State Elections

ARIZONA.

Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 6.-With returns incomplete in each county reporting the election contest for-governor between T. E. Campbell, republican, and Fred T. Colter, democrat, is in doubt. Campbell apparently has a slight lead. Representative Carl Hayden, democrat, has been returned to congress by a large majority and indications are that the other democratic nominees have been elected. Owing to the remoteness of some of the polling places, it will be several days before the result of the governorship is determined.

COLORADO.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 6.-Returns from outlying precincts received today cut the lead of Lawrence C. Phipps and Oliver H. Shoup, re-publican candidates for United States senator and governor, respectively, but with only 315 precincts missing out of 1,532 in the state, and those mostly in sparsely that both were certain of election by substantial pluralities. KANSAS.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 6. - State morning stated that the democrats concede the election of the entire republican ticket-senator, congressception of Congressman Ayers of the Eighth district. The vote in that district still is considered in cratic state ticket. doubt by Chairman Murphy.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 5.-John P. Haswell, chairman of the republican combe, republican, and election of state campaign committee, tonight Senator Charles L. McNary, repubstate campaign committee, tonight issued a statement saying that on lican, to the United States senatorthe "basis of returns received up to ship for the long term seemed certhe present" B. L. Bruner would have a majority of 4,565 over A. O. Stanley, democrat, for the United States senate. A short time previously Governor Stanley said that 81 counties out of 120 gave him a lead of more than 30,000 and asserted that if the same ratio was maintained in districts not heard from he would win by not less than 20,000.

MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Nov. 5.-The democrats swept the city in today's congressional election returns. Representatives Charles P. Coady and J Charles Linthicum, whose districts lie entirely in Baltimore, win by largely increased pluralties.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, Nov. 6 .- The democrats captured a seat in the United State enate from Massachusetts yesterday, when former Governor David I. Walsh was elected by a plurality of 18,908 over Senator John W. Weeks. The vote of the state com-

MISSOURI.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 6.-Incom plete returns received tonight indicate the election of Seldon P. Spencer, republican, by a plurality of 20,000 votes over former Gov. Joseph W. Folk to fill the unexpired term of the late United States sSenator Stone, the election of Speaker Champ Clark who was reported defeated last midnight, by a majority of 1,000 over his republican opponent, and the defeat of the statewide prohibition amendment by at least 10,000.

Gentry, republican, apparently is elected congressman from the Eighth district.
