

LOBECK RECORD IN CONGRESS IS RIDDLED

FORMER MAYOR DAHLMAN AGAIN IN THE ARENA

CONDITIONS FOR ARMISTICE ARE MADE BY ALLIES

and does not pay his bills. I was in district court here when Mr. Lindquist sued him on an unpaid note. Everybody in that court room was ashamed of their congressman.

sent personal telegrams to this state, asking for the re-election of Lobeck and Neville. Vote the way we are shooting. The people in Europe won't understand it if we have a republican congress and a democratic president."

ed. It caused no excitement. It is generally assumed that the German government will receive the armistice terms through Washington as its request was received in that way. The Austrian case does not form a precedent as the appeal to Washington was supplemented after the collapse of the Austrians by a direct application to General Diaz, the Italian commander. Unless the situation of the German armies forces similar action on the western front however, it is assumed here that the German case is being handled through diplomatic channels. The present British civil government claims absolute authority over the army.

One Lobeck Bill.
"Has Lobeck ever been identified with any important legislation. Did you ever hear of a Lobeck bill in congress except the one for an embargo on munitions when we were on the verge of war? If that bill had gone through, we might be talking about the surrender of the allies now instead of the surrender of Germany."

Mr. Dahلمان declared that he understood what the flag stood for and asserted that the high seas of the world had been open for more than 100 years to every man, woman and child until Germany challenged that right.

Leaves It to Foch.
One feature of the Austrian surrender conditions, which is thought here to have been duplicated in the German terms, is the entrusting to Marshal Foch of the carrying out of the programs of demobilization and disarmament.

"We have all heard of Jefferis, because he is in fact a big man, a man of whom we would all be proud to have as our congressman. He will put Omaha on the map when he gets to congress. It will be serving our best interests to send a big man to congress. Lobeck could consistently be turned down on the grounds that he has not been friendly to the president."

Nobody Cheers Lobeck.
"Then he echoed the democratic campaign lines, that it was essential to the peace and happiness of the world that a democratic congress should sit at Washington, because the president wishes it to be thus."

Attention already is being given here to the next phase after Germany ceases fighting. Officials have not lost sight of the fact that armistices are only stepping stones to the permanent settlement of all the issues of the war. Political questions, boundaries, even commercial rights and privileges all remain to be defined.

"Look up the history of the McNamara resolution. Omaha wants a congressman who will do his own thinking. If anybody intends to vote for Lobeck on account of his secretary, Jim Hanley, let me state that Hanley has been offered a $5,000 government job and Lobeck would not have Hanley to help him even if he should be re-elected."

Then something awful happened. When Dahلمان said "Charley Lobeck is a faithful servant," there was not one ripple of applause. The crowd cheered in reference to the flag and to America's brave men at the front, but they did not have a cheer for the "messenger boy" congressman. It was a perplexing situation from a democratic standpoint.

Must Evacuate.
An attempt to apply the lessons of the Austrian armistice to Germany's situation brings out several points upon which military men passed their forecast of the German terms. For one thing, it is regarded as certain that complete evacuation of Alsace-Lorraine will be insisted upon as well as the occupation of the Rhine fortresses by allied garrisons. Surrender of the German submarines and a substantial part of the high seas fleet and the occupation of land defenses that protect German naval bases also is implied.

Shall People Govern?
"The people are realizing that they have a right to express themselves by voice and the ballot," Albert W. Jefferis, congressional candidate, stated. "The president seeks to adjourn republican politics. The government belongs to the people, to the high and the lowly. The great question tonight is, shall the people govern or shall we elect someone to tell us what to do? If it had not been for the loyalty and devotion of republicans in congress, I don't know what would have happened to Wilson's war program. When this war council shall be over—and it is going to be over soon—don't let them fool you by saying that the president will be embarrassed by having republicans in the congress. Who dares to question the loyalty of patriots who follow in the political footsteps of Roosevelt, Taft, McKinley, Lincoln and Grant."

He stood by the president in all of his measures," was another statement Dahلمان endeavored to make his hearers believe, but many shook their heads reminiscently.

Victors Make Terms.
Probably the same purpose will be served by the occupying forces of the victors. The present British civil government claims absolute authority over the army.

One-Man Power Doomed.
"The situation of the democratic party is indeed a precarious one and they may well shed crocodile tears over impending defeat. The day of a one-man power is over in this country, as it is over in Europe."

Needs Demo Congress.
Omaha's former mayor then declared that the president needs a democratic congress so that he may give to the world "these rights and privileges."

Probably the same purpose will be served by the occupying forces of the victors.

Democracy Hard Pressed.
"The democrats are in hard straight when they have to make an appeal for their present bunch on the pretext that they are backing the president. But I don't believe that the people will stand any longer for this domination."

On the eve of the election certain republican spokesmen have injected partisan politics into the campaign, and have sought to cast reflections upon the president by charging him with bringing in partisanship at this late hour," was a startling bit of news offered by Mr. Dunn when he appeared in the role of courage promoter.

Probably the same purpose will be served by the occupying forces of the victors.

Call for 35,000 Men in Limited Service For Special Posts

Washington, Nov. 4.—A drive to secure 35,000 volunteers from limited service men, urgently needed to fill special posts in the army was begun today by the department of labor's employment service at the request of the War department. The men are wanted for duty in this country, and will be used to release more active men for service overseas.

Only class 1-A registrants certified for limited service will be taken.

many probably without the whole vast mechanism of war which it carried into France and Belgium. All the big guns, tanks and aircraft under the Austrian precedent, would be concentrated and left under the direct control of the allied and American armies.
It was pointed out, however, that since Germany is the last of the central powers, when she surrenders there will be no need to provide for the employment of her military equipment by Marshal Foch. There will be no one left against whom to turn the guns. The terms for Germany, therefore, probably will show that variation from the Austrian conditions.

Both in the United States and in the allied countries, it is said, the necessity is recognized of setting in motion the wheels of peace-time industry at the earliest possible moment in order to afford employment and support to the millions of discharged soldiers. This is expected to hasten the peace conference once the Germans surrender. It is recalled that whereas the armistice or protocol which stopped the Spanish-American war was signed on August 12, 1898, it provided in its terms for a meeting of the peace plenipotentiaries in Paris before October 1, following. The purpose was to assemble the conferences at the earliest practical moment.

"Usco" the Rubber Heel Science Perfected

The Ordinary Rubber Heel - Set with Nails Often Pulls Loose and Opens at the Joint

The "Usco" Rubber Heel - Invisible Joint Never Pulls Loose

It takes the repair man almost as much time and trouble to put on old-style, rubber heels as for a little girl to get ready for a party. He can put on a pair of "Usco" rubber heels in about as little time as it takes brother "Reddy" to get into the old swimmin' hole.
The old-style, flat rubber heel is set on with rubber-cement and nails. It soon gaps around the edges, and gets frizzled and floppy.
The "Usco" rubber heel is anchored for keeps with a few little nails and it takes a spy glass to find the joint. Furthermore the joints never gap.
