NO. 14. NO. 14.

A real ranch and priced worth the money: 5,126 acres. 8 miles to good town on main line of Union Pacific; joins the Gov. Keith Neville ranch on the west, all fenced with each section fenced separate; 3 sets of improvements; good ranch house to live in; water piped into house; cattle sheds, horse stables, etc. Two tenant houses and barns; 6 wells and mills; two good cisterns, plenty of pure water, world's of bite plenty of pure water, world's of blue stem buffalo grass. 400 acres farmed and in crops this year; 500 acres more, which lays in valleys, would make ex-cellent farm land. Valleys are of a black sand soil, all grassed and will run black sand soil, all grassed and will run 1,000 cattle. When I say sandy, don't think of this as that old blow sand. I can frankly say, this is the best sand hill portion of Nebraska.

If you are tecking for a good ranch, where all kinds of crops will grow, that will take care of several hundred stock, where it is not too deep to water, that is not a long ways from town, a good rond all the way, cheap in price and something that will more than double in value in the next few years; where you value in the next few years; where you can make money, do it easier than any other place on earth, come look at this. You cannot buy it without seeing it, and if interested don't write but come and see the crops and grass that are now on this. Price, $15 per acre. Terms, $5,000 cash, $10,000 more on April 1, $5,000 on July 1. Balance, $5,000 per year If this ranch is too large for one man, it can be cut up into 3 smaller less, or if a man wants only 1 or 2 sections.
