Timothy Manahan, or "Wild Tim" as he was affectionately called by his friends, had a reputation for efficiency and safety. He earned the nickname because he was frequently given orders by train despatchers "run wild," and never failed to get through safely and bring his train in one time. At the time of his death he was living at Oklahoma City. He was 67 years old. He is survived by his widow and one son. Frank, of Cleveland, O.

GRAIN MARKET

Omaha, October 29, 1918. Omana, October 29, 1918.

The cash grain market continued narrow, with arrivals of wheat 56 pars, 27 cars of corn, 25 cars of oats, 4 cars of rye and 5 cars of barley.

Corn prices generally ranged from unchanged to it or it higher, with a good demand for the offerings. Some of the off grades sold lower than yesterday, but he bulk was about unchanged.

Oats were 1 %c to 1 %c off from the cult of the sales yesterday. Rye prices were unchanged and barley nchanged to 2c lower. What prices were virtually unchanged, though a few cars yesterday of No. 2 hard brought 4c high-er than the top in this grade today. OMAHA GRAIN MOVEMENT.

New York, Oct. 29.-The trend of to-ay's stock market was downward in the and number of issues traded in.

Various reasons were assigned for the change from the activity of the previous session, chief of which were the further calling of bank loans and uncertainty re-sarding the dividend on United States Steel, which proved well founded. Steel was under the closest scrutiny for some hint of the action of the directors, its early heaviness contributing largely to the backwardness of the general list. oint, after recording an extreme reversal
