

MUNY COAL YARD TO BE PROBED AT MONDAY MEETING

Commissioner Ure Contends Yard Is Not Necessary Under the Government's Regulations.

The municipal coal situation is to be thrashed out at a public meeting in the city council chamber Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The coal dealers will be there and Commissioner Butler looks for a big delegation to attend and defend the coal yard.

Commissioner Ure, who holds that the many coal yards is a superfluous and useless institution at present, points out that there is no such thing in existence as a "municipal coal yard."

"They have no yard," he says, "but unload their cars on the street crossings. Moreover at the present time, when the government is appealing to all dealers in coal to store great quantities during the summer the city coal enterprise has done nothing in the way of storing coal. They simply sell coal as it is received, right from the car."

"I know very well that it is not the popular thing to oppose the government coal regulations. The price of coal now is regulated by the government which sees to it that a ton of coal of a specified kind is sold at a just price no matter to whom it is sold. If a person receives coal which he doesn't consider up to specified standard or full weight, he simply appeals to the coal administrator who will investigate the charge. The people are fully protected and guaranteed full money's worth no matter from whom they buy coal."

"Adam and Eve on a Raft" May Be Served Once More

Here is more joy for the individual who enjoys good living, for poached eggs on toast may be had or the asking, either at home, or at the hotels and public eating houses.

Under the provisions of former rulings of the food administration, in the interest of food conservation, there was an elimination of poached eggs on toast. Now the food administration, owing to the increased supply of flour and wheat products holds that it is the legal and proper thing to serve an order of toast and eggs.

United Workmen Lodge Files Answer in Sharpe Action

The grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Nebraska, and the supreme lodge of the organization, defendants in an action brought by Bernette Sharpe of Goehner, Neb., have filed an answer in district court, wherein they deny obligations to pay $2,000 on the death of Marion R. Sharpe. The defendants claim they are unable to determine whether Sharpe is dead or alive, and that if he died in Los Angeles, the action of plaintiff should be held as irregular.

Closing Order Lifted In Norfolk Saturday

Norfolk, Neb., Nov. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—The ban on closing because of influenza went off here Saturday, although the number of cases is around 90. Guy Moore, a Northwestern brakeman, died from influenza Friday night, making the 11th death here during the epidemic. The health board depends on a strict quarantine.

Goodfellowship Club Of Chamber Will Hold Joy Meeting Monday

The Goodfellowship committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which sprang into prominence immediately after its organization last spring will hold its first annual jollification meeting Monday night at 6:30 in the dining hall of the Chamber of Commerce. The 130 members and a few invited guests will be present.

"Eats" and a prize for every goodfellow attending will be the big feature of the evening, but the program of "stunts," short—very short—addresses and musical numbers will add to the general enjoyment. The arrangement committee, composed of R. C. McIntosh, C. O. Hammock and Manager J. M. Cilian have sought the aid of retailers and wholesalers and the city to provide the prizes for the meeting. Everything from smoking tobacco to a 5-gallon can of motor oil has already been procured.

H. O. Wilhelm is chairman of this committee and J. L. Ferico will preside.

Defense Council Asks Early Shipment of Holiday Gifts

General Agent Warner of the American Railway Express company is in receipt of a circular from the Council of National Defense in which it says:

"Point out to the public that our transportation facilities are relatively inelastic and are already overburdened with essential war business. Christmas packages must not be allowed to congest the transportation facilities during the late fall.

"In addition to a general appeal on behalf of sending early, the following methods will be useful:

1. "A number of state councils have by resolution set December 5 as the date after which no Christmas gifts should be mailed or expressed.

2. "The public should be told not to send bulky articles by express, freight or mail under any circumstances."

Great care in the marking and packing of shipments should be exercised and all old marks should be eliminated.

Double Sugar Portions Served at Restaurants

People who eat their meals at hotels and restaurants will be pleased to learn that the food administration has increased their sugar allowance. In fact, the sugar allowance has been doubled. The announcement of the increase in the sugar allowance came through Food Administrator Wattles and by Harry L. Keen, chairman of the hotel and restaurant committee, is being sent broadcast through the state.

Formerly persons eating at hotels and restaurants were allowed one teaspoonful of sugar each for tea, or coffee. From this date the allowance is one-half ounce and is equivalent to about two teaspoons of sugar. Under the new ruling a portion of the sugar may be used for sweetening tea, or coffee, or it may be used on cereals, or fruit. Previously if patrons of the eating houses took their sugar for tea, or coffee they were not permitted to use it for any other purpose.

Union Pacific Passenger Agent Expected Next Week

A. L. Craig, recently appointed general passenger agent of the Union Pacific is expected to arrive from Chicago Monday and immediately take charge of the affairs of the office. W. F. Sweesy, Pioneer of Omaha, Passes Away Friday

William S. Sweesy, pioneer, and one of the builders of Omaha, died Friday after an illness of two days, aged 90 years.

Mr. Sweesy was born in New Jersey and came to Omaha by boat in 1856. With his brother-in-law,

Aaron Root, he built the Tremont hotel on Douglas street and in 1866, he bought of A. J. Poppleton and J. M. Woolworth a tract of 22 acres of land west and south of where Creighton university now stands.

In 1867 he was made registrar of the land office, which office he held for four years, and in 1876 he was appointed United States marshal of Wyoming, holding the office for three years. In later years he built the Brunswick hotel, now a part of the Rome, and a number of residences.

He is survived by two sons, Frank Sweesy, an editor in Louisville, and Charles Clinton Sweesy, a steamboat captain who is now living on the South Side.

We've Designated Monday As The Best Time To Buy Your WINTER COAT

Offering You Three Specially Priced Groups

PROBABLY never before was there quite so much advantage in buying women's coats early in the season. For their first selling, manufacturers had many all-wool materials that were obtainable only in limited quantities; so later models have to be made of less desirable materials. Now, with the prices of coating materials continually advancing, we consider ourselves most fortunate to be able to offer such good looking, dependable garments as these for Monday, at such extremely low prices, quality considered. There are scores of smart models from which to make selection—every one possessing those distinctive characteristics so noticeable in Burgess-Nash ready-to-wear.

At $29⁵⁰ At $45 At $65

Warm practical winter coats, full lined, novelty belts and pockets, plain or seamed collars, wide flaring styles. Materials are plush, pom pom, kersey, tweed and velour. Shades are taupe, reindeer, brown, navy, burgundy and black.

Broadcloth, burella, chevot, kersey and plush in big sweeping styles, carefully made. Well lined and tastefully trimmed, brown, green, taupe, burgundy, navy and black. Good size range.

Handsome coats of silvertone mixtures, velour, broadcloth, burella in high waisted and belted models, full silk lined in reindeer, navy, taupe, burgundy and brown, with racoon, Hudson seal and nutria collars.

Santa Claus Is Victor

The National Council of Defense has Decreed that Children shall have toys at Christmas, but toy buying must be done early

THAT Santa Claus will live forever is just as sure as that the war will be won by the United States and our Allies.

The Council of Defense recognizes Santa Claus' business as an essential industry, but, like everybody else in this great land, he must conform to certain rules and restrictions that make his business a help toward winning the war—which he will surely do by keeping alive the SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS.

Following out the spirit of the above, our
