Holstein cattle sales have been remarkably successful. Dwight Holstein Sales company, states that the demand for Holstein cattle is constantly becoming greater, especially in western Nebraska, and that breeders are becoming more disof high producing parentage are bringing better prices than ever be-purchased 20 carloads of Holstein of Colorado.

Show a Big Gain Over

of all kinds handled by the South Omaha stock yards for September of this year, as compared with the same month in 1917, show a substantial increase in business in all departments except the horse and mule sales. Cattle show the largest post.

laborers for gov-

Wolf estimates the value of his stock at $5,000, on which he has nsured for $8,000. It was not great-

Some of the stock in Goldman's Pharmacy is thought to be

Fred C. Bronnett, manager of the fremont hotel at Wabash, Ind., for 10 years, and one of the oldest hotel men in the state, is visiting months he has visited nearly every city of importance in seven different states and has not seen a city which looks as prosperous as Omaha. He says the hotels of Omaha are far above the average and that the city in general is one of the most progressive he has seen.

ing for a location with Omaha as 33 years old, who died Tuesday morning at Nicholas-Senn hospital ernoon at the family residence.

Neb. He is survived by a wife and two sons, Carl and Glenn, all of entions which are to meet in Omaha in the near future with headquat-

Nebraska State Teachers' meetg. November 6, 7 and 8. Nebraska Implement Dealers' asociation, November 13, 14 and 15. Nebraska Lumber Dealers' association, January 19.

