Corn Prices Are Generally Influenced by Peace Rumors, Higher, With Good Demand; Oats Quarter to Half Up.

Omaha, October 17, 1818.

Today's grain receipts were again light with a total of but 98 cars. Wheat receipts were 12 cars, corn, 39 cars; oats, 42 cars; rye 1 car, and barley 4 cars. Shipments were 28 cars of wheat, 83 cars of corn, 62 cars of oats, 3 cars of rye and 19 cars of barley.

Corn prices ranged from 3 cents higher to 3 cents lower, with the offerings generally selling at an advance. About the only grades going at a decline were No. 4 white and No. 4 mixed. There was a very good demand in evidence.

Oats were 4c to 4c higher, the bulk from interior points. Oats were 4c to 4c higher, the bulk which was in No. 3 white selling 4c over the bulk in this grade yesterday. over the bulk in this grade yesterday.

This performance was repeated at in-tervals during the rest of the day, with the downturns becoming somewhat more pronounced after owing in a measure to assertions that the German retreat suggested a rout. Gossip that Turkey would conclude a separate peace tended also to stimulate selling at the last. Hedging pressure operated to keep the oats market easy most of the day.

Lower quotations on hogs sent provisions sharply down grade. Support was acking until the market as a whole came within a fraction of the minimum level.
