New York, Nov. 2.—With United States Steel selling down almost to par, Mexican Petroleum, Royal Dutch and Texas Co., reacting 4 to 10, and the representative war group down 1 to 3 points, today's brief, but busy session of the stock market reflected a further division of speculative sentiment. Rails, shippings, coppers and other shares, bearing little relation to peace or war, broke 1 to 3 points.

Corn Declines as Result of Bearish Character of War Developments. Chicago, Nov. 2.—Corn averaged lower today, chiefly as a result of the bearish character of war developments. Lack of support, except from shorts. formed the principal feature of the corn market throughout the session. Attention remained focused almost entirely on European advices and it was a generally accepted opinion that the current news furnished no immediate incentive to would-be buyers, aside from those who had profits already in hand or who wished to even up for the week-end. Bears derived advantage also from the fact that the movement of the new crop ditions were regarded as favorable for curing and handling the grain. Government bidding put strength into The bids, however, were out of line with the views of holders, and did not result in any important transactions. Provisions sagged a little with corn and hogs. Western receipts of hogs for the week were considerably larger than a year ago, but so too were shipments of hard and meats.
