CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS. Sentiment Bullish in Corn Pit; Offerings Scarce Except on Bulges. Chicago, Oct. 23.-Bullish sentiment, engendered by developments in the war lay as to corn, and there was a sharp advance in prices. Closing figures were strong, 3%c to 4%c net higher, with November $1.27% to $1.27%, and December $1.24 to $1.27%, and December $1.24 to $1.24%. Oats finished %c to 1%c up and provisions off 17c to 50c.

Not only were corn futures at no time lower than yesterday's close, but the lates quotations were virtually at the topmost level reached. The dominating influence continued throughout the session to be the progress of diplomatic and military events, and the apparent lack of any basis therein which would favor the bear side of the market. Offerings were scarce ex-owing largely to weakness in the hog mar-ket and to a lull in cash demand. The biggest breaks were in the value of lard.
