

NEVILLE SENDS BEST REGARDS TO M'KELVIE

"War Governor" Writes Letter to Successor, in Which He Takes His Defeat Gracefully.

From a Staff Correspondent.
Lincoln, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—With the smoke of battle still over the battleground, democrats at the state house are taking their defeat in a sportsmanlike manner. Governor Neville has shown himself to be a good loser and today sent to his opponent the following characteristic letter of congratulations:
"Dear Mac: Shortly after the returns began to come in, I was seized with a suspicion which quickly grew into a conviction, that congratulations were very much in order. I therefore hasten to tender my heartiest congratulations upon your election as governor of Nebraska.
"Defeated candidates, like the prizefighters of old, should be well provided with alibis. I have none. I am not even disturbed by the thought that the ship of state is going headlong on the rocks. In my last year at college, we had the greatest foot ball team the institution had ever enjoyed. None of us who were leaving thought that it could ever be equalled. The next year they had a better one.
"I have always been impressed with the philosophy that life is just one thing after another.
"With best wishes for a successful administration, I am (the dear old State Journal to the contrary notwithstanding), your war governor.
"KEITH NEVILLE."
Smith Good Loser.

State Auditor Smith, who went up against the congressional game and ran into the McLaughlin buzz saw, was smiling just as if being defeated for congress was really a pleasure. The auditor has a mighty good newspaper sense out at his home in Seward and he will probably go back there and wield the editorial pen and feel more at home anyway than he would down in Washington.

Secretary of State Charlie Pool, who got an idea that the time had come when Uncle Mose Kinkaid could be relegated to private life, came out of it when the returns from the back precincts began coming in and while he did not acknowledge his idea before election that he could beat Kinkaid, was a pretty hum steer, he admits it now and probably, like the auditor, will go back to the newspaper game when his term as secretary of state has expired.

Cold Outlook.
Land Commissioner Shumway is in Colorado, where he went to attend the funeral of his son-in-law, but is expected back in a few days.

With no legislative jobs to fall back on to carry them through a cold winter, employees at the state house are looking upon life very seriously. With the whole state houses and every department republican, the lonesome air which has characterized Railway Commissioners Hall and Taylor will be transferred to their colleague, Commissioner Wilson, with a double effect. Mr. Wilson will be the only democrat holding an elective office in the state house after January.

Six Republicans from Nebraska in Congress, Lincoln Star Declares

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—Incomplete returns compiled by the Lincoln Daily Star, according to an announcement by that newspaper, show republican congressmen have been elected in all six of the state's districts.

Influenza Conditions Improving in Fremont

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Miss Fern McCullough, 16 years old, died in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McCullough, from complications following an attack of influenza.

The epidemic is rapidly waning in Fremont, only a few scattering cases being reported daily. The ban was lifted Monday and schools and theaters are running again. Only six deaths that could be traced directly or indirectly to the ailment, have occurred.

Flu Lid is Clamped on Again as Norfolk Epidemic Grows

Norfolk, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—At a meeting of the Norfolk board of health and school board Tuesday night, at which the influenza situation was discussed, it was decided to put the closing order which was raised Saturday in force again. Beginning today, the schools, theaters and churches will be closed and public gatherings forbidden. The order, which is identical with the one which was used last week, will remain in force until further notice.

Fremont Boy Is Reported Among Missing in Action

Fremont, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Word reached Fremont today that Sgt. Will K. Buss, son of the Reverend, and Mrs. W. H. Buss, is reported missing in action. It is believed a mistake has been made as a letter from Sergeant Buss written in a hospital a month ago reached Fremont recently. The War department has been asked for further information.

York Workman Dies of Hurts.

York, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—Nicholas Quinette, aged 57, died at the Lutheran hospital last night. He was injured in a Public Service company's plant last Sunday by a piece of Pyro block striking him on the head. He is survived by a wife and four children, all of York.

State Elections

are holding their own, having carried the Third, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Tenth and Eleventh.
Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 5.—Gov. Emanuel L. Philipp, republican, today was re-elected and carried with him the state ticket. Philipp's plurality is variously estimated from 15,000 to 40,000.
The congressional returns show the election of nine republicans, one socialist and one democrat. The Second district is in doubt with Voight, republican, leading Clifford, democrat, running a close race.

Superior, Wis., Nov. 5.—Twenty-four out of 32 precincts of Douglas county give:
For governor: Philipp, 1,485; Mochlenpab, 1,010.
For congress: Nelson, republican, 1,597; Jensen, socialist, 552.

CONNECTICUT.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 5.—Gov. Marcus H. Holcomb and the republican state ticket have been elected. Both branches of the general assembly will be strongly republican.

INDIANA.

Indianapolis, Nov. 6.—Additional returns received here tonight from the Third and Fourth congressional districts assured the election of Dunbar and Benham, republicans, in those districts and made a clean sweep of the 13 congressional districts of the state for the republicans.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Nov. 6.—Republicans of Illinois elected a United States senator, 22 out of 27 members of the national house of representatives, including two congressmen at large, and their complete state ticket, besides retaining control of the state legislature, according to returns from 90 per cent of the state received up to the time tabulation closed at 10 o'clock tonight.

For the United States senatorship, Congressman Medill McCormick defeated Senator James Hamilton Lewis, democratic whip of the upper house. Returns from the entire state gave McCormick a plurality of 44,337.
In the contest for congressmen at large, Richard Yates, former governor, and William E. Mason, the incumbent, defeated W. E. Williams and Michael Cleary. Including Cook county, 4,555 precincts out of 5,681 in the state gave Yates 347,994; Mason, 353,903; Williams, 282,354, and Cleary, 278,125.

The democrats elected the following congressmen: John W. Rainey, Adolph J. Sabath, James McAndrews, Thomas Gallagher and Henry T. Rainey.

MINNESOTA.

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 5.—Despite intimations from democratic sources that more complete returns would cut down the leads of the republican candidates for re-election, United States Senator Knute Nelson and Gov. J. A. A. Burnquist tonight continued to increase their leads. The only contest undecided was statewide prohibition and the latest returns showed the drw forces held the lead of about 1,000, with some of their country districts still unreported.

Governor Burnquist increased his lead over David H. Evans, farmer-labor candidate, to 40,000 and he was 50,000 ahead of the democratic candidate, Fred E. Wheaton.
Latest figures for United States senator from 1,172 precincts gave Nelson, 86,293, and Willis C. Calderwood, 43,821.

Returns compiled from all but six Minnesota counties tonight for governor gave: Burnquist, 100,312; Evans, 60,741; Wheaton, 46,020.

CALIFORNIA.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—Apparently decisive pluralities for Governor William D. Stephens, and the republican state ticket in general were shown tonight by returns from yesterday's election. If there is no upset in two contested districts, California will have a congressional delegation of five democrats and six republicans. A republican and "dry" legislature also apparently was elected.

Governor Stephens' defeat of Theodore A. Bell, independent endorsed by the democrats, whose apparent nominee, Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco, was barred from running because he lost the nomination of his own party, was sweeping.

WYOMING.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 6.—Wyoming returns early today indicate a complete landslide for the entire republican ticket in the state, with the possible exception of Mrs. R. N. Norton, republican, who has but a slight lead over Mrs. Mamie Hefferon for state superintendent of schools. Wyoming is estimated to have adopted prohibition two to one.

Constitutional Amendment Against Alien Voting Carried

Lincoln, Nov. 6.—Nebraska voters yesterday approved an amendment to the constitution to prevent all but fully naturalized citizens from voting. Formerly aliens who had declared their intention of becoming citizens were allowed to vote. Returns indicate the amendment carried by a big plurality.

CLEAN SWEEP IN SOUTHWEST FOR REPUBLICANS

Hastings, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—W. E. Andrews, republican, has defeated A. C. Shallenberger, democrat, for congressman in the Fifth district by a majority of from 1,400 to 2,000, incomplete returns indicated this afternoon. Shallenberger carried his own county, one precinct missing, by but 16. Franklin county, two to one democratic last year, returned strong republican majorities. The republicans have made a clean sweep in southwestern Nebraska, electing practically all county tickets in full and giving big majorities on the state tickets.

Farmer Ends Life.

Beatrice, Neb., Nov. 6.—(Special Telegram.)—John H. Svoboda, a farmer living near Barneston, this morning ended his life by taking strychnine. No cause is assigned for the act. He was 67 years of age and leaves a widow and several children.

Women Get Franchise From Voters of South Dakota in Election

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 6.—Widely scattered figures from Tuesday's election indicate that suffrage has carried in South Dakota. In Sioux Falls the issue carried two to one and was running ahead in Minnehaha county. Hyde, Brookings and Hanson also voted suffrage.

Italian Troops Occupy Strategic Position

Washington, Nov. 6.—Important points, occupied by Italian troops before the armistice with Austria became effective, are disclosed in an official Rome dispatch today, announcing that movements agreed upon in the armistice are now taking place. Among the places occupied are Sluderon in Val Venosta, the Mendola pass, the narrows of Salorno in the Adige valley, Levico in the Val Sugana, Fiera Di Primiero in Val Cison, Pontebba, Plezzo, Tolmino, Gorizia, Cervignano, Aquileia and Grado.

Lincoln Man Wounded.

Ottawa, Can., Nov. 6.—The Canadian casualty list issued tonight contains the following name: Wounded, A. W. Luckey, Lincoln, Neb.
