TWO LINAKER GUN CORPS. BOYS IN MARINE

Elder Wins Three Medals for Marksmanship, While Younger Has Gone Over Top Eight Times.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Linaker, 3808 Charles street, are proud of their two sons, William and Edward Linaker, both of whom are United States marines seeing service in

The eldest of the Linaker boys enlisted at the Omaha marine corps office three days after war was declared. He has won three medals for marksmanship and was, prior to going overseas, an instructor on the now serving with the 136th United States Marine Anti-aircraft battalion, stationed at naval base No. 29. Edward W. Lmaker, the younger of the two boys, in order that he might join the marines, falsified his age and was in training two months | ception of the light field pieces. before he became 18 years of age.

Upon the completion of his recruit training at Paris Island, he refused training at Paris Island, he refused sioned officers' school as he was determined to "beat his brother" over, and his request for immediate transfer to an overseas unit was granted He arrived overseas in May of this year and became a member of the Seventy-ninth company, Sixth Regiment, United States marines. He has been "over the top" eight times and was in the engagements, in which the marines participated at Belleau Wood, Chateau Thierry and Soissons. He was wounded three times at Chateau Thierry, receiving three shrapnel wounds, one in the foot and two in the leg. In the last letter received by his parents he states that he is rapidly recovering from his wounds at the Nebraska Base hospital No. 49, in France.

Two American Airmen Rescued After Landing

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Nov. 6 .- (By the Associated Press.)-A daring exploit by two American aerial observers, Lt, William Erwin of Chicago, and Lieutenant Bocum, the first named the only American observation ace, was revealed today when the advancing infantry came upon them holding off Germans with the machine guns of their airplane. The aviators and their machines were rescued.

Erwin and Bocum flew over Sedan yesterday and fired on the troops there. They were forced to land on the German side of the line owing to engine trouble. The to disclose any information about landing was made near two machine gun nests, which the American airmen silenced. Then they fought off their would-be captors throughout the night and were still defending themselves tenaciously near Stenay when the infantry advanced and

Must Come to Omaha to Be Inducted Into Marine Corps

Men who live in Nebraska and southern Iowa must come to Omaha if they wish voluntary induction into the United States marine corps. Sergt. Ralph R. Miller, in charge of the Omaha marine corps mobilization station said:

Out-of-town men must come Omaha to pass the physical examinations. The Omaha station is the only one in the state and this station can accept men from any part of this state and from southern Iowa. Men living in the extreme southern part of Nebraska and the state of Kansas can take the required examinations at the marine station in Kansas City. Out-of-town men must pay own expenses to the mobilization station when they come to the same for physical examination. The draft boards furnish transportation and subsist ence when the man is accepted and his induction into the
