

CRAIG GENERAL PASSENGER AGENT OF U. P. Traffic Manager Munroe Announces Heads of Various Departments of Over-land System.

J. A. Munroe, traffic manager of the railroads that go to make up the Union Pacific group, announces the names of the heads of the passenger and freight departments. The appointments are effective November 1, and are approved by Federal Director Calvin. With the exception of one man, all of the appointments have for a long time been connected with the official family.

A. L. Craig, now general passenger agent of the Chicago Great Western, is the exception. He becomes general passenger agent of the Union Pacific and the St. Joe & Grand Island.

Mr. Craig was born in St. Paul, Minn., in 1851. His railroad career started in 1880 as a roadman with a surveying crew on the Northern Pacific. From 1881 to 1888 he was a clerk in the office of the auditor of the Northern Pacific. From 1888 to 1891 he was chief clerk in the general passenger and ticket office; 1891 to 1900, assistant general ticket agent; 1901, became assistant general passenger and ticket agent; 1901 to 1906, general passenger agent of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation company; 1906 to 1907, passenger traffic manager, Great Northern; 1907 to 1909, general passenger agent of the same road and from 1909 to the present time, general passenger agent of the Chicago Great Western. At this time he is also a member of the advertising committee of the western railroads.

C. J. Lane continues as general freight agent of the Union Pacific, with jurisdiction of the affairs of the St. Joe & Grand Island. His assistants are H. G. Krail, Kansas City; H. B. Choate, Denver; C. W. Axtell, W. H. Garrett, G. W. Hamilton, Omaha.

W. H. Murray, present assistant general passenger agent, Omaha, retains his title. In Denver, Warren K. Condit will continue as assistant general passenger agent, with S. E. Stohr holding a similar title in St. Joseph.

George L. Alley continues as general baggage agent, his authority extending over the Union Pacific, the Oregon Short Line and the St. Joe & Grand Island.

The scope of authority of R. A. Smith, colonization agent, is broadened, he becoming supervisor of agriculture, with offices in Omaha.

Friday morning the newly appointed officials will enter upon the discharge of their respective duties.

Mysterious Ashes Worry Police on South Side

Alex McCauliffe was arrested for dumping ashes on a public highway and his case was put over until November 9.

McCauliffe was in the employ of the Reed Transfer company and dumped the ashes he was hauling on Dahlman boulevard, between Thirty-first and G streets. According to the police the "ashes" consisted largely of whisky bottles. The question now raised is "Where did the ashes come from?"

Hallowe'en Unusually Quiet Night in Omaha

Red Cross Makes Plea for Russian Prisoners Held in Teuton Camps

Copenhagen, Oct. 31.—The Copenhagen office of the Moscow prisoners' war relief committee asks the Associated Press to convey to America an appeal in behalf of more than 2,000,000 Russian prisoners in Germany and Austria who appear to have been generally forgotten. At least 200,000 of the prisoners are ill and death announcements reach the Copenhagen committee daily literally in bundles.

Similar committees, formerly working in London, Paris, The Hague and Berne, have been forced to abandon their work owing to difficulties of obtaining food for the prisoners.

The funds of the Copenhagen committee are nearing exhaustion and the committee cannot send more than 20,000 parcels monthly. The committee declares that unless these funds are received even this trifling relief must end.

Seascout Work to Be Started Here by Boys' Organization

Seascouting will be established in Omaha by the decision of the executive committee of the Omaha Boy Scouts, which met Thursday evening at headquarters. The plan is to try out seascouting first on a small scale, and enlarge the number of crews as the work progresses.

One crew of nine members will be formed of first-class scouts who have merit badges in life saving and swimming. The crews will be selected by competitive examination.

The first work of seascouting is done on land. It consists in learning the parts of a ship and theory in seamanship. When the scouts are ready to cruise, the Missouri river at Child's Point where the Boy Scout camp is to be established, will be used.

A committee on seascouting was appointed by the executive committee consisting of R. S. Flower, J. W. Welsh and W. E. Rhoades. The committee also passed a resolution to incorporate the Omaha Boy Scouts so that the council may take effective action in a legal way to procure Wiley's tract for a permanent week-end camp.

Sergeant Hugh Robinson in City on Short Furlough

Sergt. Hugh Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Robinson of this city, is home on a short furlough before going over seas.

Sergeant Robinson was one of Omaha's prominent young attorneys when the United States entered the war and when the call came he enlisted in the medical department and was assigned to the Thirtieth Field artillery, Camp Cody. He was slated to go abroad last January, but his arm was broken just about the time he was to leave so he was detained at home.

Accommodating Central City Man Gives His Cash Away

"Please Mr. Policeman get me back my money, it's all I had," cried Eric Swenson of Central City, Thursday night to Desk Sergeant Rose.

Eric then proceeded to tell the sergeant that he was standing on the corner of Sixteenth and Douglas looking at the tall buildings when a woman told him she had lost her pocketbook.

She inquired what Eric was doing, learned that he was on his way to Minneapolis and told him that she was going to Minneapolis to, but that she needed some money to buy a few things with. Eric said he had only two $50 Liberty bonds and $40 in cash.

She told him it was plenty and that if he would allow her to use it for a few moments she would return it to him. She told him to stand right there.

Eric was still standing in the same spot when the store closed and he was directed by two employees to put his case before the police.

Orville Bass Young, Geneva Man, Is Dead

Orville E. Bass, 21, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Bass of Geneva, died yesterday morning at the Methodist hospital of pneumonia following influenza. He was in the employ of the United States National bank.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at Stack & Falconer's chapel, conducted by Dr. Austin of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, assisted by Dr. Charles Baer, pastor of Hanscom Park church, formerly of the young man's home church at Geneva.

Services will be held at Geneva November 2, where the body will be taken for burial.

Civilians May Enter New Officers' Camp in Fremont, California

A new officers training camp is to be opened December 1 at Camp Fremont, Cal., and Capt. G. I. Burre, U. S. A., is in Omaha in charge of selecting candidates.

Nebraska will be permitted to send 250 men. All registrants between 18 and 45 years are eligible, except men who have been given deferred classification because of industry claims. Men with deferred classification because of dependents will be admitted and, if they fail to make a commission, they will be permitted to return to civilian life.

The course is for two months and successful candidates will be given commissions in the U. S. Infantry. Transportation charges will be paid for all candidates.

Captain Burre has headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce.

PRODUCE DEALER GAINS 40 POUNDS IN PAST 60 DAYS

"I Never Spent Money to Better Advantage," He Says After Taking Tanlac.

Michael O'Brien, produce dealer at 415 North 15th street and a resident of Omaha for thirty-five years, is now an ardent champion of Tanlac.

"It may sound unreasonable," said Mr. O'Brien while in Sherman & McConnell's drug store, recently, "and some people who don't know me may not believe it, but I have actually gained forty pounds in the past sixty days by taking this Tanlac. I had fallen off as a result of a bad stomach and other troubles until I was amazingly thin. When I began taking Tanlac I weighed only one hundred and twenty-five pounds and I now weigh one hundred and sixty-five. About a year and a half ago I began suffering from stomach trouble. I could eat nothing scarcely and had a pain in and about my stomach all the time, whether I ate or not. I was badly constipated, had frequent headaches and was so dizzy at times I would have to sit down to keep from falling. I hardly had strength and energy to look after my business and was all tired out before the day was over. My nerves were so upset that I could hardly sleep and I have walked the floor many a night, never getting any rest.

"Well, to make a long story short, I was almost completely knocked out and ready to grab anything there was a chance of getting any benefit from. So I made up my mind to try Tanlac and see if it would help me like others said it had, and now I'm ready to say I have never spent money to better advantage. I never felt much improvement, however, until I was well onto my third bottle. Then my appetite came with a rush and I could eat a man's meal, and have been at it ever since. I have taken six bottles now and have not only been relieved of all pain and misery, but have regained all my lost weight—forty pounds. I can lay down at night now and sleep like a child and work hard all day at my business without feeling tired except in the natural way. I am full of energy and go all the time now and really feel better than I have in a long time. I am glad to have everybody know what Tanlac has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Omaha by all Sherman & McConnell Drug Company's stores, Harvard Pharmacy and West End Pharmacy under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative. Also Forrest and Meany Drug Company in South Omaha and the leading druggist in each city and town throughout the state of Nebraska.—Adv.

South Siders Will Attend Foot Ball Game at Lincoln

Every year for some time it has been the custom for a party of about 100 or 150 stock yards men and their wives to visit the school of agriculture of the University of Nebraska at Lincoln in the fall and attend the annual big foot ball game at that time. The event this year is planned for November 23. The game, which will be one of the big events of the day, will be between the University of Nebraska and Northwestern university teams.

The Omaha party will be the guests of the agricultural school for this trip. The students of the university will make a return visit to Omaha some time in February, at the close of the winter term of school, when they will be the guests of the men at the yards and their wives. About 300 or 400 students usually visit Omaha on these trips.

German Aviators Find Joy in Bombing Hospital

Behind the merican Lines, Oct. 31.—Bombed again and again by German aviators and suffering casualties in dead and wounded, the American hospital unit formerly located at Jovy under the command of Major Charles R. McCoy, Patterson, N. J., has established itself in the environs of Chateau Thierry and recently served again as the attraction for visiting German air vandals.

The new location of the hospital is situated amid the desolation wrought by the Germans during their retreat from the Marne. Ruined houses, wrecked public buildings and churches mark the neighborhood.

Wilson & Co. FOOD PRODUCTS. A good reputation is as vital to a business as to an individual. ANY successful business rests upon the good name it has with the public. The policy of Wilson & Co. from its inception has been to conduct its business on golden rule principles. There is a moral as well as a financial responsibility connected with the preparation of food products. The public is rightfully critical, and a company such as ours must at all times keep this moral responsibility in mind. Unless this is done there can be no permanent success. Our good name rests upon public opinion—upon your opinion. You form your opinion of this company and its products by the satisfaction you get from the products themselves. It is your right to know that your confidence in our good name and your dependence upon the Wilson label will always be appreciated to the fullest extent. The Wilson Label Protects Your Table. We adopted the above "slogan" because it tells in six words the full meaning of the Wilson V-shaped label. Too much importance cannot be attached to the value of a distinctive label to the consumer. It is a simple, sure means of identification. It guides the purchaser. It puts the manufacturer on record, to stand or fall on the quality of his products. The consumer will either accept or reject by the label, as he or she comes to know labels and their value. When you buy meats or other food products bearing our label you are certainly entitled to know that you are being treated fairly and squarely and that the goods you buy are what we have led you to expect them to be.
